PREFACE

VOLUMES XXII and XXIII, now completed, contain the first three volumes of the original records of the First Church in Plymouth. The printing of these volumes has been undertaken in coöperation with the New England Society in the City of New York.

Of the material here presented, only a portion has hitherto appeared in print. The first of the three original volumes consists of five parts, each separately paged. A considerable portion, but by no means all, of the first part was printed in 1841 by the Rev. Dr. Alexander Young in his Chronicles of the Pilgrim Fathers; and the second part of the first volume has been printed in the Mayflower Descendant. But the third, fourth, and fifth parts of the first volume, and all of the second and of the third volume, are now published for the first time. It is believed that no more important contribution to the ecclesiastical history of New England has been made than will be found in these volumes.

For the Introduction, the Society is indebted to one of its members—Mr. ARTHUR LORD. The Editor is under obligations to Mr. William Bradford Browne and Mr. George Ernest Bowman for genealogical information kindly furnished by them.

Three sets of photostatic reproductions of the first three original volumes of the Plymouth Church Records have been made: one for this Society; one for the Massachusetts Historical Society; and one for Mr. Arthur Lord, who intends to deposit it in Pilgrim Hall.

The Committee gratefully acknowledges the Society's indebtedness to several institutions, and to friends and members of this Society, for permission to reproduce documents in their possession, or for other courtesies, namely: to Mr. Arthur Lord, Mr. Chandler Robbins, the First Church in Plymouth, and the Pilgrim Society.

For the Committee of Publication,

FRED NORRIS ROBINSON,

Chairman.

INTRODUCTION

A TABLET on the meeting-house of the First Church in Plymouth bears this inscription:

The Church of Scrooby, Leyden and the Mayflower, Gathered on this hillside in 1620,
Has ever since preserved unbroken records,
And maintained a continuous ministry,
Its first covenant being still the basis of its fellowship.

The meeting-house stands fronting the Town Square and Leyden Street,

Their hill of graves behind it;
Their watery way before.

The first three volumes of the church records preserve the story of this church from its beginnings at Scrooby until the year 1859. The records from the beginning until 1669 are in the handwriting of Nathaniel Morton, who served as clerk or secretary of the colonial Court from December 7, 1647, until June 2, 1685, and as town clerk from March 4, 1648, the date of his first record in the town book, until his death June 28, 1685.

In July, 1623, Nathaniel Morton, then a boy of about eleven years, came with his father, George Morton, in the Ann to Plymouth. His mother was Juliana Carpenter, sister of Alice Carpenter who, then the widow of Edward Southworth, was married to Governor Bradford in 1623. In 1669 the New England's Memorial, the book by which Morton is best known, was "Published for the Use and Benefit of present and future Generations."

When in January, 1680, he began the ecclesiastical history of the Church of Christ at Plymouth in New England, which is now presented in these volumes, he quaintly refers to his New England's Memorial "in which I occasionally took Notice of Gods Great and Graciouss worke in erecting so many Churches of Christ in this wildernes; But it was Judged by some that were Judicious that I was too sparing and short in that behalf; The consideration wherof put mee on thoughts of Recollecting somthing more p'ticularly Relateing to the Church of Plymouth."

Animated by that purpose and undismayed by the loss of his manuscript by the great fire in Boston in 1676, he writes, "I did once againe Repaire to the studdy of my much honored Vnkle, William Bradford Esquire deceased." In that storehouse of original material, with the manuscripts of the Governor before him and with the records of town and colony to him a familiar story, he undertakes the work. Boy and man he had lived in Plymouth for fifty-seven years on terms of closest intimacy with many a member of the Mayflower company who had welcomed him on his arrival in 1623. Official records, family tradition, and personal acquaintance with members, elders and ministers of the Pilgrim Church made him the best equipped man in all the colony to write the story of that church during the three-quarters of a century which had passed since its feeble beginnings in its English home. When Dr. Alexander Young published his Chronicles of the Pilgrim Fathers in 1841, the importance of these church records to the student of Pilgrim history amply justified the high tribute that learned annalist paid them when he wrote: "It takes precedence of every thing else relating to the Pilgrims, in time, authority, and interest. It will be found to contain a detailed history of their rise in the North of England, their persecutions there, their difficult and perilous escape into Holland, their residence in that hospitable land for twelve years, the causes which led to their emigration, and the means which they adopted to transport themselves to America."¹

Dr. Young was the first historian to note the real authorship of the narrative in the records, a fact put beyond all doubt by the marginal note of Morton, "This was originally pened by Willam Bradford Gou^r of New Plymouth." The first volume also contains Governor Bradford's first "Dialogue or the sume of a Conference between som younge men borne in New England and sundry Ancient men that came out of Holland and old England Ann^o dom^o 1648," giving an account of many of the English Independents and of the meaning of the term Separation, as understood by the leaders of the movement, and also the memoir of Elder Brewster, written by Bradford, and some letters from Robinson and others of the Pilgrim company.

In the towns and villages of Nottinghamshire and Lincolnshire and Yorkshire, where these counties bordered nearest together, this church was formed "and as the Lords ffree people Joyned themselves (by a Covenant of the Lord) into a Church estate in the ffellowshipp of the Gospell to walk in all his wayes made knowne or to be made knowne vnto them according to theire best endeaours, whatsoeuer it should Cost them." The covenant which bound them was as simple as the burdens which oppressed them were severe.

Their first pastor was Mr. Richard Clifton, "a Graue and Reuerend Preacher," who held that office from the organization of the church in 1606 until he was succeeded by John Robinson, some time his colleague. William Brewster was their first elder, and John Carver, their first Governor, was chosen deacon of the church while in Holland as early as 1617.

It is unnecessary to repeat here the story set forth in full in these records, since the publication of Bradford's History of the Plymouth Plantation, which Morton freely used in these records and in part followed verbatim, has made the story of their lives, labors, and sufferings as familiar as a household tale. It is the ecclesiastical history rather than the political, economic and social record of the Pilgrims and their successors at Plymouth which is mainly preserved in these volumes and may justify an Introduction.

When the time for the Pilgrims' departure from Leyden came, it was decided that as the greater number of the Leyden church were to stay behind, it was the duty of the pastor, John Robinson, to remain, and for the elder, William Brewster, to go with those who were to find a new home in the New World. It was also "agreed on by mutuall consente and covenante, that those that went should be an absolute church of them selves, as well as those that staid;" for they feared that in such a dangerous voyage and a removal to such a distance it might come to pass that they should never meet again. But this agreement was made with the proviso that "as any of the rest came over to them, or of the other returned upon occasion, they should be reputed as members without any further dismission or testimoniall.”¹ Technically the date of the foundation of the First Church in Plymouth may be considered as 1620.

John Robinson, the scholarly and pious leader of this independent movement, must be regarded as the true founder of Independency or Congregationalism. His views as expressed in his later writings show a breadth and liberality and toleration which deeply impressed not only the members of his own church but exercised a wide influence in the religious thought of the time. It was undoubtedly true, as Edward Winslow admitted, that Robinson “was more rigid in his course and way at first, then towards his latter end.”² When he exhorted the Pilgrims “If God should reveal any thing to us by any other instrument of his, to be as ready to receive it as ever we were to receive any truth by his Ministry,”³ he compelled the conviction and impressed upon his hearers the thought that there was more light yet to come.

Looking at the ecclesiastical history of this church in its earlier years in Holland and admitting the influence which the Dutch toleration exerted, one cannot fail to be impressed with the accuracy of the statement of Edward Winslow that “the foundation of our New-England Plantations was not laid upon Schisme, division, or Separation, but upon love, peace, and holinesse.”⁴ The Pilgrims undoubtedly were strict Calvinists. The fact that their great religious leader and teacher Robinson was “terrible to the Arminians” was a source of pride and gratification. Their religious dogma and their church polity was clearly and authoritatively stated by William Perkins and John Robinson, the two great leaders of the religious thought expressed in this independent movement.

William Perkins, a Cambridge graduate and voluminous writer, and whose works were more numerously included in Brewster’s library than those of any other theologian, had gathered into six principles the foundation of Christian religion. In a catechism entitled “The Fovndation of Christian Religion, gathered into sixe Principles. As it is to be learned of ignorant people, that they may be fit to heare Sermons with profit and to receiue the Lords Supper with comfort," these six principles of Perkins are as follows:

1st. There is one God, Creator, and Gouernour of all things, distinguished into the Father, the sonne, and the holy Ghost.

2nd. All men are wholly corrupted with sin through Adams fal, & so are become slaues of Sathan, and guiltie of eternall damnation.

3rd. Iesus Christ the eternal Sonne of God, being made man, by his death vpon the Crosse, and by his righteousnesse, hath perfectly alone by himselfe, accomplished all things that are needfull for the saluation of mankind.

4th. A man of a contrite and humble spirite, by faith alone apprehending and applying Christ with all his merits vnto himselfe, is iustified before God, and sanctified.

5th. Faith commeth onely by the preaching of the word, and increaseth dayly by it: as also by the administration of the Sacraments, and praier.

6th. All men shall rise againe with their own bodies, to the last iudgement, which beeing ended, the godly shall possesse the kingdome of heauen: but vnbelieuers and reprobates shall be in hell, tormented with the diuell and his angels for euer.¹

Robinson wrote an Appendix to these principles in the form of a Catechism, containing forty-six questions and answers. He defines a church as "A company of faithful and holy people, with their seed, called by the Word of God into public covenant with Christ and amongst themselves, for mutual fellowship in the use of all the means of God's glory and their salvation," and limits its number so that it shall not exceed such a number as may ordinarily meet together in one place for the worship of God. He defines the offices of ministry in the church to be —

1. The pastor (exhorter), to whom is given the gift of wisdom for exhortation.
2. The teacher, to whom is given the gift of knowledge for doctrine.
3. The governing elder, who is to rule with diligence. . . .
4. The deacon, who is to administer the holy treasure with simplicity.
5. The widow or deaconess, who is to attend the sick and impotent with compassion and cheerfulness; and states the outward works of the church's communion with Christ as —

1. Prayer.
2. The reading and opening of the Word.
3. The sacraments.
4. Singing of Psalms.
5. Censures.
6. Contribution to the necessities of the saints.¹

The church polity and the church dogma of this Pilgrim church are authoritatively stated in the catechisms of Perkins and of Robinson, and the catechism used as late as Mr. Cotton's ministry (1669–1697) was the catechism of William Perkins, though it was during Mr. Cotton's pastorate that a change was made (in 1678) to the Assembly's shorter catechism.²

The first definitive declaration of the faith and church polity of the Pilgrims is found in the document in the Public Record Office at London, signed by John Robinson and William Brewster and first printed by Mr. George Bancroft in 1857, which reads as follows:

Seven Articles which y^e Church of Leyden sent to y^e [Privy] Counsell of England to bee considered of in respeckt of their judgments occationed about theer going to Virginia Anno 1618.

1. To y^e confession of fayth [the 39 Articles of Religion of 1562] published in y^e name of y^e Church of England & to every artikell theerof wee do wth y^e reformed churches wheer wee live & also elswhere assent wholy.

7. Lastly, wee desyer to geve untto all Superiors dew honnor to preserve y^e unity of y^e speritt wth all feare God, to have peace wth all men what in us lyeth & wheerein wee err to bee instructed by any.¹

Whether the purpose in subscribing to this declaration was mainly to minimize the differences between the Leyden church and the Church of England, in order to secure the necessary permission to go beyond the seas and found an English colony, or whether there is some distinction to be drawn between the ecclesiastical and civil authority of the bishops, which they recognized, and qualifies a literal construction of the language, is not clear. Winslow in his Hypocricie Unmasked, quotes Robinson as saying —

And to that end . . . I should be glad if some godly Minister would goe over with you, or come to you, before my comming; For . . . there will bee no difference between the unconformable Ministers [the Puritan Anglican clergy] and you, when they come to the practise of the Ordinances out of the Kingdome.²

To the same effect is the brief and simple statement in the letter of January, 1618, signed by Robinson and Brewster, as follows:

Touching the Ecclesiastical minnstry Namely — of Pastours for teaching Elders for Ruleing and deacons for distributing the Churches Contribution as alsoe for the two sacraments Baptisme and the Lords supper wee doe wholly and in all points agree with the ffrench Reformed Churches, according to theirie publick confession of ffaithe though some smal differences. The oath of Supremacie we shall willingly tak if it be Reqvired of vs if that Convenient satisfaction be not giuen by our takeing the oath of Allegience.³

The oath of Supremacy acknowledged the king to be "the supreme head of the Church of England," and the oath of Allegiance was an oath of "submission and obedience to the king as a temporal sovereign independent of any other power upon earth."

Although the imperious necessities of the situation made it necessary for the members of the Mayflower company to form themselves into a body politic for the administration of civil affairs, no occasion existed for a formal organization of a new church. The plan adopted in Leyden was entirely adequate to their needs and they had hoped that the pastor and the rest of the church might soon follow them to their new home. The death of Robinson in Leyden on March 1, 1625, prevented that consummation of their hopes which they devoutly wished. From time to time other members of the Leyden church came to Plymouth until in 1629, at the charge of the Plymouth brethren, thirty-five families were finally transported to Plymouth at the cost of about five hundred pounds sterling.

The result of this removal and the union that year with others who had been members of Mr. Lothrop's church in England, was that the First Church at Plymouth about this time "became pretty numerous and flourishing, although in regard of Ministry it was low with them," as stated by Mr. John Cotton in his Account of the Church of Christ in Plymouth.¹

The faithful administrations of their scholarly and beloved elder did not fully meet all their needs. The duties and authority of an elder of the church did not include and permit the administration of the sacraments. In the absence of the pastor, marriages were performed by civil rather than ecclesiastical authorities, following the practice in Holland, a matter later of reproach to Edward Winslow and subjecting him to the penalty of imprisonment in the Fleet prison on the occasion of an early visit to London.

The first preacher at Plymouth was one John Lyford, who came to Plymouth in 1624 and before the expiration of a year was discovered to be "a vile man and an enemy to the plantation," and was banished from Plymouth.

The church remained without a minister until 1628, and then there was sent over from England to be their minister a young man by the name of Rogers. The church did not hastily determine upon the settlement of Rogers, recalling their experience in Lyford's case, and made some trial of him as a candidate with an unsatisfactory result. They found him to be "Crased in his braine," and at the expense of the church sent him back to England. Their conclusion as to his mental condition seemed to be fully justified, for after his departure he "Grew quite destracted."

The first settled minister of the church was the Rev. Ralph Smith who, at the invitation of the church, became its pastor in 1629 and remained with them until his resignation in 1635. During Mr. Smith's ministry they employed assistants to him, finding him to be "a man of low gifts and parts." Among these assistants were Mr. Roger Williams, "a young Man of bright Accomplishments, but of unstable Judgment," who at his own request, against the wishes of many of the congregation, was granted a dismission to the church at Salem in 1634; and Mr. John Norton, who came to Plymouth in October, 1635, but went to Ipswich in the following March.¹

The church then made choice of Mr. John Reyner as the successor to Mr. Smith, "an able and a Godly man; and of a Meek and humble sperite, sound in the truth and euery way vnreprovable in his life and Conversation." During his term of service the church in 1638 endeavored to secure the services of Mr. Charles Chauncy as his colleague. Mr. Reyner was expected to officiate as pastor and Mr. Chauncy as teacher, according to the distinction of those days, the teacher's duty being chiefly to explain the doctrines, and the pastor's to enforce them with suitable counsels and exhortations.

Mr. Chauncy preached at Plymouth for nearly three years but declined a settlement, being of different opinion from the majority of the church as to the method of baptism, which he held should be by dipping or plunging the whole body in water. The church were reluctant to lose his services and offered to compromise by permitting him to administer the ordinance of baptism by immersion, provided he would permit Mr. Reyner to baptize, if requested, by sprinkling, which was then the mode in general use. The position was taken by some of the church leaders that both of these methods were lawful and proper but that the latter method, the baptism by sprinkling, was vastly more convenient in this cold climate. Mr. Chauncy "did not see Light to comply," and left the Plymouth Church to become the minister of the church at Scituate, and later became President of Harvard College, entering upon the duties of his office on November 27, 1654, and died on the 19th of February, 1672.

After eighteen years of service Mr. Reyner resigned in 1654, "Richly accomplished with such Gifts and qualifications as were befitting his place being wise faithfull Grave sober a louer of Good men Not Greedy of the matters of the world Armed with much faith patience and meeknes mixed with Currage in the cause of God."¹

In 1632 churches at Duxbury and Green's Harbor (or Marshfield) were established, mainly upon practical considerations based upon the difficulty of members bringing "their wiues and Children to the publick worshipp and Church meetings heer."

The third church to be set off was at Nauset, now Eastham. It had been at first proposed that the whole church should migrate to Nauset on account of the "straightnes and barrenes" which the inhabitants found in Plymouth. There was a marked division of opinion as to the wisdom of the removal which further consideration of the objections to the proposed change increased. It may be inferred from Bradford's statement that he was not in favor of abandoning the settlement at Plymouth which with so great labor and pains they had established, and after much deliberation they began

"to see their error," and an agreement was finally reached that only those members of the church who had definitely decided upon removal and had made some beginning should establish themselves at Nauset.

The land at Nauset had been reserved by Governor Bradford for the benefit of the "purchasers or old comers" in his assignment of the patent of 1629, and the General Court granted in 1644 to the church at Plymouth or to those that went to dwell at Nauset a large tract, well defined in the grant.¹ The effect of this migration to the new settlement of many active and leading members of the Plymouth church is quaintly and tenderly stated by Governor Bradford in these words:

And thus was this poore church left, like an anciente mother, growne olde, and forsaken of her children, (though not in their affections), yett in regarde of their bodily presence and personall helpfullnes. Her anciente members being most of them worne away by death; and these of later time being like children translated into other families, and she like a widow left only to trust in God. Thus she that had made many rich became her selfe poore.²

This movement of families from the town of Plymouth into the outlying districts raised some interesting questions which required consideration and advice. On the 5th day of August, 1639, Mr. Reyner, the pastor, and elder Brewster, wrote a letter, probably to the Rev. John Cotton at Boston, asking some questions "concerning the holding of farmes," among them the following:

2. Seeing by meanes of such farmes a mans famylie is Diuided so that in busie tymes they cannot (except vpon the Lords day) all of them joyne with him in famylie duties whether to make use of them because of the forenamed needfulnes be not to doe evell that good may come of yt.³

After Mr. Reyner's resignation in 1654, the church remained for fifteen years without a settled minister and was obliged to rely upon the services of neighboring ministers, although public worship was carried on each Sabbath by Elder Cushman with the assistance of some of the brethren, except when the pulpit was supplied for short periods during these years by Mr. James Williams, an able Gospel preacher, who after a brief service returned to England, and by Mr. William Brinsmead, a well accomplished servant of Christ.

In September, 1666, the Rev. John Cotton, son of the Rev. John Cotton of Boston, was called to Plymouth, but declined the invitation. The next year the invitation was renewed and he removed to Plymouth with his family November 30, 1667, but was not ordained as the minister of the church until June 30, 1669.

The distinction between the church and the town or parish in relation to their several powers to contract with or settle a minister may well be noted here, as it tends to explain the reason that the prudential affairs of the church had no consideration in the church meetings, whose full details are preserved in these records.

The power to settle the minister resided wholly in the members of the parish; the members of the church formed but a small part in numbers of the parish. The ancient usage required that the church should first make choice of a minister and then request the concurrence of the parish. If the parish did not concur, the action of the church was a mere nullity. If the parish concurred, then the contract of settlement was made between the parish and the minister and bound only the parish and minister. Until the town was divided into precincts or parishes, it was considered to be one parish, and when a separate parish was formed within it, then the inhabitants and territory not included in the separate parish constituted the first parish. Before the town was divided their parochial concerns were transacted at the town meeting. The town fixed the salary, imposed the rate to pay the salary and to provide for the purchasing of a place or parsonage for the minister, and contracted for the erection of the meeting-house. If a suit was brought by the builders of the meeting-house to recover for failure to pay the agreed cost of construction, it was brought against the town and the town instructed its committee to defend it.

The provisions for the payment of the minister's salary were made by the town and varied with the changing years. Sometimes the salary was fixed in money alone. More often in the earlier years grant was made of money salary and firewood, as in the case of Mr. Brinsmead in 1666, when his salary was fixed at "seaventy pounds a yeare besides his fierwood.”¹ Three years earlier in 1663 the town had ordered that the wood on Clark’s Island, Saquish, and the Gurnett’s Nose, be reserved for the use of the minister,² an interesting record as it established the fact that the now barren points of Saquish and the Gurnett were once covered with wood, as shown in the descriptions of these localities by the early voyagers. Sometimes, as in the case of Mr. Cotton, provision was made by the town for an allowance to his wife or family in the event of his death, of an annual salary and the use of the parsonage house until the town was provided with another minister.

When money was difficult to obtain in 1677, the salary of Mr. Cotton of “four score pounds for this yeare” was paid by the town, one third in wheat or butter or tar or shingles; one third in rye, peas or malt; and one third in Indian corn, at the prices named in the vote.³ The town records show that from time to time efforts were made to provide for the maintenance by free subscription and committees were appointed to see what persons would contribute towards the minister’s support. This plan appeared to be unsatisfactory, as the town soon returned to the method of raising the salary by the rates. As late as 1795 the town leased the sedge lands along the Town Brook, which had been reserved for the use of the ministry, for 999 years, at a rental of six bushels of corn on the northerly side, the southerly side of the Brook having been rented for four bushels of corn in 1788, and until the death of the Rev. James Kendall in 1859 this rental was annually paid to the pastor by the lessees or their grantees.

If a town or parish settled a minister without any limitations as to the continuance of his settlement or any stipulation as to the method of dissolution, it created a contract for life and could be terminated only in the manner and for the causes established by law. The connection could not be dissolved by the parish at its mere will and pleasure without alleging some misconduct on the part of the minister. There were three established causes of forfeiture of office by the minister: first, a substantial and essential change of doctrine; secondly, a wilful neglect of duty; and thirdly, immoral or criminal conduct. The immoralities sufficient to justify a parish in dismissing their minister without the intervention of a council, are those of the grosser sort, such as habitual intemperance, lying, unchaste or immodest behavior.¹

If the town or parish desired the dissolution of connection between them and the minister or the minister desired such dissolution, and also where there were charges of immorality or neglect on the part of the minister, the parties, if they could not agree to dissolve the contract, called to their assistance an ecclesiastical council. The decision of the council did not bind either party, and the effect of the advice of the council was merely a legal justification of the party who adopted its recommendation.²

The colonial laws as well as the decisions of the court show a solicitous care for the support of an able and godly minister. At the General Court held at Plymouth on the 10th of June, 1650, it was provided that "Whosoever shall villifie by approbrivs tearmes or speaches any church or minstry or ordinance being heerof lawfully convicted shall forfeite and pay to the vse of the collonie ten shillings for euery default."³ The next year a penalty of ten shillings was imposed for neglecting public worship or assembling at a place upon any pretense whatsoever "in any way contrary to God and the allowance of the gouernment tending to the subversion of Religion and churches."⁴ In 1655 the General Court provided that "such as shall deney the Scriptures to bee a rule of life shall receiue Corporall punishment according to the discretion of the Majistrate soe as it shall not extend to life or Limb."⁵ And with commendable zeal that the minister should not be without oil in his lamps, the General Court recommended in 1662 to the towns "where Gods Prouidence shall cast any whales" that they should agree to set apart some part "of euery such fish or oyle for the Incurragement of an able Godly Minnester amongst them."⁶ But all matters pertaining to the forms of church service were the exclusive concern of the church.

The church at Plymouth used Ainsworth's version of the Psalms, entitled "The Book of Psalms: Englished both in Prose and Metre," until 1692. Longfellow in the Courtship of Myles Standish, describes Priscilla as seated beside her wheel and —

Open wide on her lap lay the well-worn psalm-book of Ainsworth, Printed in Amsterdam, the words and the music together,
Rough-hewn, angular notes, like stones in the wall of a churchyard, Darkened and overhung by the running vine of the verses.

The edition here referred to was "Imprinted at Amsterdam, By Giles Thorp. A°. D^o. 1612."

On May 17, 1685, the elders stayed the church after public worship was ended, and "moved to sing Psalm: 130: in another Translation, because in Mr Ainsworths Translation which wee sang, the tune was soe difficult few could follow it, the chh readily consented thereunto." On August 7, 1692, the church voted unanimously that "when the tunes are difficult in the Translation wee use, wee will sing the Psalms now used in our neighbor-ches in the Bay." This was "The Bay Psalm Book," printed first at Cambridge in 1640 and sometimes known as "The New England Version."

As early as 1681 the practice of reading the psalm line by line for the people to sing, was first introduced. At a church meeting held February 10, 1681, the elders told the church that "a Brother earnestly desired the Psalms might be read in publick worship, because else he was incapable of practising that ordinance." The church hesitated to make this innovation in the old custom and desired the pastor to show from the Scriptures the lawfulness of reading the psalm in order to singing. The pastor considered the subject for more than six months and then (on September 18) showed the lawfulness and necessity of reading the psalm, and two weeks later (October 2, 1681) it was decided, although not without opposition, that the reading of the psalms was lawful and the practice was adopted of the elder's reading the psalm and the pastor's expounding the psalm before singing.

In several meetings in 1770 and 1771 the church considered changing the version of the Psalms which were sung in public worship.¹ For some years the versions of Dr. Watts and of Tait and

Brady had been on trial. The church was divided; some strongly in favor of Dr. Watts's version, and others bitterly opposed, and it was decided, subject to the approval of the congregation, that Tait and Brady's version be hereafter sung in public worship, and also, that the hymns annexed to that version, mainly by Dr. Watts, be made use of. But it was voted in 1786 that Dr. Watts's "Version of the Psalms, & Hymns united, be sung in future."

It is a curious illustration of the bitterness of the feeling as to the use of the hymns by Dr. Watts that on May 1, 1776, one of the deacons was brought to trial before the church charged with saying that "when Dr. Watts composed his Hymns, he was under the Influence of y^e Devil." The church handled the matter ingeniously and voted that it was proved the deacon "said so with respect to his Psalms, tho not Hymns." The deacon expressed his regret that he used such an expression, if he did use it, and the church accepted his qualified apology and voted to forgive him.¹

From the time of Mr. Cotton's settlement, the records of the church were kept by the ministers and during his ministry the practice began, which was followed by all his successors, of giving in full detail the names of communicants of the church and persons admitted to membership, and also full lists of the baptisms and deaths of members, which will be found of especial interest to genealogists and antiquarians.² The pastors of the church also kept full records of the ecclesiastical councils and ordinations to which the church was invited and was represented by its minister and delegates.³ The minute reports of the numerous cases in the church which required investigation and trial present some curious cases of church discipline, where the penalty varied from a warning or temporary suspension of privileges to formal dismissal and excommunication.⁴

Mr. Cotton introduced (or revived) in 1669 the practice of catechizing children, using at first the catechism composed by the Rev. William Perkins, and later (in 1678) the Assembly's catechism was adopted. It was also during his ministry that the change was made from the Ainsworth Psalm Book to the New England Psalm Book, before referred to.

In June, 1676, in compliance with the request of the General Court that "all our churches renew their covenant engagement to God for Reformation of all provoking evils," the church met and voted that the following covenant should be left upon record as that which they "did own to be the substance of that Covenant which their Fathers' entered into at the first gathering of the Church."

In the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ & in obedience to his holy will & divine ordinances.

Wee being by the most wise & good providence of God brought together in this place & desirous to unite our selves into one congregation or church under the Lord Jesus Christ our Head, that it may be in such sort as becometh all those whom He hath redeemed & sanctifyed to himselfe, wee doe hereby solemnly & religiously (as in his most holy prescence) avouch the Lord Jehovah the only true God to be our God & the God of ours & doe promise & binde ourselves to walke in all our wayes according to the Rule of the Gospel & in all sincere conformity to His holy ordinances & in mutuall love to & watchfullnesse over one another, depending wholy & only upon the Lord our God to enable us by his grace hereunto.¹

Some differences having arisen in the church, Mr. Cotton resigned and at his request was dismissed on October 5, 1697. The reasons for Mr. Cotton's resignation do not clearly appear in the church records. It is suggested that a difference of opinion between the pastor and his church as to the position taken by Mr. Isaac Cushman, who accepted an invitation to preach over the "upper society," since called Plympton,² before his designation to office of ruling elder by the church, was the principal cause for Mr. Cotton's later withdrawal. Judge Sewall in his Diary gives an interesting account of his visit to Plymouth in March, 1698, and his interviews with

² The Plympton church, to which Mr. Cushman was called in 1695 and over which he was ordained on October 27, 1698, was the fourth offshoot of the Plymouth Church.

Mr. Cotton and members of the church, which suggests some more serious grounds for Mr. Cotton's resignation.¹ He remained in Plymouth for a year after his withdrawal from his pastorate and then accepted a call to the church at Charleston, South Carolina, having made up all differences as his grandson, John Cotton, says with the Plymouth church, and receiving a recommendation from several ministers. He sailed for Charleston on the 16th of November, 1698, and died there after a brief but successful ministry, on the 18th of September, 1699. The Charleston church erected in token of their respect, a monument over his grave in that city, and the Plymouth church erected a monument to his memory on Burial Hill. From a diary kept by Josiah Cotton, son of the Rev. John Cotton of Plymouth, Dr. James Thacher copied an account of the life of this Plymouth minister, in which it is stated:

He had a vast and strong memory, and was a living index to the Bible. . . . He sometimes preached in the Indian language, and he corrected the second and last edition of the Indian bible. . . . He was a competent scholar, but divinity was his favorite study. He discharged the work of the ministry to good acceptance, both in public and in private, and was very desirous of the conversion of souls. He ruled his house like a tender parent; was a hearty friend, helpful to the needy, kind to strangers and doubtless a good man. And yet, what man is there without his failings?²

He was succeeded by the Rev. Ephraim Little, who after two years' probation was ordained in 1699 and continued as the minister of the church until his death on the 24th of November, 1723. It may be noted that Mr. Little was the first minister of the church to be buried on Burial Hill. Since the landing of the Pilgrims only one other minister, the Rev. Chandler Robbins, rests in that graveyard beside the church.

The meeting of the church council in 1706 to hear the complaints of members of the church in Middleboro of the intemperance and excessive drinking of the minister of that church, shows the limited power and authority of church councils and that the particular province of the church council was to advise and not direct, and that the right to terminate the pastoral relations between minister and church was vested in the parish alone. Delegates from four churches heard the complaint and adjudged the charges to be proved and then "advised him to make a peaceable and Ordrely Secession" from the church, and advised the church to dismiss him with such expressions of love and charity as became the Gospel. Then those members of the church who were dissatisfied with the advice of the council called a second council of twelve churches. Twelve pastors and twenty-two delegates assembled in response to the call and concurred with the former council.¹

Mr. Little is described as a "gentleman more inclined to the active than the studious life; but should be remembered for his useful services as a minister, and for his exemplary life and conversation, being one of good memory, a quick invention, having an excellent gift in prayer, and in occasional performances also excelling."²

The records of the church during Mr. Cotton's and Mr. Little's ministries contain many references to the general fasts and particular fasts observed by the church. The general fasts were fasts throughout the province, held in accordance with the requirements of the General Court, and particular fasts were those limited to the church itself, and the speedy answers to the prayers of the church were often noted with pious satisfaction.

In the administration of the right of baptism, a difference of opinion existed in the practice of the ministers. Mr. Little held that if the mother was in full communion, the child was undeniably a proper subject of baptism. For the first time in the history of the church, the pastor performed the right of baptism privately by baptizing on July 19, 1718, one Ephraim Holmes, who being at the point of death was baptized in his own house, and justifies the proceedings by the following memorandum in the record:

I nev^r could find that baptism (viz. the administration of it) is any where in scripture Limitted To y^e sabbath or a public Assembly, & I always had a great^r regard to y^e Scripture than the Custome or practice of any Minister or Church.

During Mr. Little's pastorate two churches were set off from the ancient church, one in the year 1717 in the north part of the town, now Kingston, which was the fifth church;² another in 1738 at Manomet or Monument Ponds, which was the sixth church³ founded by members of the original First Church.

On the 29th of July, 1724, the Rev. Nathaniel Leonard of Norton, who had been chosen to succeed Mr. Little on the 13th of February, 1724, was ordained as minister. The formal letters of invitation were sent to the neighboring churches, requesting the presence of minister and delegates to the ministerial council and ordination. Mr. Leonard notes in his record the names of fifty-four male communicants or members of the church, and one hundred and one females, at the time of his ordination. The house which he built and occupied on the southerly side of Leyden Street is still standing, the oldest parsonage house now remaining in Plymouth.

As a result of the preachings of Andrew Croswell,⁴ a revival minister, with whom Mr. Leonard was in sympathy as he permitted him to preach in his pulpit,⁵ differences arose in the church and Josiah Cotton, son of the Rev. John Cotton of Plymouth, propounded certain queries, one of which at least was aimed directly at Mr. Croswell's methods and preachings. The church met to consider the problem "Whether a sudden and short distress, and as sudden joy, amounts to the repentance described and required. (2 Corin. vii. 9-11.)."⁶ No formal decision was made by the church, but as a result of these church dissensions some of the society who were bitterly opposed to Mr. Leonard withdrew from the church and in 1744 organized the third Congregational society within the town, which was the seventh church formed from the First Church. This church, known as the Third Church, continued as a separate organization until 1784, when it re-united during the pastorate of Mr. Robbins with the old First Church.¹

Mr. Leonard's health failing in 1757 he asked to be dismissed from his pastoral relation, which was assented to by the church with the understanding that it was not to be formally completed until his successor had been settled. When his successor was ordained on January 30, 1760, Mr. Leonard was present at the ordination and came from his home in Norton, to which he had removed in 1757, took part in the exercises of the ordination, and secured the formal dismissal from his pastorate, the church "at the same Time acknowledging it is a great Favour of Heaven, that we have enjoyed his Labours So long. Viz. For near three & thirty Years: In this Time we have found him a diligent, zealous, faithful Minister of Jesus Christ."²

After the dismissal of Mr. Leonard, the church heard many candidates and made several unsuccessful attempts to settle a minister. Invitations to clergymen in other places to become the minister of the church at Plymouth for one reason or another had been declined and after all hopes faded, the Rev. Chandler Robbins of Branford, Connecticut, was invited to preach as a candidate, and on October 30, 1759, the church chose him as Mr. Leonard's successor, but required that he should declare his assent and consent to the New England Confession of Faith or exhibit one in writing to the satisfaction of the church. Mr. Robbins accepted the call after a public declaration before the church and congregation of his assent and consent to the New England Confession, and on the 30th of January, 1760, was ordained as the minister of the First Church.

On June 11, 1761, Mr. Leonard died at Norton and the church records, quoting from the public prints, pay tribute to his memory: "He was a Man of considerable natural Abilities (as well of acquired Accomplishments,) of a clear Head, Solid judgment, penetrating Tho't, Excelling in Conference and in giving Counsel & Advice in difficult Cases.”¹

On December 19, 1770, Mr. Robbins called the church together to consider some matters of importance relative to church discipline, etc. The following question was proposed by him for consideration by the church: “Whither it be the Opinion of this Chh that the half way Practice of owning or entering into Covenant [without coming into full communion], which has of late years, been adopted by this Chh, be a scriptural Method — or a practice warranted by s^d Word of God, & so to be persisted in?”²

To this half-way practice Mr. Robbins was strenuously opposed; the church was divided. Mr. John Cotton³ was a zealous supporter and advocate of the practice which permitted persons owning or renewing the covenant to have baptism for their children without coming into full communion. At several church meetings he delivered some essays on this important question as he termed it, and later printed the essays with some vigorous and at times bitter letters which passed between Mr. Robbins and himself. The controversy continued during Mr. Robbins’s ministry and was one of the contributing causes which led to the withdrawal of some members of the church shortly after Dr. Kendall’s settlement, and to the organization of the Third Church in Plymouth.⁴ The issues involved have lost much of their interest to-day and it is not material nor practical to state at length the theological arguments on the one side or the other which the stout champions presented. The curious reader will find in the records,⁵ in the little volume of Mr. Cotton’s above referred to, and in the other pamphlets published by the disputants, an interesting discussion of the disputed points and a striking illustration of the importance attached to a now forgotten matter of dispute.

The practice of the church from the beginning seemed to sustain the position of Mr. Cotton. That this practice met with the approval of his “grandfather Cotton, the former minister of this church," he finds by the manuscript written by his grandfather's "own hand." To the suggestion —

" That we received this practice by tradition from our Fathers without examination, and have gone on in a loose way without being able to give any good reason for it." I answer, that neither our Fathers introduced it, nor we received it in this light manner. The question was started in the country soon after grand-children were born to the first comers, and the point agitated for twenty or thirty years by the ablest Divines, until at last the Synod of all the Ministers and churches, came to a solemn decision about it in the year 1662, after much prayer, study, and converse, and gave such weighty reasons for it as were never yet answered. Neither did many of their posterity receive it thus lightly: Mr. Leonard in particular had occasion and thoroughly studied the controversy, as appeared by several sermons on the point; and the same may be said of many others.¹

Nathaniel Morton, writing of the ordination of Mr. Francis Higginson and Mr. Samuel Skelton at Salem in 1629, states the practice clearly and simply as follows:

The two Ministers there being seriously studious of Reformation, they considered of the state of their Children, together with their Parents; concerning which, Letters did pass between Mr. Higginson, and Mr. Brewster the reverend Elder of the church of Plimouth, and they did agree in their judgements, viz. concerning the Church-Membership of the Children with their parents, and that Baptism was a seal of their Membership, only when they were Adult, they being not scandalous, they were to be examined by the Church-Officers, and upon their approbation of their fitness, and upon the Childrens publick and personal owning of the Covenant, they were to be received unto the Lords Supper. Accordingly Mr. Higginson's eldest Son, being about fifteen years of age, was owned to have been received a member together with his Parents, and being privately examined by the Pastor, Mr. Skelton, about his knowledge in the principles of Religion, he did present him before the Church when the Lords supper was to be Administred, and the Childe then publickly and personally owning the Covenant of the God of his Father, he was admitted unto the Lords supper: it being then professedly owned, according to 1 Cor. 7. 14. that the Children of the Church are holy unto the Lord as well as their Parents, Accordingly, the Parents owning and retaining the Baptism, which they themselves received in their Infancy, in their Native Land, as they had any Children born, Baptism was administred unto them.¹

The reason Plymouth Church did not join the Synod was mainly because that church "was without a minister ten years together about that time."

It seems undisputed that Mr. Leonard adopted the practice for which Mr. Cotton contended, but it was objected that he had great difficulty in bringing in the practice and was seven years about it, which delay was due to his prudence, for he waited until he gained the acquiescence of all. This was in accordance with the ancient practice and constitution of the church, for in the records we find that they would not vote in affairs of importance, especially in alterations of any part of worship, until they had gained the consent of every brother, at least so far as to acquiesce in the church procedure.

The whole correspondence between the minister and Mr. Cotton was marked with bitterness. Mr. Robbins describes Mr. Cotton's "last Piece" as a "most injurious, unchristian, ungentleman-like, gross, misrepresentation of the sentiments of your brethren." This was bad enough, but it did not disturb Mr. Cotton's sensitive feelings as did the suggestion that his (Cotton's) opinions tended "to establish the most dangerous tenets of the Arminians," to which he replies, "Mr. Robbins, I must tell you, I scorn the charge," and later returns to the attack with the assertion that "there is no more connexion between this practice and Arminianism than between it and atheism," and closes his argument on that point with the assertion "Methinks the boldest face may be justly ashamed ever to mention it any more." Mr. Robbins offered to "bury the hatchet and forget and forgive and for the future to live in love and peace."

The settlement of the difficulty appeared to Mr. Cotton as "a further insult" and not a retraction or acknowledgment, and the controversy proceeded with his fourth and last essay² in which he proposed that "the church, by a formal vote, adopt the method I proposed the last town meeting, viz. for a neighbouring Minister to baptize the children of the church, as long as Mr. Robbins's scruples remain. . . . We are willing to give him liberty of conscience; and expect the same liberty from him. And should think it hard, if he endeavours to prevent any Minister's coming."¹ The town never voted on Mr. Cotton's proposal, and the church at its meeting on June 30, 1772, voted to drop the affair for the present and "to reassume the further Consideration thereof, when they shall think it proper or necessary." The suggestion, however, in time became adopted in practice, and those children who failed to meet with the minister's strict requirements were baptized by a more liberal preacher on the occasion of some of Mr. Robbins's infrequent exchanges.

The church was not only divided on matters of practice and dogma, but also was not in complete accord on the issues presented by the Revolutionary War. Mr. Robbins was a sturdy patriot and served from time to time with the Revolutionary forces at Dorchester as chaplain, but some of the leading citizens of the town were not in sympathy with the demands for independence and separation from the mother country. Deacon Foster was brought before the church charged inter alia that his political conduct and practice were just matters of offence, that he "discovers a Willingness to have this Country enslaved," and "is an Advocate for ye Destructive Doctrines of Positive Obedience & Non Resistance."

On July 17, 1776, at the hearing upon the charges against Deacon Foster, it was urged against him that he looked upon those of the brethren who were opposed to him in political opinions as rebels and deserving of punishment, and he being unwilling to make any recantation, it was voted almost unanimously that they could not contentedly communicate with him at the Lord's table. At the deacon's request the meeting was adjourned for further deliberation, without proceeding to his formal suspension from the Communion, and before final action was taken Deacon Foster died of small-pox in January, 1777.

Another of the brethren explained his non-attendance upon church worship upon the ground that "The people of the town in general treated him in contempt, calling him a 'Tory.'

In 1794 a committee of the church and a committee of the parish were appointed to meet and prepare a form of admission to the church and confession of faith. Dr. Robbins proposed a plan which met the approval of his committee but the committee of the parish would not concur. The confession of faith, as stated by Dr. Robbins and adopted by the church in June, 1795, contained fourteen articles, agreeing in substance with the six principles of William Perkins.

The records of the church during Dr. Robbins's term of service contain a larger number of cases of church discipline than are to be found in the records kept by any other of the pastors of the church. A scholarly, learned and devout minister, possessing the confidence and respect of all his congregation and the affection of many, he had positive ideas as to the duties and responsibilities of pastor and church to its erring members. The morals as well as the religious beliefs of the members of his parish were subjects of his interest and care. He thoroughly believed in the propriety and importance of public admonitions and public confessions,¹ and while he tempered justice with mercy as he understood it, in the cases of those of his flock who were prepared to retract their errors and confess their sins and show repentance, he did not hesitate to proceed to the severest measures which it was possible for a church to take.

On July 1, 1798, he pronounced formal sentence of excommunication upon one member of his church: "I declare him to belong visibly to the sinful & woful Kingdom of Satan, the Ruler of the Darkness of this World. I declare him to be a Person, from whom Christians, the followers of our holy Lord are to 'withdraw themselves, as from one that walks disorderly.' And this just Sentence, now passed upon him, by the Church in the Name & by the Authority of Christ, is but a Prelude & Representation of a Sentence, far more dreadful to be passed upon him, in the Day when the Lord Jesus Christ shall come to judge the world."²

Upon the re-union of the Third and First churches in 1784, Dr. Robbins became the pastor of a parish including within its limits the town of Plymouth excepting only the precinct of Manomet Ponds, and until his death on June 30, 1799, he was, with the exception of the pastor of that outlying precinct, the only settled minister in the town. Whatever dissatisfaction existed with Dr. Robbins's strictness in religious and parochial matters was undoubtedly held in check during his term of service by the affection and respect which the members of his parish entertained for him and no formal action looking towards a division of the church was had, although it is probable that a majority of the church were not entirely in sympathy with his attitude upon some matters of discipline and practice.

Until 1788 he occupied the parsonage on the northerly side of Leyden Street, which stands on a portion of the lot presented to the church by the widow and son of Dr. Samuel Fuller of the Mayflower, who for many years was a deacon of the church. This parsonage house is still standing and was occupied by his successor, Dr. Kendall. The following memorandum appears in the church records:

Lord's Day June 30th 1799, died, after a long and distressing illness, The Rev^d Chandler Robbins DD. The justly & highly esteemed & greatly beloved Pastor of this Church; to the great and inexpressible loss of his bereaved flock, and his other numerous acquaintance. After having faithfully and indefatigably laboured in this part of the Lords vineyard, nearly forty years, it pleased his Divine Master to release him from his service here, & to call him home to receive a gracious reward.¹

The last entry made by Dr. Robbins on the church records was the record of the meeting of February 12, 1799. The moderator of the next meeting, held November 4, 1799, records the choice of a minister by the church to succeed Dr. Robbins by a vote of twenty-three for Mr. James Kendall and "fifteen were not for him." The parish voted to concur with the church by a vote of 253 in the affirmative and 15 in the negative. Mr. Kendall's answer to the call given him by the church on the 4th of November, 1799, is recorded in full in the records. He was born at Sterling, November 3, 1769, and was nearly fitted to enter Harvard College at the early age of fourteen, but on account of serious trouble with his eyes, attributed to the closeness of his application to the study of Greek in the evening, he was not permitted to enter college until 1792. He was graduated in the class of 1796 with high rank and in 1798

became a tutor of Greek in the College, and later received the degree of A.M. in course and of S.T.D. in 1825. He was the first candidate invited to preach in Plymouth after the death of Dr. Robbins and preached his first sermon as candidate on October 13, 1799. Dr. Thomas Robbins, a nephew of Dr. Chandler Robbins, notes in his diary of that day: "Heard Mr. Kendall preach. He appears to be an Arminian in full. A very great congregation here."¹

Without attempting to analyze minutely the differences between the distinguishing tenets of the Arminians and those of the Calvinists, it is sufficient to say that the Arminians regarded the doctrines of Calvin with regard to free will, predestination, and grace as too severe, and adopted a religious system which extends the love of the Supreme Being and the "merits of Jesus Christ" to all mankind.

For thirty-eight years Dr. Kendall was the sole pastor of the First Church and after the settlement of his colleague, the Rev. George W. Briggs, he preached frequently as the senior pastor of the church in his own and other pulpits. He died on March 17, 1859, after a ministry of nearly sixty years, leaving "the memory of the pious pastor, the lover of peace, the promoter of good will among men, the stedfast christian friend, who in his daily life, so well exemplified their [the Pilgrims'] virtues, and their all sustaining faith."² He published many sermons and addresses. Eleven years after his death Governor Clifford at his speech on the Pilgrim anniversary in 1870, gracefully referred to "the saintlike aspect, the serene presence, and the mellifluous voice of another divine of a later age, the worthy successor of John Robinson and Elder Brewster, the Reverend Dr. Kendall."³

The church sent invitations to fourteen churches, to President Willard of Harvard College, and the Rev. Dr. David Tappan, Professor of Divinity, to be present at his ordination. The ecclesiastical council met at Plymouth on the 31st of December, 1799, nine churches being represented. A remonstrance against ordaining him as pastor of the church was presented to the council by three members, who said they represented fifteen male members. The council, after due consideration and giving the remonstrance its full weight, voted that they were ready to comply with the request of the First Church of Christ in Plymouth, expressed in their letters missive, and proceeded with the ordination. On January 1, 1800, Mr. Kendall was solemnly ordained to the work of the Gospel ministry and pastor of the First Church of Christ in Plymouth.

On the 17th of September, 1801, a meeting of the church was held and a request was submitted by one of the brethren that all the members, male and female, that wished be dismissed from their relations with the First Church, be formed into a new church by the name of the Third Church of Christ in Plymouth, and that any member who desires hereafter a dismission from either church to join the other one, be dismissed and recommended to the other. And further, that an equal proportion of the church furniture according to the numbers of the Third Church be granted to that church.

On the 24th of September the church again met for further consideration of this request. The petitioners explained that they had nothing further in view than that the removal of relations from one church to the other in the future be regulated according to the usual practice of this and other Congregational churches in New England, and they relinquished their claims to the church furniture, being convinced that as it was given to the First Church the present members were not exclusively entitled to it, and therefore had no right to the disposal of it. They asked only for the privilege of using it a certain time until it was convenient for them to furnish their own table.

A petition was presented, signed by eighteen males and thirty-five females, asking that they be dismissed from their present relations to the First Church in order to be set off into a distinct church by the name of the Third Church in Plymouth, and the request was assented to unanimously. Then the church voted to grant the privilege of using the communion service for two years. So without apparent bitterness, with singular unanimity, their church was established in Plymouth with substantially the same provision as to the admission and recommendation of members as was made when the church in Leyden was divided, and the members of that church who "went should be an absolute church of themselves as well as those who staid."

The Legislature by an act passed March 1, 1802, incorporated by name 144 men and 8 women with their "polls and estates" into a parish by the name of the Third Congregational Society in Plymouth.¹ The third precinct or parish which was first established in 1744 had been re-united with the first parish by the act of March 20, 1784. The original petition for this act of incorporation in 1801, which is preserved in the State archives, bases the application for a charter upon five reasons which were given as follows:

1st [That the petitioners had] Erected a new building for public worship in which a respectable Congregation has Attended for more than one Year.

2^d That fifty three members of the first Church have been regularly dismiss^d from that Church which was nearly one half of its members & have formed into Church estate by the name of the 3^d Church of Christ in plymouth, who with others of your petitioners Cannot Concientously unite in public worship with those from whom they Seperated.

3^d That the precinct is too numerous to worship in One house as it consists of 3040² Souls & more than 500 rateable poles, & being so numerous the people cannot be Accommodated with Seats in one house.

4th That your petitioners have to Support not only their public teacher, but have to pay to support^d the minister of the first precinct.

5th Considering the extent of the precinct & numerous Inhabitants your petitioners think the present pastor inadequate to perform the requirements of his office To the whole.

The number of inhabitants of the town, the fact that there were more than 500 adult males which made it impossible, if there was that general desire on the part of the people to attend divine worship which it had been assumed existed in earlier days, for the existing meeting-house to hold the possible worshippers, might of itself justify the establishment of another society within the limits of the town. That the theological differences which existed were more minute and technical than substantial, appears in the report of the committee, which was accepted by the town, to which was referred the application of some of the petitioners for the sale to them of a part of the Training Green belonging to the town upon which to erect their meeting-house. The committee said in part in its report to the town on the 5th of April, 1800:

To comply with the request of the applicants by granting a lot in Training Green for the purpose mentioned would, in the opinion of your committee, not only preclude the town, under whatever circumstances it may be, from opposing the prosecution of that object, but would sanction the separation of a small number of persons on principles that do not appear to be substantial and well-founded. If religious societies are to be split up into divisions merely from a variance of sentiment in certain polemic speculations, about which the greatest and best men in all ages of the Christian church have differed, each Christian must consecrate his own dwelling as his sanctuary, for scarcely two of the best informed Christians can be found precisely to agree on every controverted point.

The church records during Mr. Kendall's ministry relate mainly to church meetings and election of church officers and delegates to the various ordinations and councils to which the church was invited. The records of baptisms, marriages,¹ and deaths were kept in full as was the custom of his predecessors. Dr. Robbins on January 1, 1799, recorded a list of members of the church who were admitted before he came to Plymouth and a list of all members admitted during the term of his settlement, and the list of admissions to and dismissions from the church was continued and kept by his successor.

The rigor of church discipline which had prevailed in the past was much relaxed and may be attributed in part to a less strict and formal compliance with disputed points of doctrine which had divided the church members in former years, as well as to the political, social, and economic changes which these changing years brought.

But few cases of discipline are recorded in the later records, and in most cases diligent effort was made by the appointment of committees and others instructed to wait on the delinquents and persuade them to correct the objectionable practices, without enforcing the severity of church discipline.

in order to render them more in accordance with the requirements of the Gospel and more agreeable to apostolic practice, and more in accordance with the usage of this ancient church for one hundred and seventy-five years.

It was noted that in the year 1795 a departure from the ancient usage was introduced by adopting a written creed or confession as a condition of admission to the Christian ordinances, and it was determined that that was in fact a departure from the practice of the church from the time of our forefathers and from the first principle of Protestantism, which is a sufficiency of the Holy Scriptures for all the purposes of faith and practice. Instead, therefore, of continuing to make a public acknowledgment of this creed a condition of enjoying fellowship and communion in the future, it was voted unanimously to return to the former practice of the church in this respect and adopt the covenant made use of by the church previous to the years 1795. The original church covenant was as follows:

You do (now) in the presence of God, in the presence of his holy Angels, and in the presence of this solemn assembly, this day avouch the Lord Jehovah, the only living and the true, God, to be your God, and to give up yourself to him alone, acknowledging God the Father be your Father and Sovereign: And giving yourself unto the Lord Jesus Christ as your only Priest and atonement, as your only Prophet and Guide, as your only King and Lawgiver; and to the Holy Spirit of God as your only Sanctifier and Comforter; and also giving up yourself to this Church of our Lord Jesus Christ, You do solemnly promise by the help of his grace to walk with God and this his Church, in ways of holy Communion, and due subjection to all his holy ordinances, and according to his will, revealed in his holy word.¹

It was also voted that written relations should no longer be required as a term of admission to Christian ordinances, but that it should be optional with the applicant to communicate his request in writing or verbally through the pastor.

The word "Unitarian" does not appear in the records earlier than June, 1828, when a letter was communicated from the Second Congregational Unitarian Society in New York, requesting the aid of this church by their pastor and delegate at the ordination of Mr. William Parsons Lunt over said society.² Prior to that time many churches, to which this church was invited to send delegates to the ordinations or meetings of ecclesiastical councils, were not referred to as Unitarian churches but uniformly as Congregational churches or by their proper legal title. That the distinctive name of Unitarian was not adopted by the First Parish although its affiliations with that denomination existed in fact, is shown by the organization on February 14, 1831, of a religious society in the town under the name of the "Unitarian Society." On May 16, 1831, that society elected the Rev. James H. Bugbee for their teacher for the year ensuing. At that time Mr. Bugbee was the minister of the Universalist Society in Plymouth. It had a brief existence, the date of the last entry in its record being April 30, 1833.

On the 15th of June, 1837, the church again voted unanimously to adopt the following provision and declaration as the form and condition in the future of admission to the church and of partaking of the ordinances of the Gospel:

Believing the scriptures of the Old and New Testament to contain the word of God, and to be the only and sufficient rule of faith and practice; it is my (or our sincere) desire and purpose of heart in professing this belief, in joining the Chh, and partaking of the Ordinances of the gospel by the aid of his grace to live by the faith of the Son of God, and thus to walk in all the Commandments and Ordinances of the Lord blameless.¹

This form it is stated, "being so much in harmony with the Simplicity that is in Christ and so conformable to the primitive practice of the Chh, it is hoped and believed will tend to remove from the minds of sincere and devout persons, their reasonable objection against joining the Chh, and availing themselves of the satisfaction and benefit of enjoying the christian Ordinances."

On January 1, 1838, the Church unanimously voted to invite the Rev. George W. Briggs of Fall River to become an associate minister with the Rev. Dr. Kendall, and to "approve of the proceedings of the Parish at a meeting held on the thirteenth day of October last," whereby Mr. Briggs was invited to become colleague pastor with the Rev. Dr. Kendall. Twenty-six churches were invited to take part in the installation of Mr. Briggs on January 3 and were generally represented by their pastors and delegates, two churches, defined as Unitarians, were included; the church at Fall River and the church at Buffalo. On December 31, 1852, the connection between the church and parish and the Rev. Mr. Briggs, at his particular request, was dissolved, after a continuance of fifteen years of great unanimity and satisfaction on the part of the society and unbroken harmony between the junior and senior pastors. Mr. Briggs accepted the invitation of the First Congregational Society in Salem to become its minister.

The parish records record an invitation to Mr. Henry L. Myrick to settle as a colleague with the Rev. Dr. Kendall, by vote of the parish on the 19th of May, 1853. For the first time the church does not appear to have voted on the settlement of a minister. Mr. Myrick accepted on July 9th, and a council was summoned by the First Church and Society in Plymouth for his ordination as associate pastor, which met at the Samoset House on the 21st of September, 1853. Ten churches were represented by pastors and delegates and voted to proceed with the ordination. The connection of the Rev. Mr. Myrick with the church as colleague pastor was dissolved at his request in September, 1854.

On April 8, 1855, the Rev. George S. Ball, late of Upton, commenced his supply of the pulpit for one year, as associate pastor of the First Church, by invitation of the First Parish through their committee; on March 1st, 1856, he was invited to settle as colleague pastor, and remained until April, 1857, when his connection was dissolved at his own request.

On the 8th of November, 1858, the Rev. Edward H. Hall was invited to become the associate pastor of the society. Mr. Hall accepted the invitation and was ordained on January 5, 1859, the senior pastor of the society making the ordaining prayer.

Dr. Kendall died honored and beloved on the 8th of March, 1859, and these volumes are completed with the last entry in the handwriting of the aged minister and his pastorate of nearly sixty years is finished:

A connexion formed under such favorable and auspicious circumstances — and with so much harmony and unanimity of feeling and expression — inspires the hope of and promises a result most favorable and represented by the police and members of the New Zealand Fire Service, who would be there to put out fires. He was very interested and asked questions about the ways of our people and customs. He was particularly interested in the history and culture of the Maori and their social and tribal customs. He also asked many questions about the Maori language.

We had a long talk with Mr. Henry L. Smith, an architect, who is very popular. He is president of the Royal Institute of Architects. But the best thing about him is his great interest in our country and in the advancement of our country. He is a good man and has a good sense of humour. He is the first man I have seen in New Zealand who has a good sense of humour and a good sense of the Maori culture.

The afternoon was spent in a quiet and peaceful setting, and ended at around half past five with the arrival of the members of the crew. Mr. Murdoch and the other 12 officers were present at the reception in the mess room.

At 10.30 p.m. Mr. Eric, Captain of the R.N.Z. ship to Timor, was invited to speak of the policy of the ship and the progress of one of the first of bush-hammering of the area. Murdoch took notes on the ship's name and the date it was built and its name and address (until April 1927), when his connection was discontinued.

In the late of November 1926, the R.N.Z. Edward G. Hall was invited to speak on the progress of the work. He had arrived in Australia and was present on December 1, 1926, the opening ceremony of the wharf building the previous year.

The Edward G. Hall had spoken on the site of Edward G. Hall, and these subjects are connected with the last entry in the book ending of the aged sailor and the position of nearly forty years to him.

to the Christian growth and prosperity of this Chh. and Parish. Our desire & prayer are that this hope & this result may be realized.¹

The members of the First Church have worshipped in five meeting-houses. The first, erected in or about 1648, stood on the north-easterly side of the Town Square and remained until 1683, when it was taken down.²

During Mr. Cotton's ministry the second meeting-house was erected in 1683, nearly upon the site of the present meeting-house, although its front is believed to have been about twenty feet farther easterly. This building was taken down on July 3, 1744.³

The third meeting-house was raised during Mr. Leonard's ministry on July 17th, 1744, the congregation meeting in it for the first time on July 29th of that year. On April 10, 1831, the last religious service was performed in this building, which had stood for eighty-seven years. The text on the occasion was "Who is left among you that saw this house in its first glory? and how do ye see it now?"

² The two earliest allusions to the first meeting-house appear to be the following. On December 4, 1647, a committee was chosen at a town meeting "to make the rate for comon charges being 3£ And also 25 pounds for ye meeting house;" and on May 17, 1649, a town meeting was "holden at the meeting house" (Plymouth Town Records, i. 22, 28).

It is pertinent to add that it was Samuel Davis who, so far as is known, first used the term Pilgrim Fathers. In an ode written by Thomas Paine (later Robert Treat Paine, Jr.) for the anniversary of the Massachusetts Charitable Fire Society on May 29, 1795, we read:

But, lo, across th' Atlantic floods,
The Star-directed pilgrim sails!

In an ode written for the Boston celebration of Forefathers' Day on December 22, 1798, Mr. Paine employed the expressions "pilgrim man" and "heirs of Pilgrims." Mr. Davis's ode in which the term Pilgrim Fathers first occurs, was written for the Boston celebration of Forefathers' Day in 1799. See Publications of the Colonial Society of Massachusetts, xvii. 326, 331, xviii. 32-33.

(Haggai, ii. 3.) The next day the workmen began to take down the house.¹

The foundations of the fourth meeting-house were completed and the frame was raised during Dr. Kendall's ministry on June 2, 1831. On the 14th of December the new church was completed and solemnly dedicated to the worship and service of Almighty God. In the afternoon of the day of dedication the pews were all sold, except such as were reserved for the aged and paupers, for a sum more than sufficient to cover the expense of the new church and to pay the pewholders in the old house at the appraised value. This building stood until November 22, 1892, when it was destroyed by fire. The pastor notes a remarkable circumstance as an interposition of Providence that on the 22nd of November, 1831, during a severe tempest, the church was struck by lightning, the pinnacle of the church was destroyed, the plating forced from the column, and the granite pillar upon which it rested was removed.² No other damage was sustained by the tower. The body of the building was not injured, although several persons were within the tower at the time and two in the bell deck room, yet no one suffered the slightest injury.³

The corner-stone of the present meeting-house, the fifth, built of stone, was laid on June 29, 1896, and the dedication occurred on December 21, 1897.

The silver owned by the First Church has been fully described by Mr. E. Alfred Jones.⁴

¹ A sketch of the third meeting-house is reproduced facing p. 288, below. When or by whom it was drawn has not been ascertained, but it also formerly belonged to Mr. Russell. In his Historical Extracts, mentioned in the previous note, Mr. Davis does not mention the sketch, but writes: "The model of this House seems to have been taken from the Old Brick Church which formerly stood in Cornhill Boston. . . . The Bird on the spire is of copper gilt — & was made at Boston by M^r Drowne" (p. 75). The allusions are to the meeting-house of the First Church, Boston, built after the fire of 1711, and to Shem Drowne.

present acceptance of the call from sense of his owne unfitnesse, Bro: Isaac Cushman desired further time of consideration; In which time our bretheren engaged in promoting a new society in our westerne præcincts, gave Bro: Cushman an earnest call to teach the word of God to them & desired our chh to consent thereto" (p. 177, below). Isaac Cushman accepted the call to the new society, which later became Plympton. On April 3, 1699, Thomas Faunce was again chosen elder, this time accepted, and was ordained October 4 (pp. 187, 189, below).

There is mention of "Deacon Rob^t Harlow" on May 12, 1751 (p. 447 below); of "Deacⁿ Nathaniel Warren" on February 26, 1767, and December 27, 1792 (pp. 396, 420, below); and of "Deacon Cornelius Holmes" on August 11, 1773 (p. 402, below). All three were presumably deacons of some other church.

Sylvanus Bartlett and Lemuel Bartlett were chosen deacons in 1777, but declined. (Pp. 352, 353, 354, below.)

In his Account of the Church (Appendix to Mr. Philemon Robbins's Sermon, 1760), Mr. John Cotton gave the names of the deacons down to 1760. In a copy of the Account owned by Mr. Lord, in the margin of p. 4 is written, in the hand of Mr. Cotton, "M^r James Hirst." There was a James Hirst (or Hurst) at Plymouth in the early days, but his name apparently does not occur in the church records, and the authority for Mr. Cotton's statement is unknown.

² Nathaniel Atwood is in the records variously called "Atwood" and "Wood." The date of his death is unknown. Whether he was the father of Deacon John Atwood, whose name also variously appears as "Atwood" and "Wood," has not been ascertained.

After 1800 it clearly became difficult to induce members to accept the office of deacon, and vacancies remained unfilled for many years. On February 19, 1841, "It was then proposed to chose a substitute to fill his [I. Morton's] place in the Office of Deacon of the Chh. After some consultation — it was Voted to postpone the meeting indefinitely — for the purpose of selecting and agreeing on some suitable person among the brethren, who might be willing to accept the office, if chosen" (p. 597, below). Mr. Morton's resignation left the church with ¹ These include only (1) the writings of the settled pastors and associate pastors of the First Church from 1620 to the end of the year 1859, and (2) the sermons preached at the ordination or at the funeral of the settled pastors. Of the early ministers who preached at Plymouth but were not regularly settled (see p. li note 1, above), only three appear to have published anything — Roger Williams, John Norton, and Charles Chauncy.

Mr. John Cotton assisted the Apostle Eliot in his Indian translations, but published nothing under his own name. After the death of John Alden in 1687, two poems were printed in broadside. The authorship of one of these has never been ascertained, but the other, signed "J. C.", is usually attributed to Mr. Cotton. (See Proceedings Massachusetts Historical Society, xli. 208; Mayflower Descendant, ix. 129-131, 193-196. If the attribution is correct, the poem was overlooked by Sibley in his Harvard Graduates, i. 507-508.) This poem is entitled:

"Upon the Death of that Aged, Pious, Sincere-hearted Christian, John Alden Esq: Late Magistrate of New-Plimouth Colony, who dyed Sept 12th. 1687. being about eighty nine years of age."

Mr. Little's only known publication was a Preface to a sermon printed in 1720: see the text on this page.

Mr. Leonard apparently published nothing, but he may have been the author (or part author) of a pamphlet printed in 1745. This was signed (p. 14) by fourteen pastors, headed by "Nath. Leonard, Pastor of a Church at Plymouth." The title reads:

The Testimony of A Number of Ministers Conven'd at Taunton, In the County of Bristol, March 5. 1744, 5. In Favour of The Rev. Mr. Whitefield, &c. Giving the Reasons of their inviting him into their Pulpits. . . . Boston: . . . 1745.

It is possible that a charge delivered by a pastor of the First Church was printed in some sermon preached by the minister of another church. But, so far as is known, no sermon or discourse by a settled pastor of the First Church was

By David Tappan, D.D. Hollis Professor of Divinity in Harvard College. . . . Boston. 1800.

How both Mr. French and Dr. Tappan came to preach sermons is explained by Dr. Briggs: "Dr. Tappan, who had been requested to prepare himself to preach the Sermon, on account of the feeble health of Mr. French, remained in town over the following Sabbath, and preached all day from Psalm xlviij. 2" (Sermon, March 20, 1859, p. 34).

Volume I was originally bound in vellum and contained 84 leaves, constituting Parts i, ii, iii, and iv as indicated in the headings of the present volume, each part being separately paged. The pages measure 11½ inches in height by 7½ inches in width, and the watermark is the same throughout. On the front of the original vellum cover are written in ink these words in the hand of Nathaniel Morton:

A Breife Ecclesiasticall
History of the Church of Christ Att Plymouth
Ann° Domi

Many of the leaves of the vellum-covered volume being badly worn, some years ago the volume was taken to pieces and the leaves (including the vellum cover) inserted in a new volume bound in leather. Where a leaf is written on one side only, it is sometimes pasted on a page of the new volume, but most of the leaves

derstand That there is any thing p^rticularly extant concerning it and almost all the Members of the said Church: both Elders & others Being deceased by whom Intelligence of Matters in that behalf might be procured, I dare not charge the Reuerend Elders of that Church whoe are Gon to there Rest; with any Neglect on that behalf for when they were in holland they were Nessesitated to defend the Cause of Christ by wrting against opposites of seuerall sortes; soe as such like Imployes Together with the Constant and faithfull dis-charge of the duties of their offices probably took vpp the Greatest p^rte of theire time; And since the Church p^rted and a considerable p^rte therof came vnto this Goeing downe of the sun; It might be Neglected p^rtly on the account¹ That diuers writings some wherof being put forth in print, did point att; and in a Great measure discriminate the affaires of the Church; forasmuch (as then) the smale comonwealth in our first begining att New Plymouth Consisted mostly of such as were members of the church which was first begun are mounted. When this was done, Part v, which contains 17 leaves, was also included in the volume, though as its leaves are smaller and have no watermark Part v could not have been a portion of the original vellum-covered volume. Hence as now made up, Volume I contains 111 leaves in five parts, each separately paged.

Volume I, as now bound in leather, has printed on the back of the cover, which measures 12 $\frac{3}{4}$ inches in height by 8 $\frac{3}{8}$ inches in width, the words:

Plymouth
First Church
Records.

And on the front cover are printed these words:

Plymouth First Church
Records.
First Book

The Lord our God be with us as he was with our Fathers.

Part i is, with the exception of a few words on p. 3 of this volume (see page 3 note 2), wholly in the hand of Nathaniel Morton. It contains 41 leaves, or 82 pages, of which six are not numbered, while the remainder are numbered from [1] to [76]. Six pages are blank — p. [3], p. [60], and four unnumbered pages, one being the verso of p. [1] and another the verso of p. [76]: see p. 3 note 2, above, and pp. 6 note 1, 8 note 3, 10 note 2, 113 note 4, 141 note 2, below.

For descriptions of Parts ii-v, see pp. 142 note 1, 190 note 1, 224 note 1, 249 note 1, below.

I have told all it is or duty I can do - on me to come to meeting the 4th of Decr 23rd morning and after service of the church of Christ at Plymouth in New England partake in a number of short services & meetings & then go to Boston & about all the friends of the Rev. Dr. George Whitefield & others who remain & get ready to return home again - He will be in that city on Friday night and I have no thought the Friends & Friends of God can return to New Eng.
until some time next week - they never in Holland stay more than 8 days at a time so I expect on Friday Oct 24th - they will be here Saturday & partake in several services of the church of Christ by visiting various parts of New England - so as such like as my employer & his wife Mrs Constant and family & friends of Rev. Dr. Whitefield & especially those his friends & friends of his late time - And then the Church will be open to them about 10 days of November 1st to 10th getting home of his family if might happen so long on this account that others & myself may be going out & partake in a few more & diminished services of the church friends & others this month & next month & often still in our part of New England & sometimes longer in Boston & throughout the state of New Eng.
until about first December and afterwards longer at Plymouth in New England a small & other of friends & Constant & myself & my son Henry and others & friends & others of New England & friends of the same is to be here to England - We will have the pleasure of seeing friends & old & dear friends & acquaintances that they are not likely to meet & this makes long & painful part of the trip - I shall after their arrival partake of their company & their entertainment very conciently & cordially with respect to the following reasons 1st I am to be in New England & most specially in Boston & the Colonies off
New England which is the chief & principal of New England financially & politically & therefore of course & which is the chief & principal of New England in every way - & many Friends of Christ have friends & relatives & friends & acquaintances in Boston & New England & New York & New Jersey & in New England & New York & New Jersey & New England & New Jersey & New England & New Jersey &

All the children of James the royal (the good old King George in the year 1760) called themselves by him the royal (the good old King George) and his son William, Duke of Cumberland against to his family of one month General Duke William. There is no record of his name in any of the books and papers and maps to be had for passage familiarity to him and his son, the Duke of Cumberland, who died himself in December 1790; and his son, the Duke of York, who died in January 1806.

Jesus Reader of kindly grace thy stations and steps out of this world had to wait under confederate of sin for dying than will deform much of the goodness of God and power of God in us at all his first brought first of the world out of the womb of Holliness; first brought so many persons and of his host of the flesh begings; with many offerings of life long there will then myself meet with in the friend in full flow of it so according as will teach me how to be better & less & less worthy of God

Being thus Constrained to Leaue theire Native Country theire lands & liueings and all theire frinds and familiar acquaintance, It was much and thought marueilous by many; But to Goe into a Country they knew not (but by hearsay) where they must learn a New Language and Gett theire Liuings they knew not how; It being a deare place and subject to the Misseryes of warr It was by many thought an adventure almost desparate, a Case Intollerable and a missery worse then death especially seing they were Not acquainted with trades nor traffick (by which the) Country doeth subsist; but had onely bin vsed to a plaine Country life and the Inocent trade of husbandry; But these thinges did not dismay them (although they did sometimes trouble them) for theire desires were sett on the wayes of God and to enjoy his ordinances But they Rested on his prouidence; and knew whom they had beleiued; yett this was not all for although they Could not stay; yett were they not suffered to Goe but the ports and hauens were shutt against them; soe as they were faine to seeke secrett meanes of Conveyance and to see the Marrinors and Giue extreordinary Rates for theire passages and yett were they oftentimes betrayed many of them; and both they and theire goods Intercepted and surprised and therby put to Great trouble; and Charge of which I will Giue an Instance or two and omitt the Rest;

There was a Great Companie of them purposed to Gett passage att Boston in Linkensheire and for that end had hiered a shipp wholly to themselues and made agreement with the Master to be Ready att a Certaine day; and take them and theire goods in att a [7] Conuenient place where they accordingly would all attend in Reddines; soe after longe waiting and large expences, though hee kept not the day with them yett hee came att Length and took them in In the Night, and when hee had them and theire Goods aboard, hee betrayed them haueing before hand Complotted with the serchers and others officers soe to doe, whoe took them and putt them into open boates and there Rifelled and Ransaked them serching them to theire shirts for mony, yee euen the weomen further then became Modesty; and then Carryed them backe into the Towne, and made them a spectacle and wonderment to the Multitude which came flocking on all sydes to behold them; Being thus by the Catchpole¹ officers Rifled and striped of theire Mony bookes and much other goods they were p'resented to the Majestrates and Messengers sent to Informe the Lords of the Councell of them; and soe they were committed to ward Indeed the Majestrates vsed them Curtuovsly and shewed them what fauor they Could but Could not deliuere them vntill order Came from the Councell Table, but the Issue was that after a month Imprisonment the Greatest p'rete were dismissed and sent to the place from whence they Came; but some² of the principall were still kept in prison and bound ouer to the Assises.

The Next spring after there was another attempt made by some of these and others made to Gett ouer att another place; and it soe fell out that they lited of a duch man att hull haueing a shipp of his owne belonging to Zealand; they made agreement with him and acquainted him with theire Condition; hopeing to find more faithfullness in him, then in the former or of theire owne Nation; hee bad them not feare for hee would doe welenough hee was by appointment to take them in between Grimsbey and hull where was a large Comon a Goodway⁴ distant from any towne; Now against the p'fixed time the weomen and Children with the Goods were sent to the place in a smale barque which they had hiered for that end and the men were to meet them by land but it soe fell out that they were there a day before the shipp Came, and the sea being Rough and the weomen very⁵ very sick prevaileid with the seamen to put into a Creek hard by where they lay on Ground att Low water The Next morning the shipp came but they were fast and Could Not stirr vntill about noone; In the mean time the shipp Master p'seiveing how the Mater was sent his boate to be Getting the⁶ Men aboard whome hee⁷ saw

After they had liued in this Cityt about eleuen or twelue yeers; (which is the more) (obseruable) being the whole time of that famous truce ² between that state and the Spaniards; and sundry of them were taken away by death and many others began to be well stricken in yeers; the Graue mistris Experience haueing taught them many things; these prudent Gou'nors with sundry of the sagest members began both deeply to apprehend theire p'sent dangers; and wisely to foresee the future and think of timely Remedy in the agitation of their thoughts and much discovrse of p'ticulars heerabout; the began to encline to this Conclusion of Removall to some other place Not out of Any New fangleednes or other such like Giddy humer by which men are many [time]s Transported to theire Great hurt and danger but for sundry waigthy and sollid Reasons; the Cheife of which I will heer Resight and breifly touch; and first: they found and saw by experience the hardnes of the place and Country to be such as few in comparison ³ would Come to them and fewer that would bide it out; and Continew with them; for many that cam to them and many more that desired to be with them Could not Indure the Great labour and hard fare with other Inconveniencyes which they vnder went and were Contented with; But though they loued theire p'sons and approued theire Cause and honored theire sufferings, yett they left them as it were weeping as orpha did her mother in law Naomy; or as those ⁴ Romans did Catoe in vtica whoe desired to be excused; and borne with: though they could not all be Catoes;

1 for many though¹ they desired to Injoy the ordinances of God in their purity and the libertie of the Gospell with them yett alas they admitted of Bondage with danger, of Conscience Rather then to Indure these hardships; yee some prefered and Chose prisons in England Rather then this libertie in holland; with these afflictions; but it was thought that if a beter and easier place of liueing Could be had it would draw many and take away these discouragements, yea their Pastour would oftens say that many of those that both write and preached now against them if they were in a place where they might haue libertie and liue Comfortably they would then practice as they did

2 They saw that although the people Generally bore all their difficult[ies] very Clearfully and with a Resolute Currage being in the best of their strength yett old age began to Come on some of them; and their Great and Continewall labours with other Crosses and sorrowes hastened it before the time; soe as it was not onely probably thought, but apparently seen that within a few yeers more they were in danger to scatter by Nessesitie pressing them; or sink vnder their burdens, or both; and therfore according to the diuine proverb; That a wise man seeth the Plague when it Cometh and hydeth himself proverbes 22:3 soe they like skilfull and beaten souldiers were fearfull either to be Intrapped or surrounded [12] by their enimies; soe as they should neither be able to ffight nor fly and therefore thought it better to dislodge betimes to some place of better advantage and lesse danger if any Could be found;

3 As Nessesitie was a task Master ouer them; soe they were fforced to be such not onely to their servants but in a sort to their dearest Children, the which as it did a little wound the tender harts of many a loueing father and mother soe it produced alsoe many sad and sorrowfull effects for many of their Children that were of best dispositions and Graciouse Inclinations; haueing Learned to beare the yoake, in their youth and willing to beare part of their parents burden were often times, soe oppressed with their heauy Labours; that although their minds were ffree and willing; yett their bodyes bowed vnder the waight of the same and became decriped in their early youth the vigour of Nature being Consumed in the very bud (as it were) But that which was more lamentable and of all sorrows

most heavy to be bourne was that many of theire Children by these occasions and the Great lysenciousnes of youth in the Country, and the manyfold temptations of the place were drawne away by euill examples vnto extrauigant and dangerouse Courses Getting the Raines on theire neckes and departing from their parents some became souldiers others tooke vpon them farr voyages by sea and other some, worse Courses tending to desolutenes, and the danger of theire soules to the Great Greiffe of theire parents and dishonor of God soe that they saw theire posteritie would be in danger to degenerate and be Corrupted;

Lastly and which was not the¹ least a Great hope and Inward Zeal they had of laying some Good foundation or att least to make some way therunto for² the propagateing; and advanceing the Gospell of the kingdom of Christ in those Remote p'tes of the world, yee, though they should be but as stepping stones vnto other, for p'forming of soe Great a worke;

These and some other like Reasons moued them to vndertake this Resolution of their Removall the which they afterward prosecute with soe Great difficulties as by the sequell will appeare;

The place they had thoughts on were some of those vnpeopled Countryes of America which are fruitfull and fitt for habitation being devoid of all Civill³ Inhabitants, where ther are onely salvage and brutish people which Range vp and downe little otherwise then the wild beasts; this proposition being made publi[ck] and Comeing to the scaning of all it Raised many variable oppinions amongst men, and Caused many feares and doubts amongst themselues; some from theire Reasons and hopes Conceiued; laboured to stir vp and Incourage the Rest to vndertake and prosecutethe same; others againe out of theire feares objected against it; and sought to divert from it, alledging many thinges and those neither vnreasonable nor vnprobable; and that it was a Great designe and subject to many Inconceivable p'rells and dangers as besides the causaltie[s] of the seas (which none can be freed from) the length of the voyage was such as the weake bodyes of men and weomen and such other p'sons worne out with age and travill (as many of them were) could neuer be able to Indure; and yett if they should; the miseryes of the land which they should be exposed vnto would be to hard to be bourn and likely some or all of them to Consume and vtterly to Ruinate them; for theire they should be ¹ lyable to famine and Naked[nes] and the want in a Manor of all thinges; the Changing of the ² aire diatt and drinking of water would Infect theire bodyes with sore sicknesses and all tho[se] which should escape or ouercome these diffi-culties should yett be in Contin[ual] danger of the salvage people whoe are Crewell ³ Barbarous and treach[erous] [13] being most furious in theire Rage and Mercyles wheré they ouercome not being Content onely to kill and take away life, but delight to torment men in most bloody Manor that may be; fflaying men alive with the shells of ffishes Cutting of the Joynts and members of others by peece meales; and broyling them on the Coles; and causing men to eate the Collopps of theire fflesh in theire sight whiles they liue; with other Creweltyes horible to be Related; and surely It could not be thought but the hearing of these thinges: could not but moue the bowells of men to Grate within them and mak the weak to qvak and tremble It was further objected that, it would Require Greater sumes of mony to furnish such a voiage; and to fitt them with Nesse-saries then theire estates would amount to; and yett they must all as well look to be seconded with supplies, as p'resently to be trans-ported; alsoe the like p'residents of 'ill successe and lamentable Mis-eryes befallen others in the like ⁴ designs were easey to be found and not forgotten: to be alledged, besides theire owne experiance in theire former troubles and hardshippes in theire Removall into hol-land, and how hard a thinge it was for them to liue in that strange place although it was an Naighbour Country; and a Ciuill and Rich Comon wealth;

It was Answered that all Great and honorable Actions were ac-companied with Great difficulties; and must be both enterprised and ouercome with Answarable Currages, It was Granted the dangers were Great but not desparate, and the difficultie were many ⁵ but

Not Invincible, for although there were Many of them likely yett they were not Certaine; It might be that some of¹ the thinges feared might Neuer befall them. Others by prouidence Care and the vse of Good meanes might in a Great Measure be prevented; and all of them through the healp of God by fortitude and patience;² might³ either be bourne or ouercome; true it was that such Attempts; were not to be made and vndertaken but vpon Good Ground and Reason, Not Rashly or lightly as many haue don for Curiosety or hope of Gaine &c: But theire Condition was Not ordinary theire ends were Good and honorable theire Calling lawfull and vrgent; and therefore they might expect a blessing of God in theire proceeding yee although they should loose theire liues in this action yett they might haue Comfort in the same; and theire Indeauors would be honorable.⁴

They liued heer but as men in exile and in a poor Condition; and as Great Misseryes might possibly befall them, in this place, for the 12 years of truce were now out,⁵ and there was Nothing but beating of drums and preparing for warr, the euent wherof are alwaies vncertaine; the spainiard might proue as Crewell as the saluages of America; and the famine and pestilence as sore heer as theire and theire libertie lesse to look out for Remedy After; Many other p'ticular thinges answered and alledged on both sydes It was fully Concluded by the Major part to put this designe in execution and to proceecute it by the best meane's they could.

Consulted what p^ticular place to pitch vpon; and prepare for; some and none of the meanest had [14] had thoughts and were earnest for Goyanna or some of those fertile places in hott Clymetts others were for some p^rtes of Verginnia where the English had alreddy made enterance and begining, those for Goyanna alledged that the Country was Rich fruitfull and blessed with a p^rpetvall springe; and a fflorishing Greenes; wher vigorous Nature brought forth all thinges in abundance and plentey without any Great Labour or art of man soe as it must Needs make the Inhabitants Rich, seeing lesse prouision of Clothing and other thinges would serue them then in more Colder and lesse fruitfull Countryes must be h[ad] as alsoe that the spainyards haueing much more then they Could, posesse had not yett planted there nor any where very Neare the same;

But to this it was Answered that out of question the Country was both fruitfull and pleasant and might yeild Riches and maintenance to the posessors more esely then to¹ other yett other thinges Considered it would not be soe fitt; and first that such hott Countryes are subject to Greevious diseases and many Noysome Impediments, which other more tempara[te] places are freer from and would Not soe well agree with our English bodyes; againe if they should there liue and doe well the Jealous spaniyard, would Neauer suffer them longe but would displant and ouerthrow them, as hee did the ffrench in fflorida whoe were settled further from his Richest Countryes; and the sooner because they should haue None to Protect them and theire owne strength would be too smale to Resist soe Potent an enimie soe Neare an Naighbor,

On the other hand for Verginnia² it was objected that if they liued amongst the English which were theire planted, or soe Near them as to be vnder theire Gou^rment they should be in as Great danger to be troubled and p^rsecuted for theire Cause of Religion as if they liued in England (and it might be worse and if they) liued to farr of, they should neither haue succor or defence from them;

And att length the Conclusion was to liue in a distinct body by themselues vnder the Gener[al] Gov^rment of Verginnia; and by theire ffrinds to sue to his Ma^{tie} that hee would be pleased to Graunt them free liberty, and ffreedom of Religion; and that this May be obtained they were put in Good hope; by some Great p'sons of Good Rank and qval[ity] that were made theirre frindes;

Whervpon two were Chosen and sent into England att the Charge of the Rest [to] solissit this matter whoe¹ found the Verginnia Companie very desirous to haue them Goe thither, and willing to Graunt them a Pattent with as ample privilid[ges] as they had or could Graint to any, and to Giue them the best furtherance they C[ould] and some of the Cheiffe of the Company doubted Not to obtaine theirre suite of the king for libertie in Religion and to haue it Confeirmed vnder the Kinges broad sea[l] according to theirre desires but it proued a harder peece of work then they tooke it for; for although many meanes was vsed to bring it aboue yett it Could not be effe[cted] for there were diuers of Good worth laboured with the Kinge to obtaine it among[st] whom was one of his Cheife Secretaries;² and some other wrought with the arc[h] Bishop to Giue way thervnto, but it proued all in Vaine; yet thus farr, they prevaile[d] in sounding his Ma^{tio}n Mind, that hee would Conive att them, and Not molest them prouided they Carryed themselues peacably; But to allow or tollerate them by his publick authoritie vnder his seale, they found it would not bee; and this was all that the Cheefe of the verginnia Company or any other of theirre best frinds Could do in the Case; yett they p^rswaded them to Goe on for they p^rsumed they should not bee troubled and with this answare the messengers Returned and signifyed what dilligen[ce] had bin vsed and to what Issue things were Come;

But this made a damp in the business and Caused som destracion for many wer[e] afraid that if they should vnsettle themselues put offe their estates and Goe vpon the[se] hopes It might proue dangerous and but a sandy foundation; yee it was thou[ght] they might better haue presumed heervpon without makeing any suite att all th[en] haueing made it to be thus Rejected; but some of the Cheifest thought othe[rwise] [15] And that they might well proceed heervpon and that the Kinges Ma^{tio} was willing enough to suffer them without molestation though for other Reasons hee would not Confeirme it by any publick acte; and furthermore if there was Noe securitie in this promise Intimated there would be noe great Certainty in A further Confeirmation of the same for if afterward there should be a purpose or desire to wronge them though they had a seal as broad as the house flore It would not serue the turne for there would be means enough found to Recall or Reverse it; and seeing therfore the Course is probable they must Rest heerin on Gods Prouidence as they had don in other things;

vpon this Resolution other Messengers¹ were dispatched to end with the virginia Companie as well as they Could and to procure a patent with as Good and ample Conditions as they might by any Good meanes Attaine as alsoe to treat and Conclude with such Marchants and other frinds as had manifested theire forwardnes to provoak to and adventure in this voyage for which end they had Instructions Giuen them vpon what Conditions they should proceed with them or else to Conclude Nothing without furder advice; and heer it wilbe Requisite to Insert a letter or two that may Giue light to these proceedings

p^rte of an other letter from him that deliuered these,

Youer letter to Sir John Worsingham I deliuered allmost as soone as I had it to his owne hands (and stayed with him the opening and Reading therof) there were 2 papers Inclosed hee Read them to himself as alsoe the Letter, and in the Reading hee spake to mee and said whoe shall make them viz: the Minnesters I answared his worship; that the power of making was in the Church; to be ordained by the Imposition of hands by the fittest Instruments, they haue It must either be in the Church or from the Pope and the Pope is Antichrist; he said Sir John, what the Pope holds Good (as in the trenity) that wee doe well to Assent to, but said hee wee will not enter into dispute Now, and as for youer letters hee would Not shew them att any hand lest hee should spoyle all; hee ex-pected you should haue bin of the Archbishops mind for the Calling of minnesters, but it seemes you differed; I Could haue wished to haue known the Contents of youer two enclosed, att which hee stuck soe much especially the larger; I asked his worshipp what Good Newes hee had for mee to write tomorrow; hee told mee¹ Good newes for both the Kinges Ma^{tie} and the Bishopps haue Consented; hee said hee would Goe to Mr Chanceler Sir ffolke Griuell, as this day, and Next week I should know more. I mett [19] I mett with Sir Edwin Sands on weddensday Night, hee wished mee to be att the Verginnia Court the Next weddensday, where I purpose to be thus loath to be troublesome att Present, I hope to haue somthing Next week of Certainty Concerning you I Comitt you to the Lord;

These things being longe in agitation and Messengers passing to and againe about them after all their hopes they were longe delayed by many obstacles that fell in the way, for att the Returne of these Messengers into England; they found thinges farr other wise then they expected; for the Virginia Councell was Now soe disturbed with factions and qvarrells amongst themselues as Noe busines Could well Goe forward; the which may the better appeir in one of the Messengers Letters as followeth;

To his Loueing frinds

I haue thought Long since to haue writt vnto you but Could Not effect that which I aimed att Neither Can Yett: sett thinges as I wished yett Notwithstanding I doubt Not but M^r Brewster hath written to m^r Robinson, but I think my selfe bound alsoe to doe somthinge least I be thought to Neglect you; The maine hinderance of our proceedings in the virginia busines is the desentions and factions as they tearme it amongst the Councell and companie of Virginia which are such as that euer since wee Came vp noe busines Could by them be dispatched the occation of this trouble amongst them is, That a while since Sir Thomas Smith Repining att his Many offices and troubles, wished the Companie of Virginia to ease him of his office in being Treasurer, and Gou^r of the Virginia Companie; whervpon the Companie tooke occasion to dismisse him, and Chose Sir Edwin Sands Treasurer and Gou^r of the Companie, hee haueing 60 voyces; Sir John Worsingham 16 voyces and alderman Johnson 24 But Sir Thomas Smith when hee saw som p^rte of his honor lost was very Angry and Raised a ffaction to Cauill and Contend about the election; and sought to tax Sir Edwin with Many thinges that might both disgrace him and alsoe put him by his office, of Gou^r: In which Contentions they yett Stick and are not fitt Nor Reddy to entermeddle in Any busines, and what Issue thinges will Come to I know Not, nor are wee yett Certainte It is most like Sir Edwin will Carry it away and if hee doe thinges will Goe well in Virginie, if otherwise they will Goe ill enough alwaies; wee hope in 2 or 3 Court dayes thinges will settle, mean space I thinke to Goe downe into Kent, and come vp againe about 14 dayes or three weekes hence, except either by these aforsaid Contentions or by ill tidings from Virginie, wee be wholly discurraged of which tidings as followeth

Capt. Argoll is Come home this week; hee vpon Notice of the Intent of the Councell Came away before Sir Gorge yeardly Came there and soe there is Noe smale desention but his tidings is ill altho his p^rson be welcome; hee saith M^r Blackwells Shipp Came, not ther vntill march but Goeing towards winter they had still Northwest winds which Carryed them to the southworth beyond theire Course and the M^r of the Shipp and some six of the Marriners dieing It seemed they Could not find the Bay; till after long seeking and beating about; M^r Blackwell is dead, and m^r Magner the Capt: yee there are dead hee saith 130 p^rsons one and other in the shipp; It is said there was in all 180 p^rsons in the ship; soe as they were packed together like herrings they had amongst them a flux and alsoe want of ffresh water soe as it is heer Rather [20]¹ wondered that soe many are alive then that soe many are dead the² the marchants heer say it was m^r Blackwells fault to packe soe many in the shipp yee and there was Great murmuring and Repining amongst them and obraiding of m^r Blackwell for his dealing and disposing of them when they saw how hee had disposed of them and how hee Insulted ouer them; yee the streets att Grausend Rang of theire extream qvarrelling crying out one of another thou hast brought mee to this I may thank thee for this, heavy Newes it is and I would³ be Glad to heare how farr it will discourrage: I see none heer discouraged much but Rather desire to learne to beware by other mens harmes, and to amend that wherin they haue fayled, as wee desire to serue one another in loue soe take heed of being Inthralled by other Imperious p^rsons, especially if they be descerned to haue an eye to themselues; It doth often trouble mee to think that in this busines wee are to learne and none to teach but beter soe then to depend vpon such teachers as m^r Blackwell, was such a strattagem hee made for m^r Johnson and his people att Emden much was their subversion but though hee their Clenelye yett vnhonestly plucked his Neck out of the Coller yett att last his foot is caught; heer are noe letters Come; the shipps captain Argoll came in is yett in the west p^rtes, all that wee heare is but his Report it seemeth hee came away secretly, the shipp that m^r Blackwell went in wilbe heer shortly; It is as m^r Robinson once said, hee thought wee should heare Noe good of them, m^r Brewster is not well, att this time whether hee will Goe back to you or goe into the North I yett know not, for my self I hope to see an end of this Busines eare I Come tho I am sorry to be thus from you; if thinges had gon⁴ Roundly forward I should haue bin with you within this fourteene dayes I pray God direct vs and Giue vs that speritt, which is fiting for such a busines thus haueing⁵ sumarilly pointed att thinges, which m^r Brewster

A word or two by way of digression² touching this m^r Blackwell hee was an Elder of the Church of Amsterdam a man well knowne of most of them; hee declined from the truth with m^r Johnson; and the Rest and went with him when they departed assunder in that wofull manor, which brought soe Great dishonor to God scandall to the truth and outward Ruin to themselues, in this world; but I hope Notwithstanding through the mercyes of the Lord, theire soules are now att Rest with God in the heauens; and that they are ariued in the hauen of happines; though some of theire bodyes were thus burie[d] in the terrible seas, and others sunck vnder the burden of bitter afflictions; hee with some others had prepared for to Goe to Verginia, and hee with sundry Godly Cittyzens being att a private meeting (I take it) att a fast in london being discouered many of them were apprehended wherof m^r Blackwell was one, but hee soe Glosed with the bishop and either decembled or flatly denied the truth which formerly hee had maintained; and not onely soe but vnworthyly betrayed and accused another Godly man³ whoe had escaped that soe hee might slipp his owne Neck out of the Collor; and to obtaine his owne freedom brought others into bonds; wherupon hee soe won the bishoppes fauor but lost the Lords, as hee was Not onely dismissed but in open Court the Archbischopp Gaue him Great Applause, and his sollem blessing to proceed in his voyage;
But if such euent follow the Bishopps blessing happy are they that mise⁴ the same, It is much better to keep a Good Conscience⁵ and haue the Lords blessing whether in life or death, but see how that man apprehended by m^r Blackwells meanes writes to a frind of his;

The portion thus far given is printed in Young's Chronicles of the Pilgrim Fathers, pp. 3-108. In a footnote he said:

"Here we take leave of Morton's copy of Gov. Bradford's History. As the rest of it is lost, except the few scattered passages preserved by Prince and Hutchinson, and as we have a Journal of 'the troubles that befell them after their arrival,' written at the time, and chiefly, as I conceive, by Gov. Bradford, and much more copious and minute than the account in Morton's Memorial, the narrative will proceed in the words of that Journal" (p. 108).

Young then prints what is commonly known as "Mourt's Relation," pp. 109-251. Young was mistaken in supposing that "the rest of" Bradford's History was "lost, except the few scattered passages preserved by Prince and Hutchinson." What here follows is partly Morton's own, but is largely taken from Bradford's History, sometimes paraphrased by Morton. Indeed, Young himself recognized a few passages as taken from Bradford's History and printed them in his Chronicles of the Pilgrim Fathers: see pp. 52, 54, 62, 82, 115, below.

⁴ With a letter written by M'r Sherly to M'r Bradford these following objections were sent, which were not his, but were made by Adversaries against the Church; and theire proceedings; which I thought meet to Insert with theire Answares; as followeth;

1 objection was diuersitie about Religion

Answar Wee know Noe such Matter for heer was neuer any Controversye or opposition either publicke or private to our knowledge since wee Came;

2 obj Neglect of family dutyes on the Lords day

Answ Wee allow noe such thinge but blame it in our selues and others, and they that thus Report it should haue shewed theire Christian loue the more if they had in loue tould the offenders of it Rather then thuse to Reproach them behind theire backes; But to say noe more; wee wish them selues had Giuen better example;

3 object Want of both the Sacraments;

Answ the more is our Greiff that our Pastour is Kept from vs by whom wee might Injoy them; for wee vsed to haue the Lords Supper euery sabbath and Baptisme as often as there was occasion of Children to Baptise;

4 object Children not Cattachised nor taught to Read;

Answ; This is Not true in Neither p're therof for diuers take paines with theire owne as they Can; Indeed wee haue noe Comon scoole for want of a fitt p'son or hitherto meanes to maintaine one though wee desire now to begin;

By the aboue written Letter it may appeare how much the adversary hindered the Coming of this Blessed servant of Christ from Coming into New England; although hee soe much longed to be with his fflock and his fflock for him, a worthy patern vnto all Churchs and their Minesters to be Imitated;

In the springe arived att New Plymouth a preacher; one m^r John Lyford whoe when hee Came on shore salluted the principall men amongst vs; with that seeming humillitie as is seldom to be seen and Indeed Made them ashamed hee soe bowed and Cringed vnto sent letters for England in Complaints against vs to our adversaries which were of the Marchant adventorers; which letters were Intercepted by the Gou^r; and the said Lyford was detected for opening of letters and other mischeiffes which hee acheiued against¹ the Church and this poor Infant Comonwelth; Att length matters Grew to such height that Lyford with his Complices without euer speaking one word² either to the Gou^r: Church or Elder³ withdrew themselues and sett vp a publicke meeting apart on the Lords day with sundry such Insolent Carriages to longe heer to Relate; And the said Oldum brake forth into open Rebellion against the Gou^rment of the Collonie which p^rticulars being⁴ proued to their faces in open Court by the letters the said Lyford sent which were Intercepted as aforsaid, the said Oldum Continewed in his obstinacye a while but was Curbed att last as will afterwards be Manifest and as for Lyford first they dealt with him in the Church for his disimulation att his Admition therinto; in that hee then professed to Concurr with them in All thinges; and that hee held not him self a minnester till hee had a New Calling &c. and yett hee Now Contested against them and drew a Companie apart and sequestered him self; and would Goe and adminnester the Sacrements (by his Episcopall) Calling without euer speaking a word vnto them either as Magistrates or bretheren

In Conclusion hee was fully Convicted and brak forth into teares and Confessed hee was a Reprobate his sins were soe Great that hee doubted God would Not pardon them hee was vnsauory salt &c: and that hee had soe wronged them as hee could Neuer make them amens Confessing all hee had written against them was fflase and Nought both for matter and manor; and all this hee did with as much fulnes as words and tears Could expresse;

After theire tryall and Conviction the Court Censured both hee and Oldum to⁵ depart the Gou^rment Oldum p^rsently; though his wife and family had liberty to stay all winter or Longer vntill hee Could make prouision to Remoue⁶ them Comfortably; Lyford had liberty to stay sixe monthes It was Indeed with some eye to his Release if hee Carried him self well in the mean time and that his Repentance proued sound Lyford acknowledg'd his sentance was farr lesse then hee deserued; Afterwards hee Confessed his sin publickly in the Church with tears more largely then before; I shall heer sett it downe as I find it in writing as it was taken from his mouth That hee had don very euill and Slaundrously abused them; and thinking most of the people would tak p're with him; hee thought to Carry all by violence and stronge hand against them; and that God migh Justly lay Inosent blood¹ to his Charge for hee knew Not what hurt might haue Come of these his writings; and blessed God they were Stayed; and that hee spared not to tak knowlidge from Any of any Euill; but shutt his eyes and eares against all the Good; and if God should make him a ² vagabond in the earth as was Caine It was but Just for hee had sined in Envie and mallice against his bretheren as hee did; and hee Confessed ³ three thinges to be the Ground and Causes of these his doeinges Prid Vaine Glory and selfe loue amplifying these heads with Many other sad expressions in the p'ticulars of them soe as they began againe to Conceiue Good thoughts of him vpon this his Repentance, and admitted him to teach amongst them as before; and m'r Samuell ffuller a deacon amongst them and some other tender harted men amongst them were soe taken with his [30] synes of sorrow and Repentance as they professed they would fall vpon theire knees to haue his Censure Released;

But that which made them all Stand amased; In the end, and May doe all others that shall Come to heare the same (for a Rarer Presedent can Scarce be seen or shewen) was that after ⁴ a month or two; Nowithstanding all his former Confessions Convictions and former acknowledgments, both in the face of the Church and whole Companie with soe many teares and sad Censures of himself before God and man, hee should Goe againe to Justify what hee had don;

ffor Secretly hee writt a second letter to the adventorers in England in which hee Justifyed all his former writings (saue in some things which tended to theire damage) the which because it is soe large I shall heer¹ omitt with the answare heervnto² least I should treaspus too much on the patience of the Reader;

But before I draw to a Conclusion of this matter I shall Insert a few objections of many that this euill sperited man made against the people of God³ in this place which I shall faithfully enter with their Answares;

1 hee saith the Church would haue none to liue heer but them selues;

2 Neither are any willing soe to doe if they had Company to liue else where;

Answ theire Answare was that this is ffalse in both p'tes of it for they were willing and desirous of any honest men⁴ to⁵ liue with them that will Carry them selues peacably and seek the Comon Good, or att least doe them noe hurt, and againe there are many that will not liue else where soe longe as they may liue with them;

2 That if⁶ there Comes ouer any honest man; they would soon distast them &c:

Answ There answare was as before that it was a ffalse Callumnation; for they had many Amongst them that they liked well of and were Glad of their Companie, and should be of any such like as should Come amongst them;

3 That they excepted against⁷ him for these 2 doctrines Raised from 2 Samu 12 first that minnesters⁸ must some times p'ticularly apply theirre doctrine to speciall p'rsons secondly that Great men may be Reproued as well as meane

Answ: theirre Answar was that both these were without either truth, or couller of the same as was proued to his face; and that they had taught and beleiued these thinges longe before they knew m'r Lyford:

And with these objections hee comes to Giue his frinds Councell one p'ticular wher[of] was that the Leyden Companie (m^r Robinson and the Rest) must still be kept Back or else all wilbe spoyled, and least any of them should be taken in priuately some where on the Coast of England (as it was feared might be done) they must Change the M^r of the shipp m^r Willam Peirse; and put another alsoe in m^r Winslowes Rome for Marchant, or otherwise it would not be prevented, these p'ticulars are sent by him to the adverse p'te of the Adventurers

Then hee would haue such a Number prouided as would ouersway them heer; and further proposeth to them some wayes, and meanes wherby this may be effected:

Then hee showes that if by the said meanes they Cannot be strengthened to Carry and ouer beare; thinges; it would be best for him and his Confeaderats; to plant else where by themselues]

Lastly hee concludes that if some Number Comes not ouer to beare them vp viz. him and his² Confeaderates heer, then there would be noe abiding for them but by Joyning with these heer Then hee adds since hee began to write, there are letters Come from your³ Companie wherin they would Giue sole Authoritie in diuers thinges vnto their Gou^r: heer which if it take place then Ve nobis⁴) but I hope you wilbe more Vigelent heerafter that Nothinge May passe in such a Manor,

Thus I haue breiffly touched some of the Cheiff thinges Contained and expressed in his Letters and otherwise; wherby his hipocresye ffalceenes and mallice appeered; But being loth to be burthensom[e] to the Reader with the more full Relation of matters Concering this Instrument of Sathan to worke⁵ mischiffe and Inded to⁶ Indeauer the ouerthrow of this poor Church and Collonie, I⁷ shall Indeauer to Contract matters, into as Narrow a Rome as I Can if any shall haue a desire to know more of them; I shall Refer them to New Englands Memoria[ll] wherin In p're these p'ticulars are Related, and more especially unto¹ m^r Bradfords history wherin att large hee may haue a full Relation of these matters in theire seuerall² Ceromst[ances] [31] Relateing vnto his trayterous Indeauors against vs and his abseane Carriages in Ireland which were discouered on these occasions, finally after all these transactions of Matters about him and Oldum fore Named whoe was Copartenor and a Great stickeler in these thinges; both hee the said oldum and Lyford being banished the Collonie for theire aforsaid misdemenors they went into the Massachusetts Bay, and³ the said Oldum Goeing on a voyage in a storm⁴ like to haue bin Cast away about Cape Codd shoules in the Greatnes of his danger and extremity, being in terror of Consience Confessed his fault in his Indeauors against this Collonie; and vowed that if God would please to⁵ bring him safe to land; hee would; Reforme in that behalf; afterwards hee went on a voyage towards Conecticott, and Neare vnto blocke Iland was⁶ Crewelly murdered by the India[ns]

And as for John Lyford hee went to Nantaskett being Banished and from thence to Salem where after hee had liued a while hee went to Veginnia and there hee died; in⁷ all which former discourse with much More that might haue bine said Respecting the p^rmises; It doth plainly appeer and is verifyed; that noe weapon that was formed against this poor fflock of Christ did prosper; and euery toungue that Rose vp in Judgment against them God did Condemne;

Before I Pase on to other matteriall Relations lett the Reader take Notice of a speciall fauor of God and expression of his Goodnes that many whoe before stood somthing off from the Church Now seeing Lyfords vnrighteousnes in his Cariages and dealings and Malignitie against the Church; Now tendered themselues to the Church and were Joyned to the same professing that it was not out of dislike of any thinge that they had stood of soe longe but a desire to fitt them selues better for such a state; and they saw Now the

About Ann^o: dom 1628 a Certaine young man Came ouer to be a Minnester to the peop[le] heer whether att the motion of some frinds or Noe I well know not, but am sure is with[out] any Invitation from the Church for they had smarted; by m^r Lyford soe as they desir[ed] to know the p'son well whome they should Invite amongst them his Name was m^r Roger[s] but they p'resieuied vpon some tryall that hee was Crased in his braine soe they were fai[n] to be att further Charge to send him back againe the Next yeer and lose all the Charge that was expended in his hither bringing; which was not smale; and after hee departed hee Grew qvite destracted;

About this time Not long after m^r Rogers his departure; one m^r Ralph Smith and his wif[e] and family Came ouer into the Massachusetts Bay and sojourned att p'sent with th[e] stragling people which liued at Nantasket; heer being a boate off this place put in there on some occasion; hee earnestly desired they would Giue him

RIGHT WORTHY SIR

It is a thinge Not vsuall that servants of one m^r: and the same hou-s hold should be strangers And I assure you I desire it Not Nay to speak more plainly I cannot be soe to you; Gods people are all marked with one and the same marke and sealed with one and the same seale and haue for the maine one and the same hart Guided by one and the same speritt of truth; and where this is theire Can be Noe discord Nay heer must needs be sweet harmony and the Request with you I make vnto the Lord that wee may be as Christian Bretheren; vnited by a heauenly and vnfeyned loue bending all our harts and forces in furthering a worke beyond our strength with Reuerence and fear fastening our eyes alwayes on him that onely is able to direct and prosper all our waies I acknowl-idg my self much bound to you for your kind loue and Care in sending m^r fuller amongst vs and Rejoyce much that I am by him satisfyed touching your Judgments of the outward forme of Gods worshipp; It is as farr as I Can yett Gather; noe other then is warranted by the eui-dence of truth and the same which I haue professed and Maintained euer since the Lord in Mercye Reveiled himself to mee; being farr from the Comon Report that hath bin spread of you touching that p^rticular; But Gods Children must not looke for lesse heer below and it is a Great Mercye of God that hee strengthens them to Goe through with it; I shall not Need att this time to be tedious vnto you for God willing I purpose to see your face shortly; In the mean time I humbly take my leauue of you Comitting you to the Lords blessing and Protection

I make bold to trouble you with a few lines for to Certify you how it pleased God to deal with vs since you heard from vs; how Notwithstanding all opposition that hath bin heer and elswhere It hath pleased God to lay a foundation the which I hope is agreeable to his word in euery thinge; the 20th of July It pleased the Lord to moue the hart of our Gou^r: to sett it apart for a sollemne day of humilliation; for the Choise of a Pastour and Teacher the former p^rte of the day being spent in prayer and teaching the latter p^rte About the election which was after this Manor; the p^rsонаs thought on whoe had bin minnesters in England were demanded Concerning their Callings; they acknowledged there was a two fould Calling; the one an Inward¹ Calling when the Lord moued the hart of a man to take that Calling vpon him and fitted him with Gifts for the same the second was an outward Calling which was from the people; when a Companie of beleiuers, are Joyned together in Couenant to walk together in all the wayes of God and every member (being men) are to haue a free voyce in Choise of their officers &c; Now wee being prswaded that these two men were soe qualifyed as the Apostle speakes to timothy when hee saith a bishop must be blamles sober apt to teach &c I think I may say as the Eunuch said vnto Phillip what should lett from being baptised seeing there was water and hee beleued; for these two servants of God Clearing all thinges by their answares and being thus fitted wee saw Noe Reason but wee might freely Giue our voyces for their election after this tryall soe m^r Skilton was Chosen Pastour and m^r higgenson to be Teacher; and they accepting the Choise m^r higgenson with three or four of the Grauest Members of the Church layed their hands on m^r Skilton vseing prayer therwith; this being done there was Imposition of hands on m^r higgenson alsoe; and since that time, thursday being as I tak if the 5th of August is appointed for another day of humilliation for the Choise of Elders and deacons and ordaining them,

And Now Good Sir I hope that you and the Rest of Gods people whoe are acquainted with the wayes of God with you will say that heer was a Right foundation layed and that these two blessed servants of the Lord Came in att the dore and Not att the window; thus I haue made bould to trouble you with these few lines desiring you to Remember vs, and soe Rest

Att your service in what I may

This yeer the people of the Plantation of Plymouth began to 1632 Grow in theire outward estates by Reason of the ffowing of Many people into the Country especially into the Bay of y^e Massachusetts by which meanes Corne and Cattle Rose to a Great prise by which many were Inriched and Comodities Grew plentifull; and yett in other Regards theire benifitt turned to theire hurt and this accession of strength to theire weaknes for Now as theire stockes Increased and the Increase vendable; and the feare of the Indians taken away there was Noe longer any holding of them together, But now they must of Nessesitie Goe to theire Great lotts; they Could Not other wise keep theire Cattle; and haueing oxen Growne they must haue Land for plowing and tillage and Noe man now thought hee could liue except hee had Cattle and a Great deale of Ground to keep them, all striueing to Increase theire stockes, by which meanes they were scattered all ouer the bay quickly and the towne in which they liued Compactly vntil Now was left very thine and in a short time almost desolate; and if this had bin all it had bin lesse tho to much But the Church must alsoe be deuided; and those that had liued soe longe together in Christian and Comfortable ffellowshipp must Now p^rte and suffer Many deuissions; first those that liued on theire lotts on the other syde of the bay (Called duxburrow) they could not long bring theire wiues and Children to the publick worshipp and Church meetings heer but with such burthen, as Growing to some Competent Number they sued to be dismised and become a body of themselues; and soe they were dismised about this time though very vnwillingly, and somtime after being vnited into one Intire body they procured Reuerend m^r Ralph Partrich to be their Pastour; and m^r William Leuerich alsoe was with them att the same time and preached the word of God amongst them but hee stayed Not longe amongst them ere hee Remoued to Sandwich and was teacher of the Church there a Considerable time; and after the death of holy m^r Partrich; It pleased God to send a preciouse Gospell preacher amongst them Namely m^r John holmes; whoe liued and died alsoe with them and since his death the lord Raised vp another precious man: viz: m^r Ichabod Wiswell of whom¹ there is Great hopes for a Continuued succession of² healp in the minnistry to that poor fflock of Christ whom God soe Greatly honored as they were Neuer long without a Minnister of Christ to preach the Gospell vnto them;

But to touch this sad matter of the Churches p^rteing as hath bin said and to handle thinges together that fell out afterward; To preuent any further scattering from this place of the Towne of Plymouth; and weakening of the same; It was thought best to Giue out some Good ffarmes to speciall p^rs^{ons} that would promise to liue att Plymouth; and likely to be healpfull to the Church or Comon wealth; and soe to tye the lands to Plymouth as farms for the same; and there they might keep their Cattle and tillage by some servants and Retaine their dewllings heer; and soe some speciall Lands were Graunted; att a place vsually Called Greensharbour where noe allotments had bin in the former diuision a place very well Meddowed and fitt to keep and Rear Cattle Good store; But alsoe this Remedey proued worse then the desease for within few yeers those that had Gott footing there; Rent themselues away p^rtely by fforce and p^rtely by wearing the Rest with Importunitie and please of Nessesitie; soe as they must either suffer them to Goe or liue in Continuall opposition and Contension; and others still as they Concieued them selues straightened or to want accommodation broak away vnder one pretence or other thinkeing their³ owne Conceiued Nessesitie and the example of others a warrant sufficient for them; and this I feare wilbe the Ruine of New England att least of the Churches of God there⁴ and prouoke the Lords displeasure against them;

This Church of Marshfeild (aboue Called Greensharbour) was began and afterwards Carried on by the healp and Assistance (vnder God) of m^r Edward Winslow; whoe att the first procured seuerall Welsh Gentlemen of Good note thither with m^r Blinman a Godly able Minnester ² whoe vnamously Joyned together in holy ffellowshipp or att least were in a likely way thervnto; but some desentions fell amongst them which Caused a p^rteing; Not longe after and soe the hopes of a Godly societie, as to them was; frusterated; Not long after those that went from Plymouth (with that Godly Gentleman m^r Willam Thomas) keeping vp a Comunion; It pleased the lord to send vnto them a faithfull and able preacher of the Gospell Named M^r Edward Buckley whoe was Chosen theire Pastour and; officiated in that place very profitably diuers yeers; but ³ att last hee left them and went to a place Called Concord in the ⁴ Gou^rment of the Massachusetts; and a Considera[ble] time after the lord Raised vp and sent another faithfull servant of his whoe proued able and well fitted for the worke of the Minnestry m^r Samuell Arnold by Name who Remaines amongst them for theire speciall Comfort in the worke of the minnestry [37]

About that ⁵ time or a little before that the Church of duxburrow became a distinct body from the Church ⁶ of Plymouth; the Towne of Scittuate began and seuerall of the Church of Plymouth Repaired thither, and seated them selues there; ⁷ att which time M^r Timothy hatherly Came out of England with his family; and ⁸ seated him self there alsoe; and seuerall others Godly ones of other places es- pecially diuers out ⁹ of Kent Repaired thither; these all Joyned together and became a Comfortable and exemplary Church of God; and the Lord sent vnto them that preciouse servant of his, M^r John Laythorp whoe Came to them out of Great p^rsecution ¹⁰ and hee became theire Pastour; to which office hee was Indowed with a

After m^r Reyner had bin in place a Considerable time It was desired² that m^r Charles Chauncey a Reuerend man should be Invited whoe being a very Godly and learned man they Intended vpon tryall to Choose him Pastour of the Church heer for the more Comfortable p^rformance of the minnstry with m^r John Reiner the Teacher of the same; But there fell out some difference about bap-tising hee holding it ought onely to be by dipping and puting the whole body vnder water and that sprinkleing was vnlawfull the Church yeilded that Imercion or dipping was lawfull but in this Could Country not soe Convenient; But they Could not Nor durst not yeild to him in this that sprinkleing which all the Churches of Christ doe for the most p^rte att this day practice was vnlawfull and an humaine Invension as the same was prest; But they were willing to yield to him as farr as they Could and to the vtmost and were Contented to suffer him to practice as hee was p^rswaded; and when hee came to Minnester that ordinance hee might doe it to Any that did desire it in that way prouided hee Could peacably suffer m^r Reyner and such as desired it to haue theires otherwise baptised by him by sprinkleing or powering on of water vpon them; soe as there might be Noe disturbance in the Church therabouts; But hee said hee could not yeild thervnto upon which the Church procured some other minnesters to dispute the point with him publickly as m^r Ralph Partrich of duxburrow whoe did it sundry times; ably and sufficiently; as alsoe some other minnesters within this Gou^rment But hee was Not satisfyed; soe the Church sent to many other Churches to Craue theire healp and advice in this matter; and with his will and Consent sent them his Arguments written vnder his owne hand; they sent them to the Church of Boston in the bay of Massachusetts to be Communicated with other Churches there alsoe they sent the same to the Churches of Conecticott and New hauen with sundry others; and Receiued very able and sufficient Answares as they Con-ceiued from them and theire Learned Minnesters; who all Con-

In some time (as I take it) after the aboue Named busines about Gorton; by Reason or occation of the before mentioned deuision and decenton of the Church of Barnstable² one of the Church of Plymouth whoe was formerly a deacon therof; fell into the error of Anabaptistry⁴ and falling in with some of those that Carried on that Scismatical deuison; att length was Called in qvestion by the Church; and Continewing in his obstanacye and seqvestration from the Church Comunion att times of sollemne worshipp was alsoe Cast out of the Church and soe Remaineth vntill this day;

This John Cooke although a Shallow man became a Cause of trouble and decension in our Church and Gaue Just occasion of theire Casting of him out; soe that Sollomon words proued true in him that one Sinner destroyeth much Good⁵

Not very longe after this, one Samuell hickes a member of the Church⁶ began to be vnsetled about seuerall of the ordinances of Jesus Christ; and questioned seuerall of them about baptising of Infants singeing of Psalmes and seurall other p^ticulars; which occationed the Calling of the Church together; and being destitute of any in Minnesteriall office they⁷ were Nessesitated to appoint seuerall of the ableest of the⁸ bretheren to Cleare vp the truth against the said qveryes; which Implied opposition to the truth, and although as in the prouerbe it is ezier for a Child yea a foole to Cast Stones into a well then for a wise man to Gett them out;⁹ In which Respect it had ben better to haue qvelled and stiftled such questions Rather;

1 Youer first Concerning Aposteles if you meane by Apostles such Apostles as the 12 Apostles of the lambe wee affirme that there is Noe Ground to expect any such for these Reasons following

1 Because those apostles of Christ were Called Imediately by the Lord Jesus and the name Given by him as appeers Luke the Sixt: 13; which by the way take Notice that it is presumption for any to assume that title; or for any to Call any soe but such as Christ hath soe Named; That such were Imediately Called will appeer by these Scriptures following 1 Gall: 1 mat: 10th: 2: mark 3:14:

Query 3 Whether ³ singing of Psalms in a booke be a worshiping of God in speritt and truth seeing the Apostle saith singing in the speritt praying in the speritt 1 Cor:14:15

Answare Wee Answare that it is a Worshiping of God in speritt and truth Rightly to singe Psalms: viz: Scripture Psalms;

1 Because the Matter of them is Sperituall appointed to be sung as being Indited by the speritt of God and Named Psalms himes and sperituall songes Ephe 5:19 Collo:3:16: [50]

2 for the maner Respecting the Internall affection It is with Grace in our harts making mellodie to the Lord in our harts Ephe: 5: 19: Collos: third 16:

4 Query if I may worshipp God in sperit & truth singing out a booke why may I Not worship God in praying out of a booke

Answ: 1 by the way take Notice that wee Conceiue it to be a Great Contempt Cast upon the Scriptures of Truth to parraleel singing of Psalms which are a p^rte of the holy Scriptures Indited by the holy Speritt of God with Invented formes of prayers printed in bookes made by wee know not ⁴ whoe

2. The proportion of this youer Consequence or Inference hold not; of praying and singing Respecting the externall action; for in prayer wee speake to God but in singing wee speake ⁵ to ⁶ ourselues and one another by Admonishing our selues and one another Collosi 3:16:

If to singe be to pray; then euery one that singeth prayeth which Can not be respecting the externall acte of one¹ or the other; for if one should be asked whoe cometh from a Congregation in² Sperituall exercise what are they about; if hee should Answare they are praying, when they are singing would hee³ not be Judged by all to speake falsely; wee say respecting the externall acte onely; and soe by like Reason to say⁴ they are singing when they are praying; which were not soe Rediculus if to singe were to pray as the objecters; Assertion seemeth to Infer;

3 The proportion holds not; in Respect of the externall actions of singing and praying because the Psalmes all of them are matter of Instruction; yee many of them⁵ are not in the Least deliuering prayer wise as Psalms 78: 49: 45: and Many others;

5 qvery about Singing wherein a Scripture is Requiered to proue a mixed Multitude singing doe worship God in speritt and truth seeing that it is said that the prayers of the wicked are abomination to the Lord;

Answ: Wee say that that the Churches of Christ⁶ are Intire in theire worshipp, and actes of Sperituall⁷ worshippe may be p'formed in A mixed Multitude Exod 15: 1: Comp with exedo 12: 38: and exodu: 14: last: 1 Cor: 14: 23: 24: 25; And wee know not that the p'sence of any such as you Name doth or Can defile the worship of God more in singing than in saying Amen to the prayer of the faithfull; or any other p'rete of sperituall worship such as are prophane are noe more prohibited from p'forming actes of worshipp, by that Scripture you alledge then to Give ouer theire lawfull Callings because the plowing of the wicked is sin;

2 Wee find in the holy Scriptures an Insightment vnto all to singe praises to God as Psalmes 100: 1: and 117, and wher God Insights wee see Noe Reason to prohibite; Besides wee doe not qvestian but that many of those that are. Not in Actuall Comunion in Church

2 It is in the Churches power to elect theirie officers acts the sixt soe alsoe to ordaine being both encluded in that power Christ hath Giuen to his Church; otherwise election would be Rendered alto Gether fruitles and to noe purpose because election is presedent to ordination and ¹ ordination noe other than a designation of the p^rson elected to his office;

2 Wee owne a propheticall pronouncement of blessing Gen 27 Gen: 49 dutrinomy 33: which wee Affeirme is seased and ended; with such times as in which such prophetts and Patriarkes liued as declared such blessings by way of prediction;

3 More p'ticularly to the Case in hand wee affeirme there is a declaratiue blessing Implying and Carrying alonge with it a prayer for a blessing of God vpon the people according to 2 Cor: 13:14: Compared with heb: 13: 20: in which places with many others the Apostles declare wish vnto and pray for a blessing to the saints vnto whom they wrote theire Sacred Epistales; and vsually Closed them with the same exemplary to the Minnistry of the Gospell for the Closing and finishing; of theire Religouse exercises;

4 But more p'ticularly and expresse to the Case is that famous Presedent wee haue Numbers the sixt 24: 25: 26: where by divine Institution; the Preists the sones of Aron Called the Minnesters of the Lord Joell the second; and 17th are Comaunded to blesse in a treble declaration therof; wherin is couched a deuine Mistery of the holy treinity suitable to what wee haue 2 Cor: 13: last: the Grace of our Lord¹ Jesus Christ the loue of God and the Comunion of the holy speritt; further lett the fornamed Numb: 6: 23: be seriously Considered in the expressions on this wise yee shall blesse the Children of Israell saying vnto them; which vndoubtedly must be att theire holy Convocations; when Congregated in the Name of the Lord; for Religious worship for how Could the Preists blesse them and say vnto them; vnlesse Congregated² together and what time more Convenient then att the Periode of Religiouse exercises; when God hath mett with his people and blessed them there for the minnesters of Christ to³ pronounce⁴ them blessed and they shalbe blessed;

Wee proue this day to be obserued Sabbattically by Apostolicall Comaund¹ because that it was Neuer lawfull nor in the power of any Church or people to sett apart a day to bind all² mens Conscienses to the obseruation therof which; if not Graunted Respecting the Lords day wee ezely see what will follow if that day be att our Christian libertie as some say then it will follow that it being att the libertie of a Church to make Choics of the first day for theire sollome Meetinges; and if any other societie will mak Choise of the fift sixt or seauenth: which they may by like libertie that the former made Choise of the first;

And hence it will follow that a societie acteing to this³ supposed libertie, that which is euery ones libertie the Generall Can not take from the p'ticulars, Therfore if one two fwe or more think it Not Good to keep such a day theire Conscienses are not bound they may vse another day if it suits beter with them and theire occations and soe it is ezely descended That if wee had Not a time by Gods Appointment that this pretended libertie of a day to be Arbetrary att Mens Choise for Religious worshipp will Neuer satisfye a Consiouss Christian that is Grounded on the Scriptures of truth;

But besides this vnauidable Confusion of Leaueing such time Arbetrary to the will of man to bind Conscience to the obseruance of it soe as the seauenth day of old and the first day of the weeke Now is more then God allowed to any people In keeping of the first day or any other by vertue of our owne appointment Meerly is superstition and Papisticall and Parralell: with the feast that Jeraboam in the eight month and the fifteenth day therof kept of which wee Read 1 kinges 12:32:33: which was lik that which was obserued in Judah which hee is Charged to hau deuised it of his owne hart; thus men may keep a day which is Really the Lords day but if they obserue it as Arbetrary att theire owne⁴ wills it may be but a deuise of theire owne harts; [55]

Wee Read of dayes in Scripture appointed to be obserued by the Comaund; of God; And wee Read of dayes on some accompt wee ought to keep by Christian libertie as wee haue opportunitie such a Good day Esra 9:17: 18:19 soe answarable amongst Christians now when God Calles to sollem humilliation and thanksgiveing the same may and ought to be kept: euen such dayes when Called therto¹ yett those are not holy dayes It is popery for men to putt soe much vpon the day Butt that time wee Call² the Lords day or sabbath it is a holy day sett apart by God and that makes it holy Now to Cleare vp our meaning heerin take Notice of these three p^ticulars first wee may depute such a time or such a place to spend an houre or two to heare a Sermon and yett this time place or &c: is not made holy by it it is deputed but Not made holy Now a Creature is Not made holy meerly by being made vse of att an holy exercyse; as suppose I Goe to Read the holy Scripture I make vse of a Candle to Read it by I doe not Make the Candle holy by it because I make vse of it; if the makeing vse of a Creature in a holy duty did make ~~the~~ Creature holy then it would follow Generally in all dutyes I make vse of the light and aire when I am Reading and speaking holy things in publick Assemblyes I doe not make them holy soe I make vse of this houre to preach in though I make vse of in a holy duty I make it noe further holy then³ a man doth his spectacles hee vseth to Read the Scriptures by; Now deputation is puting a part of such a time for such a worke; and thus farr Goe they whoe obserue a day by their libertie

2condly dedication that is when I Giue a thinge out of my owne proper for a Piouse vse that I can not make vse therof againe for an other end as when a man hath Giuen soe much of his estate to such or such pious vses hee hath devoted it to such an end and soe that hee Can not make vse of it (without sin) to another end;⁴ wee doe not soe by setting a part a time for preaching soe as wee can not without sin make vse of it to another end; and soe if a people sett apart a time for humilliation; it may fall out that the time may be sett apart for thanksgiveing if Gods prouidence Change⁵ and that without sin and soe for preaching wee may alter the time from twelue to three;¹ and soe further if wee Attend noe² houre that day to heare a Sermon if occasions Calls men³ otherwaies; but if wee haue dedicated or Giuen out of our owne power It Can not be Changed by vs; this is beyond the other yett Not sanctifying

Now Sanctifycation is when any Creature or time is soe sett apart for holy thinges as it must not be vsed in Any thinge but that which is holy; and though the same holy actions be don att⁴ another time they shall not be⁵ accoumpted soe holy as att this time This is proper sanctification; and the setting appart of any day thus⁶ that is such a day as God Giues mee to make vse of for my occasions if I shall sett it apart for such a busines and put more holines in the actions then p'formed then the same actions p'formed att an other time I sanctify time to my selfe; but thus wee Can not doe without sin:

Now these two thinges are in our Lords day of Gods appointment [56] and Indeed in all thinges that are accompted holy by God

1 It is a sin to make vse of that any otherwise then God hath appointed it

2 The actions done then are more acceptable then if the same thinges had bin done att another time yee wee shall find it soe spoken Concerning the day of Attonment which was a day appointed of God if they had fasted vpon another day it was Not soe acceptable because that day was Gods appointment; ⁷ By this you may see that wee put a vast difference between a day of Gods appointment and what man appoints; and soe for the Change of the day from the seauenth to the first Changable by the law Giuer whoe was Lord of the sabbath; The Christian primitiue patteren by Comaund from Christ and his holy Apostles the Master builders of his Church whom following in this and other p'tes of our Christian profession wee shall haue wherwith to satisfy our Consiences being p'swaded that as it is onely in the power of God and his son Christ to appoint

Cursed oppinions amongst vs; yett soe Graciously it pleased our Good God to dispose that although wee were destitute of any officially, to oppose these Gainsaiers yett of his Grace, soe to healp vs by his holy speritt to vnderstand and Improue his Good word; that none of vs were leauened with theire fixions or fantacyes; noe not soe much as any of our Towne (sauing one family) which I desire may frequently be Remembred with humble thanksgiveing vnto the Lord by our selues and by others of the saints in our behalfe;

But as before expressed It pleased the Lord in that time of our soe Great and sperituall wants to hold vp our harts in an earnest desire of Minnistry and to put forth in Answarable Indeauors to procure the same; and wee had some answare and obtained some healp somtimes in preaching the word amongst vs p'tely by one M^r James Williams; whoe was an able Gospell preacher; wee had hopes att his first Coming of his Continuance amonst vs; but hee soon left vs and went for England; In like manor m^r Willam Brinsmead a well accomplished servant of Christ Came to vs and was with vs one winter but att last saw Cause alsoe to leau vs; and soe as yett wee Remained as sheep without a Shepard vntill att Length It pleased the Lord to send amonst vs m^r John Cotton the son of m^r John Cotton that famouth Gospell Preacher; somtimes Teacher of the first Church of Christ att Boston; the said m^r Cotton Jun^r was a man of stronge p'res and Good Abillities to preach the word of God; whoe after some time spent amongst vs was Chosen our Pastour and hath Continewed in that place amonst vs for the space of ten yeers and vpwards att the writing heerof; from whom wee haue Receiued many very proffitable truthes; and whoe ought to be the subject of our prayers that the Lord would Inspire him more and more with his holy speritt soe as hee may be an Instrument of his präise that soe by soundnes of doctrine and Cenceritie of Conversation hee may be Inabled Instrumentally to sauie his owne soule and the soules of those that haue or may heare him;

Church; att Least they are not soe to be vnderstood; for they often say the Contrary;

3 When they say it is noe true Church of Christ they doe not att all mean as they are the elect of God or a p^rte of the Catholique Church or of the mysticall body of Christ or visible Christians professing faith and holines (as most men vnderstand the Church) for which purpose hear what m^r Robinson in his Apollogye¹ page 58: if by the Church saith hee) be vnderstood the Catholique dispersed vpon the face of the whole earth; wee doe willingly acknowledg that a singulare p^rte therof and the same visible and Conspicuous is to be found in the land; and with it doe professe and practice what in vs lyes Comunion in all things in themselues Lawfull and don in Right order;

4ly Therfore they meane it is not a true Church as it is a Nationall Church Combined together of all in the land promisiquously vnd the hirarchicall Gou^rment of archbisshopps their Courts and Canons soe farr differing from the primetive patteren; in the Gospell

Wherin doe they differ then from the Judgment or practice of our churches heer in New England;

Ancient men

Truly for matter of practice Nothing att all that is in any thinge materiall these being Rather more strict and Ridged in some proceedings about admission of Members and things of such Nature then the other; and for matter of Judgment it is more (as wee Conceive in words and tearmes then matter of any Great substance; for the Churches and Cheiffe of the minnesters heer hold that the Nationall Church soe Constituted and Gou^rned as before is said, is not allowable² according to the p^rmitive order of the Gospell; but that there are some Parrish Assemblyes that are true Churches by vertue of an Implised Couenant amongst them selues in which Regard the Church of England may be held and Called a true Church;

Answare Wher any such are euident (wee suppose the other will not disagree about an Implised Couenant if they mean by an Implised Couenant that which hath the substance of a Couenant in it some way discernable though it be Not soe formall or orderly as it should be But such an Implised as is Noe way explised is Noe better then a popish Impliced faith (as some of vs Conceiue) and a meer fixion or as that which should be a Marriage Couenant; which is noe way explissted [63]

Wherin standeth the difference between the Ridged Brownists and ^{Young men} Separatist and others as wee obserue our Minnesters in theirie writings and Sermons to distinguish them;

The Name of Brownists is but a Nicke Name as Puritant and ^{Ancient men} hugonite &c: and therfore; they doe Not amise to decline the odivm of it in what they may but by the Ridgednes of Separation they doe not soe much meane the difference for our Churches heer in New England doe the same thinge vnder the Name of Sessetion from the Corruptions found amongst them as the other did vnder the Name or tearme of separation from them; onely this declines the odivm the better; see Reuerend m^r Cottons Answare¹ to m^r Bayley page the 14;

As that some which were tearmed Separatists out of some mistake and heate of Zeale forbore Comunion in lawfull thinges with² other Godly p^rsons as prayer and hearing of the word as may be seen in what that worthy man M^r Robinson hath published in dislike therof;

Wee are well satisfyed in what you haue said but they differ alsoe ^{Young men} about Sinods

It is true wee doe not know that euer they had any sollomne Sin-^{Ancient men} odicall Assembly and the Reason may be that those in England liueing dispersed and Could not meet in theirie ordinary meetings without danger much lesse in³ Synods neither in holland where they might haue more libertie were they of any Considerable Number being but those two Churches That of Amsterdam and that of Leyden; yett some of vs know that the Church sent Messengers to those of Amsterdam; att the Request of some of the Cheiffe of them both Elders and bretheren,* *When in theire desentions they had deposed m^r Ainsworth and some other both of theirie elders & bretheren m^r Robins: being the Cheiffe of the messengers sent which had that good effect as that they Revoaked the said deposition and Confessed theirie Rashnes and errour and liued together in peace some good

Butt they seem to differ about the exercise of Prophesye that is that men out of office haueing Gifts may vpon occasion edify the Church publickly and oppenly and applying the Scriptures which seemes to be a New practice;

1 It doeth but seem soe as many thinges else doe that haue by vserpation growne out of vse, But that it hath bine an ancient practice of the people of God besides the Grounds of Scripture wee will Giue an Instance or two; Wee find in the Ancient Eclesiasticall history of Eusebious libr: 6 Chap 19 how demetrius Bishop of Allexandrya; being pricked with Envie against origin⁴ Complaineth in his Letters that there was Neuer such a practice heard of nor noe precedent to be found that lay men in p'sence of Bishopps haue taught in the Church; But is thus Answared by the Bishopp of Jerusalem, [64] Jurusalem and the Bishopp of Cesaria; wee Know not say they

for m^r Penery how vnjustly hee was Charged him self hath made manifest to the world in his booke and that declaration which hee made a little before his suffering all which are extant in print, with some of his Godly letters

As ffor m^r Barrow and m^r Greenwood it alsoe appeers by theire owne writings how those Satutes formerly made against the Papists were wrested¹ against them and they Condemned therupon; as may be seen by theire examinations

They Can noe more Justly be Called Brownests then the desiples might haue bin Called Judasitts *

*ffor they did as much abhor Brownes Apostacye and prophan Course and his² defection as the disiples and other Christians did Judas Treachery

And for theire Ridged and Roughnes of Speritt as some of them especially m^r Barrows is Taxed it may be Considered they were very Ridgedly and Roughly dealt with not onely by³ the Lords enimies and theire enimies but by some Godly p'sons of those times differing in oppinnions from them which makes some of vs Call to mind what one doctor Tayler hath written in a late booke in these Stirring times "such an eminent man (saith hee) hath had the Good happ to be Reputed orthodox by Posteritie and to Condemne such a man or such an oppinion; and yett him selfe to haue erred in as Considerable matters but meeting with better Naighbours in his life time and a more Charritable Posteritie after his death; hath his memory preserued in honor and the others Name suffers without Cause;" of which hee Giues Instances in his book Intitled the libertie of Prophesying Page 33 & following; [67]

"ffor m^r Barrow saith m^r Robinson; as I say with m^r Ainsworth that I will Not Justify all the words of another man nor yett my owne soe say I alsoe with m^r Smith that because I know not by what p^ticular motion of the speritt hee¹ was Guided to write those Phrases I dare not Censure him as you doe especially Considering with what fiery Zeale the Lord hath furnished such his servants att all times as hee hath stered vp for speciall Reformation; lett the example of Luther alone suffice who into what tearmes his zeale Carryed him his writings testify and yett both in him and m^r Barrow there might be with true sperituall Zeale ffleshly Indignation Intermixed" Answare to m Barnard folio 84 And further in Paged 86 hee saith that "such harsh Tearmes wherwith hee Entertaines such p^rsons & thinges in the Church as Carry with them² most appearence of holines, they are to be Interpreted according to his meaning with³ this distinction that m^r Barrow speaks not of these p^rsons and thinges simply but in Respect soe and soe Considered, and soe Noe one tearme Giuen by m^r Barrow but May att the least be tollerated;"

did any of you know m^r Barrow if wee may be soe bold to aske ^{Young men} for wee would willingly know what his life and Conversation because some wee p'seive haue him in p'resious esteem; and others Can scarce name him without some Note of oblique and dislike;

Wee haue Not seen his p'son but some of vs haue bin well ac- ^{Ancient men;} quainted with those that knew him familiarly both before and after his Conversion and one of vs hath had Conference with one that was his domestick servant and tended vpon him both before and some while after the same; hee was a Gentleman of good worth and a fflorishing Courtier in his time and as appeers in his owne Answares to the archbischopp and doctor Cousens that hee was somtime a Student att Cambridge and the Inns of Court and accomplished with strong p'tes;

Wee haue heard his Conversation to be on this wise, walking in London one Lords day with one of his Companions, hee heard a preacher att his Sermon very Loud as they passed by the Church vpon which m^r Barrow said vnto his Consort Lett vs Goe in and heare what this man saith that is thus earnest Tush saith the other what shall wee goe to hear a man talk &c: But in hee went and sate downe; and the minnester was vehement¹ in Reproueing sin and sharply applyed the Judgments of God against the same; and it should seem touched him to the quick in such thinges as hee was Gilty off soe as God sett it home to his soule and began to worke his Repentance and Conversion therby, for hee was soe striken as hee Could not be quiett vntill by Conference with Godly men and further hearing of the word with diligent Reading and meditation

God brought peace to his soule and Consience after much humilliation of hart and Reformation of life; soe as hee left the Court; and Retired him selfe to a private life some time in the Country and somtime in the Cittey Giueing him selfe to studly and Reading of the Scriptures and other Good workes very dilligently and being mist att Court by his Consorts and acquaintance it was quickly bruited abroad That Barrow was turned Puritan; what his Course was after wards his writings shew as alsoe his sufferings and Conference with men of all sorts doe declare vntill his life was taken from him;

And thus much wee Can further affeirme from those that well knew him that hee was very Comfortable to the poor and those in distresse in their sufferings, and when hee saw hee must die hee Gaued a stocke for the Relieffe of the poor of the Church; which was a Good [69] healp to them in their banished Condition afterwards; yee and that which some will hardly beleive hee did much p'swade them to peace and Composed many differences that were Grown amongst them whiles hee liued, and would haue it is Like preuented more that after fell out; if hee had Continewed;

Younge men

Wee thanke you for yourer paines wee hope it will extend further then our satisfaction wee Can not but maruell that such a man should be by soe many aspersed;

Ancient men

It is Not much to be Maruelled att for hee was most plaine in discouering the Crewellty fraud and hipocresy of the enimies of the truth and serching into the Corruptions of the time which made him abhored of them; and p'adventure somthinge to harsh against the haltinges of diuers of the preachers and professors that hee had to deale with in those times whoe out of feare or weaknes did not come soe Close vp to the truth in their practice as their doctrines and Grounds seemed to hold forth; which makes vs Remember; what was the Answere of Erasmus to the duke of¹ Saxony when hee asked his oppinnion whether² Luther had erred hee answered his oppinnions were Good but wished hee would moderate his style which stired him vp the more Enimies; noe doubt;

Young men

Wee find in the writings of some such whoe were very eminent in their times for piety and Learning; that those of the Separation died in seuerall prisons in London¹ in six yeers time before the year² 1592 besides what haue bin in other p'res of the Land and since that time perishing by Could hunger or Noisomnes of the prison; [70]

4 In the same yeer wee find a lamentable Petition now in print of sixty p'sors Comited vnbailable to seuerall p'sons in London as New Gate the Gatehouse Clink &c: being made Close prisoners allowing them Neither Meate drink nor Lodging; nor suffering any whose harts the Lord would stir vp for theire Releiffe; to haue any accesse vnto them; soe as they Complaine that Noe ffellons Traitors nor murderers in the Land; were thus dealt with, and soe after many other Greuious Complaints Conclude with these words, "wee³ Craue for all of vs but the libertie either to die openly or to liue openly in the Land of our Natiuity if wee deserue death It beseemeth the Ma^{tie} of Justice not to see vs Closly murdered yee starued to death with hunger & Could and stiffeled in Lothsome dungeons; if wee be Guilties wee Craue but the benifitt of our Inocensse viz: That wee may haue peace to serue our God and our Prince in the place of the sepulchers of our fathers;"

And what Numbers since those whoe haue bin Put vnto⁴ Compulsorie Banishment and other hard sufferings as losse of Goods frinds and long and hard Imprisonments vnder which many haue died It is soe well knowne that it would make vp a volumn to Reherse them and would not onely equallice but farr exceed; the Number of those Godly Called Puritans that haue suffered suppose they were but few of them Minnesters that suffered as aboue expressed yett theire sorrowes might be as Great and theire wants more; and theire souls as much afflicted because more Contemned and Neglected of men; but some haue said they were excommunicated and that was noe Great matter; as excommunications went in those dayes; soe were these not onely while they were liueing but some of them many times after they were dead and as some of the other were Imprisoned soe were more of these; but it is further said all of them were deprived of theire minnstry and soe were these of theire Liuelihood and maintainance although they had noe offices to losse;

Indeed it seemes they haue somtimes suffered much hardnes in ^{Young men} the Low Countryes if that be true that is Reported of such a man as m^r Ainsworth that hee should liue for some time with 9³ pence a weeke; To which is Replyed by another That if people suffered him to Liue on 9 pence a weeke with Rootes boyled either the people were and kept little Children in Great awe from disturbing the Congregation shee did frequently visitt the sicke and weake especially weomen and as there was need Called out maids and younge weomen to watch and doe them other healpes [76] as their Nessesitie did Require and if they were poor shee would Gather Releiffe for them of those that were able; or acquaint the deacons and shee was obeyed as a mother in Israell and an officer of Christ¹

And for the Church of Leyden they were some times not much fewer in Number nor att all Inferior in able men though they had not soe many officers as the other for they had but one Ruling elder with their Pastour, a man well approued and of Great Integritie alsoe they had three able men for deacons; and that which was a Crowne vnto them they liued together in loue and peace all their dayes without any Considerable differences or any disturbance that Grew therby but such as was easely healed in loue; and soe they Continewd vntil with mutuall Consent they Remoued into New England; and what their Condition hath bine since some of you that are of their Children doe see and Can tell many worthy and able men there were in both places whoe liued and died in obscuritie in Respect of the world as priuate Christians yett were they precious in the eyes of the Lord and alsoe in the eyes of such as knew them whose vertues wee wish such of you as are their Children doe follow and Imitate

Mr. Justice Holmes, in his opinion, said: "The law of the United States is that the right to privacy is a personal right which is protected by the Constitution and laws of the United States, and which is not to be violated by any person or entity without just cause." The Court also held that the right to privacy is a fundamental right that cannot be denied without just cause.

A further account of matters in relating to the church at Plymouth from the yearre 1667. until 1697 in divers p[ar]ts being desired in page 59 in the conclusion of the celebration & History of the church by that godly brother Mr. Nathaniel Morton that every Christian reader would be careful to commit to writing what might accrue in their day for the glory of God & good & lasting times, these following Engel shall fully shew that upon certaine knowledge deduce what may have ruled in his ch[urch] for the present about thirty years or more to be judg'd meet for distinction.

Mr Morton in his foregoing Narrative truly declare, that after the deparature of that blessed man of God Mr. Revnor from them whom he had faithfully serv'd, for the space of about eighteen yeares in the office of Preacher & teacher & the ch[urch] remaining in his care desituate of a reading, looking up to God constantly in ordinary & extraordinary prayer to send in a suitable supply for their trouble, in which time sundry deicide miseries present some time past in preaching the word of God to them, but Divine mercie favored not the element of any one of them. It pleased God to bring severall persons to Cob, that the ch[urch] gave or call to Mr John M[ar]tin to come & preach to them, and by reason of his p[re]y another people, could not at present accept of that ch[urch] but like the ch[urch] in having Desitute of settled minister, they did in the year following in July, renew their former call to him, to which he gave his consent & accordingly removed himselfe & family to Plymouth, where hee arrived in November, 30. 1667.

the departure of that blessed Man of God M^r Reyner from them whom he had faithfully served¹ for the space of about eighteen yeares in the office of a Teacher, & the chh remaining sundry yeares destitute of a Teaching Elder looking up to God constantly in ordinary & extraordinary prayer to send in a suitable supply for their soules, in which time sundry desireable ministers spent some time successively in preaching the word of God to them, but divine providence favoured not the settlement of any one of them, It pleased God soe to dispose² in September³ 1666, that the church gave a call to M^r John Cotton to come & preach to them, who by reason of his then engagement to another people, could not at present accept of that call, but the chh continuing destitute of settled ministry, they did in the yeare following in July, renew their former call to him, to which He gave his consent & accordingly removed himselfe & family to Plymouth, where they arrived on November, 30: 1667:

There were then resident in the Place forty seven chh-membe[rs] 1667: in full communion, besides divers that were removed to other places, who upon the settlement of the ministry were called upon by the Elders to take their dismissions respectively to the severall ches where their settled abode was, this chh declaring it to be the duty of christians to be under the watch of those ches where they live, this motion was readily complyed with by all concerned.

Now inasmuch as the death of saints is pretious in the eyes of God, & God hath said, the Righteous shall be had in everlasting remembrance an account shall be given of the deaths of such especially who were of good esteem in the chh of God:

The first breach God made in the chh within the time above said was the death of Gabriel Fallowell, aged above 80 yeares, a very pretious, lively christian, one who maintained much communion with God day & night, he dyed, December, 28: 1667.⁴

In 1668: two members were admitted into the chh: & all that was transacted in the chh in this yeare was their discourse & conclusion to⁵ renew their call of M^r Cotton & to declare to him their purpose

Immediately after which the church voted to set apart a day to elect & ordaine M^r Cotton to be their Pastor, & agreed that June, 30: should be the day, which was attended, He being dismissed from Boston old² church & Joyned to this³ chh some weeekes before;

The ches present at this ordination (by the desire of this chh) by the[ir] Elders & messengers were Barnstable, Marshfeild, Weymouth & Duxbu[ry:] Elder Thomas Cushman gave the charge & the aged m^r [2] John Howland was appointed by the chh to Joyne in imposition of hands; the Reverend m^r Walley made a solemne Prayer before ordination & the Revd M^r Torrey gave the right hand of fellowship in the Name of the ches, after.

The Ruling Elder with the Pastor made it their first spetiall worke together to passe through the whole towne from⁴ family to family to enquire into the state of soules & according as they found the frames either of the children of the chh or others, soe they applyed counsells, admonitions, exhortations & encouragements, which service was attended with a blessing, for in divers with whom God had begun his work, it prevailed to stirre them up to lay hold of the covenant, & others were awakened more seriously to attend upon the meanes of grace & to minde the concernments of their soules, & practice family-prayer more constantly, the work of God seemed in those dayes to have a considerable reviving.

The chh having not then a Deacon, the Elders called upon them to choose some to that office; Accordingly, after a chh-meeting in Private some being Nominated, every brother speaking his minde man by man, on August, 1: Robert Finney & Ephraim Morton were chosen Deacons in the publick Assembly on the Sabbath, & then ordained by the Elders.

In January, the chh agreed to begin monethly church-meetings for conference, which were constantly attended for many yeares, & much good attended that exercise; Also in November, began the Catechizing of the children by the Pastor, (the Elder also accompanying him therein constantly) once a fortnight, the males at one time & the females at the other: the catechisme then used was M^r Perkins.

The members admitted to full Communion in this yeare were twenty & seven; the practice was for men¹ orally to make confession of faith & a declaration of their experiences of a worke of grace in the prescence of the whole congregation, having bin examined & heard before by the Elders in private & then stood propounded in publick for 2 or 3 weekes ordinarily; & the relations of the woemen being written in private from their mouths, were read in publick by the Pastor & the Elders gave Testimony that their knowledge was competent, this was the ordinary way of Admission of members at their first entrance, but if any members came from other places & had letters of Dismission they were accepted by us upon that Testimoniall & nothing further required of them.

The Lords supper was administred 4 times in this yeare, the first of which was on August, 29:

The children Baptised this yeare, 48:

It pleased God heavily to afflict this chh & people by the Death of Capt Thomas Southworth, of whom Honourable mention is made in the foregoing Narrative, & that most deservedly; He was a great Pillar in this chh, & in the dayes of blessed m^r Reyner, after the death of Elder Brewster (whose Name is here very² pretious & ever will be soe) [3] when the chh had agitations about the choice of a Ruling Elder, this M^r Southworth was Judged by many of the chh a very suitable man for that place, yet it was wisely foreseen by Govr Bradford that the necessity of the Commonwealth would doubtlesse call for the improvement of his Talent in the magistracy, & soe it prooved, for immediately upon the death of that Honourable Govr, he was chosen a magistrate & soe continued to his death, There were other Bretheren that did exercise their gifts for ædification of the chh in the vacancy of the ministry, yet such was the desireableness & excelling of his Gifts & graces that for divers yeares together he was expetially singled out by the chh to carry on the publick worship, one part of the Sabbath, Elder Cushman ordinarily spending the forenoone & Mr Southworth¹ the afternoone; His Death was on December 8: (about 53 yeares old) after a moneths sicknesse; His death was much lamented & is to this day, he was loved & feared & of such a conversation as commanded both. The chh kept a day of prayer for his life, Dec. 1: but his time was come to dye.

In 1670 fourteen members were admitted into the chh, 39 children were baptized, & the Lords supper was 8 times.

In the spring the chh set apart & observed a day of Thanksgiving for the settlement of Gods ordinances after soe long a vacancy, & the good successe of the Gospel amongst the[m.]

A child of this chh who had bin here baptized, removing to Swanzey was rebaptized by the Pastor there, which the chh being informed of, did unanimously declare it to be matter of offence, & sent letters to those concerned in that action to signify that such a practice would be a barre to our Eclesiasticall communion & desired they would doe soe noe more.

Some persons, a brother & 2 sisters that had formerly walked with this chh being now removed & not owning their chh-relation, the chh agreed & it was openly declared by the Elder in the name of the chh, that wee esteemed them noe longer to be members of us.

In this yeare, 70: m^r Richard Bourne of Sandwich sent to the chh for messengers to take notice of the fitnessse of sundry Indians to gather into a chh at Mashpau, the Pastor, Elder & Secretary Morton were sent thither, Elders & messengers of many other ches were there also, the Indians after confessions etc were gathered into a chh, M^r Bourne chosen & ordained their Pastor, all the ches present approoveing thereof. old mr Eliot & our Pastor laid on hands.²

The war continuing & also sickness, the chh set apart April, 19: for fasting & prayer, & also May, 30: for the same grounds.

The Generall Court in June, being sensible of the heavy hand of God upon the country in the continuance of war with the heathen appointed a day of Humiliation to be kept, 22 day of it & added thereto a solemne motion to all our ches to renew a covenant engagement to God for Reformation of all provoking evills. The chh attended that day of Prayer & then the Elders appointed a chh-meeting to be on June, 29: The church then all met; our chh meetings were ever begun & ended¹ with prayer, (the Pastor ordinarily beginning & the Elder concluding therewith) After Prayer for Gods direction & blessing in soe solemne a matter, A church-covenant was read, & the chh voted that it should be left upon record as that which they did owne to be the substance of that Covenant which their Fathers entered into at the first gathering of the church, which was in these words following, [5]

In the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ & in obedience to his holy will & divine ordinances.

Wee being by the most wise & good providence of God brought together in this place & desirous to unite our selves into one congregation or church under the Lord Jesus Christ our Head, that it may be in such sort as becometh all those whom He hath redeemed & sanctified to himselfe, wee doe hereby solemnly & religiously (as in his most holy prescence) avouch the Lord Jehovah the only true God to be our God & the God of ours & doe promise & binde ourselves to walke in all our wayes according to the Rule of the Gospel & in all sincere conformity to His holy ordinances & in mutuall love to & watchfullnesse over one another, depending wholy & only upon the Lord our God to enable us by his grace hereunto.

Then serious Enquiry was made, in what particulars there might be found amongst us a violation of this holy covenant & any² unanswerable walking thereunto?

Then followed a Proposall, whether wee were all willing to renew our Covenant for Reformation?

The Aged, godly Elder spake his minde particularly to these things, & then the Pastor (whom the Elder had before desired to draw up an Instrument suitable to the purpose) read a paper¹ in which were mentioned, wherein our violations of covenant had bin & our Engagement for Reformation was contained, which the whole chh did well approve of, & concluded as soone as wee could conveniently to appoint a day of Humiliation wherein to attend Renewall of Covenant; Further, appointing July, 10: for all the children of the chh to come together before the Elders on that account, which they very readily & universally did at the time appointed; The Elders then asked them, 1: whether they did owne their interest in the covenant of their fathers? to which, they all freely answered in the Affirmative. 2: Whether they would indeavour to stirre up themselves in the use of all due meanes for obtaining the good & blessings of that covenant? then the Pastor read a Paper, containing many evils the guilt of which might be found amongst them & also their desires & promise of Reformation to be visibly manifested, they all manifested a compliance therewith, & the compleating of the matter was reserved till the day of Humiliation. The chh set apart July, 18: for this service; the morning was spent in prayer & preaching by the Pastor, whose Text was in Psal: 56: 12: 13: in the Afternoone the Elder began with Prayer & was large in it, then wee proceeded to a renewal of Covenant, first the Paper was read that concerned the members in full communion, in these words following. [6]

Whereas the Holy & Righteous God hath many wayes in yeares lately past changed the course of his favourable dispensations towards us & manifested sad signes of his displeasure against us, wee desire to be deeply humbled in his sight under his mighty hand & to reflect upon our owne hearts & ways with serious Consideration, whereby wee see abundant cause to judge our selves as being guilty of many evills for which the Lord may Justly be provoked to avenge the quarrell of his Covenant upon us. In particular, Wee doe acknowledge wee have greatly lost our first love to & pretious esteem² of the Gospel & ordinances of the Lord Jesus, which hath too evidently appeared, partly in our remisnesse in coming to ordinances, partly in our listlesse & sluggish attendance upon them, as also by our barrenesse & unfruitfullnesse under meanes of grace, neither have wee maintained & kept up the life & power of Godlynesse as wee ought to have done, wee have also polluted the Holy Sabbaths of the Lord our God, as other wayes, soe very much by impertinent communication thereupon, yea the loosnesse of our conversations soe unbecoming the Gospel of Christ is a Testimony against us that wee have backslidden from the Lord, wee have sadly mispent our pretious time & omitted our Duty to God & to our relations by frequenting such places & companyes not becoming christians to delight in, wee have too much allowed our selves in unbrotherly chidings & contendings one with another & have let the sun goe downe too often upon our wrath, wee have bin too unfaithfull in our words & promises & ingagements one unto another, having not considered one another to provoke to love & good workes, nor watched over the soules one of another, in faithfull reproofes for sin as ought to have bin & in the use of all other meanes for our mutuall ædification in faith & holinesse; Wee have also too much set our hearts upon the world & creature-comforts & vanities & have too much conformed to the world; wee have also bin too remisse in family-instruction & government, not minding the good of the soules of those committed to our charge as wee ought to have done; And although God hath greatly afflicted us for our many swervings from him, yet wee have not bin soe affected with his heavy hand as to reforme those evills for which he hath bin contending with us.

For these & other evills that might be mentioned, wee desire to lye in the dust before God & to abhorre our selves & unfeignedly to repent in his sight & humbly to acknowledge that God is Just & righteous in all the evills wee have bin visited with, yea that He hath punished us far lesse then our iniquities doe deserve; And wee doe in the presence of God & of his Holy Angels professe our sincere desires that these & all other evills in our hearts & lives may be reformed, And doe therefore renew an holy covenant with the Lord our God & one with another this day, hereby solemnly engaging our selves in the strength of divine grace (without which [7] wee can doe nothing) to put forth our utmost endeavors for a thorough Reformation of evill both in our selves & others in our severall capacities according to the relations that are upon us towards God & one unto another, & also to walke together before God in a professed subiection to all his holy ordinances according to the Rule of the Gospel & in Brotherly love & holy watchfullnesse to the mutuall succour & building up of one another in the faith & fellowship of the Lord Jesus.

This being read, the church was called upon to manifest their consent thereunto by standing up, which all both Elders & Bretheren & sisters did.

The Pastor then immediately spake to all the children of this chh (& also of any other ches that were living among us) & read a Paper unto them, which here followeth.

Seeing the Providence of God is soe afflicting at this day, & the weight of Gods anger falls most heavily upon those of our generation, many young persons falling by the rage of the enemy & by the immediate hand of God in sicknesse, Wee have therefore great cause to Judge our selves as being guilty of many evills whereby wee have provoked the Lord God of our Fathers to write bitter things against us & make us possesse the iniquities of our youth, & doe owne that wee by our sins have had a deep hand in procuring these calamities & bringing downe the Judgments of God upon the land: In particular Wee have violated the holy covenant that God gratiouly made with us in our parents, & was sealed to us in Baptisme, in that wee have not hearkned to the voice of the Lord Jesus Christ calling upon us according to the termes of the Gospel to embrace him as our only Lord & saviour, but have stood at a distance from the son of God & refused to give him our hearts & affections which He alone is most worthy of, thereby greiving & vexing his Holy spirit & provoking him to turne our enemy & fight against us; Wee have also bin guilty of many transgressions of the holy & righteous law of God, wee have not acknowledged the Lord God of our Fathers by walking in those good wayes wherein our fathers walked, wee are, though descended of a noble vine, yet become the degenerate plant of a strange vine unto God; wee have bin a proud generation, though wee are the sons & daughters of Zion, yet wee have bin haughty in spirit, in countenance, in garbe & fashion & have too much delighted to follow the vaine & sinfull customes of an evill world; wee have bin stubborne & rebellious against God & disobedient to our parents & too soone weary of the yoke of family-government which God hath set us under & ready to cast it off; wee have too much omitted & neglected to attend upon God in publick ordinances & have bin very dull & sloathfull & irreverent in the time of his worship & have profaned his holy Sabbaths by vaine & sinfull communication & many other wayes: [8] wee have bin unfaithfull to God & those he hath set over us, mispending much of our pretious time in idleness & sensuality;

And sundry of us whom God hath made heads of families, wee have not had that care & conscience to sanctify the Name of God in the duties of family-worship as wee ought to have done, neither have wee bin diligent in instructing & training up our children in the knowledge & feare of God, nor set before them such examples of holinesse, sobriety & temperance as wee should have done, but have suffered the interest of religion which our fathers came into this wildernes for, greatly to decline in our hands. For these & many other evills that might be mentioned, wee desire to judge our selves before the Lord that wee may not be Judged of him, & to acknowledge that He is righteous in all the evills He hath brought upon us, & that it would be Just with God for our walking unworthy of his grace to discovenant us & cast us off from being his people; yet wee doe desire this day that all the evils of our hearts & wayes may be reformed, & doe solemnly in the presence of God & of his holy Angels, owne our interest in the covenant of the Lord God of our Fathers, & doe acknowledge that wee are bound & ingaged to serve him & him alone, & doe therefore desire humbly to looke up unto him & to implore his spetiall grace & the Asistance of his Holy Spirit to enable us to endeavour a thorough reformation of all our personall & family-evills, & to cause us to walke stedfastly in that good old way wherein alone wee may finde rest unto our soules.

This being read the Pastor called upon all the Adult children of the chh to manifest their consent thereunto, which they readily did all of them¹ both males & females by standing up.

These things are here recorded to be a standing witnesse that wee & our children have chosen the Lord to be our God.

This was the transaction of this chh & all the ches in this colony of New Plymouth did in solemne² manner about this time renew their covenant with God on a day of Humiliation, & it is never to be forgotten, how ready God was to heare the cry of his poore people in the day of trouble & save them, for immediately upon this motion from authority & the ches hearkning thereunto, God turned his hand against our Heathen-enemies & subdued them wonderfully, & within a moneth after our solemne day, the great Head of all the mischeife, Philip, was slaine, & the Governour & magistrates the week before his death sent an order to all our ches to keep August, 12: as a day of publick Thanksgiving³ for the beginning of revenge upon the

The chh set apart September, 14: for Humiliation on account of the great sicknesse & mortality in this towne & many other places & to intreat Gods perfecting the mercy in deliverance from the heathen.

A child of the chh having fallen into sin & not manifesting Repentance but the contrary was cut off from his relation, which God blessed for good to his soule & he was afterward admitted into full communion with the chh:

The chh appointed & kept January, 31: in Fasting & Prayer on¹ the account of sicknesses & for other weighty causes.

January, 28: the Sabbath before this Fast, the Elders desired the chh to stay after the publick worship was ended & told them, there were rumors as if some of the bretheren walked disorderly, in sitting too long together in publick houses & with vaine company & drinking, it was therefore propounded in order to the healing of that evill & unanimously consented to by the whole chh, that they would all take themselves bound in case they saw or heard of any such carriage in any of the chh for the future, to demand a reason of the party why he soe did, & that wee would satisfy the demands of each other in such a case, & if any did not give satisfying answers to such sober, christian demands, it should be accounted Just matter of offence; The elders also then propounded that due care might be taken of the children of the chh, that they may not transgresse in this kinde.

october, 2: the Elders stayed the chh & desired to know their mindes, some of the bretheren rather desired the old custome of not reading might be continued, but the body of the chh declared for the lawfullnesse of reading & all would rest in the practice of it, Accordingly october, 9: the Elder began to read the Psalmes, & the Elder desiring the Pastor to expound the Psalme before singing, the Pastor did from that time constantly attend Exposition throughout the whole booke of Psalmes.

December 1: the chh kept publickly as a day of Thanksgiving for all the mercies of the yeare.

A brother formerly failing by intemperance was againe overtaken in the same kinde, he not attending the chh that Sabbath the Elders ordered him, he was appointed to come to a private chh-meeting, his expressions & behaviours were offensive to the chh then, soe they were the Sabbath after; He was then bidden to come the next Sabbath but he absented; The chh met in private & he not humbling himselfe, yet exercised patience towards him for 2 Sabbaths more, at the Sabbath when he was expected He came not to meeting & though sent for came not, for all which He was by the Elder in the name of the chh excommunicated, & within 2 years after upon his manifestation of repentance was reconciled to the chh:

A chh-child was admonished for selling liquors to the Indians.

The chh kept a publick Fast on Dec. 28: for persecuted saints in France.

A brother & sister were excommunicated for morall scandal & about a yeare after reconciled:

outbreaking of sins among us, the Pastor prayed & preached, then M^r Fuller prayed in the forenoon; the Elder prayed & preached in the afternoone, then Secretary Morton prayed, & the Pastor concluded with prayer. [12] while the chh was together in this day of Prayer, it was propounded to the chh, that wee should put up a Petition to the next court of Assistants to suppresse soe much selling of strong drinke & lessen the number of ordinaryes etc¹ the whole chh readily voted that the Petition prepared by the Elders & then read to them should be subscribed by the Elders in their Name & presented to the court, as the request of the chh for suppression of sensuality, which they did.

In 1682: the Lords supper was ten times, nine members were admitted, 24 children baptized.

A sister recommended to us from another chh, yet was not accepted to our communion, till some offence was removed betwixt her & a brother, which upon hearing by some Godly wise was comfortably issued, & she was accepted by the chh.

In 1683: the Lords supper was 9 times, six² members were admitted, sixteen children were baptized.

Two chh-children were publickly admonished for sin. Also a child of the chh now living in another towne fallen into sinne the church agreed to send an Admonition to her which the Elders did in the name of the chh:

July, 15: the Elders propounded to the chh for a day of Fasting & prayer with reference to the drought, but before the day was fixed God sent a plentiful raine, & the chh kept July, 26: as a day of publick Thanksgiving for soe seasonable a mercy.

The chh of Barnstable sent to us for messengers to be present at the ordination of Mr Jonathan Russell to be their Pastor, on September, 19: because the Elder could not goe, the Pastor only & Capt Joseph Howland were sent & attended that service; the Pastor gave an account to the chh in publick of the carrying on of that affaire, & it was the constant practice in this chh, that their messengers to any other chh when returned gave an account of matters, though it is not often exprest in this Narrative.

The chh kept october, 18: a Fast, on account of the troubles of Gods people in England, & blastings with meldews here & in severall places great drought & floods that destroyed much of the harvest.

In 1684: the Lords supper was six times, two members were admitted, sixteen children baptiz'd:

Satan is always busy to make divisions in the ches, some differences fell out about this time in the chh, after some discourses wee agreed to call in helpe by way of councill from the ches of Taunton, Marshfeild, Duxbury, Bridgewater & Barnstable; the week before they came to us a day of Fasting & Prayer was kept at the Pastors house by the members of the chh. (though all could not then attend it) The councill met, March, 18: & saw with their eyes Gods blessing accompanying their endeavours to a gratious healing of his people & ending all matters of difference,

The chh set apart May, 2: to humble ourselves for any error in the late day of temptation, the Pastor in the forenoone prayed & preached then m^r Fuller prayed, in the afternoone the Elder prayed, Secretary Morton, Deacon Finney & Thomas Faunce: then letters were read from a chh-child to whom the chh had the yeare before sent an Admonition, manifesting her repentance, which the chh well accepted: Deacon Morton spake against the intemperance & long sitting at ordinaryes of some belonging to us, the Elders & bretheren gave their full Testimony against such irregularities with serious [18] warnings & desires that God would helpe us all to more care & watchfullnesse in our whole conversation: The 122 Psalme was then sung, the Pastor concluded all with Prayer, this was a very comfortable day of peace & love with unity among us.

June, 25: the Elder propounded to the chh, whether they would deale with offending chh-seed in private only? the answer of the bretheren generally was, that if the sin were publick they would continue their former practice in publick dealing for it.

This chh never allowed the Blessing to be dispensed at the conclusion of the publick worship on a sacrament morning till after the Lords supper was administred, some without were dissatisfyed at it, the Elder therefore at this meeting desired the chh to expresse their mindes about it there appeared noe forwardnesse to alter the custom, & some bretheren scrupled the lawfullnesse of it, soe there was then noe further discourse of that matter; but some time after it was consented to & practised.

A chh-child was publickly admonished for sin he then manifesting noe sense of it but too much of the contrary; but afterward God melted his heart & he became a profitable member of the chh:

Letters from the chh at the North river in Scittuate were sent to us for¹ messengers to be at the ordination of M^r Thomas Mighil whom they had chosen to be their Pastour; Elder Cushman & m^r Joseph Bradford were sent with the Pastour & were present at that solemnity, october, 15:

1685: In 1685: the Lords supper was ten times, 13 children were baptized.

May, 17: the Elders stayed the chh after the publick worship was ended & moved to sing Psal: 130: in another Translation, because in M^r Ainsworths Translation which wee sang, the tune was soe difficult few could follow it, the chh readily consented thereunto.

June, 28: dyed our Brother, M^r Nathaniel Morton in the 73^d year of his age, he was a sincere christian, very religiously tender & carefull in his observation of the sabbath day & of speaking truth, he had divers times spoken in publick to ædification in the absence of the minister & vacancy of the ministry; he took much paines to record the Dispensations of God as appeares in the former part of this book

A chh-child was admonished for scandalous words.

The chh kept November, 11, a publick Thanksgiving for this yeares mercies.

1686: In 1686: the Lords supper was 8 times, 14 members were admitted, 22 children baptized:

A sister of the chh upon her confession of some failings the chh was satisfyed with her; A child of the chh related to her, to whom the Elder spake some serious words brake forth into Passion & spake evill words reflecting upon the chh, at which the chh was offended with him, but for some weighty cause suspended any prosecution of him for the present for that offence.

Deacon Morton, November, 28: propounded to the chh the need of another Deacon, because old age with its sicknesses & infirmities had disenabled Deacon Finney from coming abroad or any further attendance upon that office, the Elders accepted the motion & desired the chh to ripen their thoughts for the next Sabbath; on December, 5: the church was stayed after publick worship; the Pastor prayed, then the Elders & bretheren man by man generally nominated for choice, the major part of the then voters were for Thomas Faunce [14] but divers of the bretheren being then absent the compleating of the Election was deferred till ther mindes also should be knowne.

Dec: 19: the chh was detained, & those bretheren before absent or who had not voted were called upon to nominate their choice for a Deacon, which they did & the major part was for Tho: Faunce, It was then declared, that if any Brother had ought to object why he should not be established in the office of a Deacon, they had their liberty to speake, not one objecting, it appeared, the chh was very unanimous in this motion, the Pastor then signified, they would proceed to his ordination the next comfortable Sabbath.

on December, 26: Bro: Thomas Faunce was ordained a Deacon of this church, the Pastor & Elder laid on hands, the Pastor then prayed & gave the charge & then the Elder prayed: His charge was given in these following words, which are inserted, because it may be of some use in like case in after times.

Since the Lord & this his chh have chosen you our Brother T: F: to the office of a Deacon in his house, wee doe therefore in the Name of the Lord Jesus Christ, the Head of the chh, whom God the Father hath established to be his King in Zion, ordaine & set you apart to that spetiall office & imployment of a Deacon in this chh of God, & as from the Lord wee charge you to use the office of a Deacon well, & that you give diligent heed to all those rules in the Holy Word of God which set before you the nature & bounds of this your office & worke; And in particular, the Lord requireth of you, that you receive the offerings of the chh & congregation, & that you therewith conscientiously serve all the Tables of the chh, distributing the offerings made to the Lord with Gospel-simplicity, not only to the ministry of this chh, but also with cheerfullnesse showing mercy to ¹ the Lords poore among us as they may have need thereoff, according to what you are betrusted with-all for such ends & purposes; Wee charge you in the Name of the Lord to be Faithfull herein, that you may stand in the great day of the appearing of the Lord Jesus, who will then before Angels and men call you to give an account of this your stewardship; And wee doe further from the Lord charge you, that you labour for the growth & exercise of all those graces that are requisite to furnish you with ability for a regular discharge of this weighty worke, which God now calles you unto, namely, wise-dome, gravity, sincerity, freedome from guile, sobriety, spirituall & heavenly-mindednesse, not inordinately reaching after the things of the world, & that in your whole conversation you endeavour to be found blamelesse, exersising yourselfe alwayes to have a conscience void of offence towards God &¹ man, providing for honest things not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men & that you rule your owne family well in the feare of God, & that you hold the mystery of the faith of the Gospel in a pure conscience; All which, if in the uprightness of your heart you labour in & for, you will then purchase unto your selfe [15] a good degree, & great boldnesse in the faith which is in Christ Jesus, which the Lord grant unto you for his mercies sake in Christ, who is our Lord & life. And for which great & gratiouse blessings let us further call upon the Holy Name of God.

Much of this charge was given in the ordination of the 2 former Deacons, Bro: Finney & Bro: Ephraim Morton, August, 1: 1669: but here are severall additions upon second thoughts.

In 1687: the Lords supper was 9 times, five members were admitted, 23 children were baptized

March, 30: the chh set apart for fasting & prayer, on account of last yeaeres drought, uncomfortable winter, Epidemicall coughs & colds, the small pox in some places, & for all the mercies of the yeare etc.

The chh of Taunton sent letters to desire us to come to the ordination of m^r Samuel Danforth to be their Pastor; the Elder could not goe, the church chose & sent Bro: George Bonum & Bro: Nathaniel Wood to attend the Pastor to that solemnity, who did soe, September, 21:

The chh set apart october, 26: for a day of Thanksgiving for the mercies of the yeare, & for liberty to Gods people in O: E: by the Kings Proclamation. Deacon Finney dyed January, 7: being eighty yeaeres of age, a good old man.

In 1688: the Lords supper was ten times, eleven members were admitted, 21 children were baptized.

The chh set apart, March, 7: a day of Fasting & prayer, on account of the measles in the winter & for the mercies of the yeare, & for continuance of & Gods blessing upon the meanes of grace.

The chh set apart May, 3: as a Fast because of great drought, great¹ raine came that very day & after, soe ready is God to heare the prayers of his people.

June, 17: the Elders stayed the chh after the publick worship was ended & propounded to them, that seeing divers men who offered themselves to chh-fellowship were bashfull & of low voices & therefore not able to speak in publick to the edification of the congregation, nor to the hearing of the whole chh who should be satisfied before they vote for their Admission, it was expedient the bretheren should expresse what way they Judged best for helpe & satisfaction herein; the Elders & all the bretheren exprest themselves man by man & the generall conclusion of the body of the chh was, that those who could speak to hearing should soe doe in the whole congregation as formerly, but if the Elders Judged any man not capable thereof, they should call the chh together in private to heare such make their relations, but voting their Admission & covenanting with them should be deferred to be done in publick; sundry of the bretheren then desired that the Relations made by such might by the Elders be made knowne to the whole Congregation at their admission, as Judging it would be for the edification of others, which Proposall, though it was not opposed by any, yet was left undetermined, & as God directed in the particular cases, wee are to doe as should be Judged for the best.

June, 21: a private Fast was kept by about 50 of the chh on short warning, on behalfe of some of our bretheren & neighbours who were that day before the Councill at Boston, though not for evill doing, but by reason of an ill instrument, exposed to trouble. [16]

A child of the chh, living in another towne fallen into sin, the chh sent a letter of Admonition to her subscribed by the Elders in their Name.

The chh set apart october, 30: to be a fast, on account of the Easterne war with the heathen broken forth, great sicknesse at Boston, the troubles that day of our bretheren & neighbours at Boston-court.

In 1689:² eleven times the Lords supper was administred, five 1689: members were admitted, & 27 children were baptized.

March, 7: was kept as a day of publick Thanksgiving for all the mercies of the yeare¹ past, & in spetiall for answers of prayer in Raine.

The chh appointed & kept April, 10: a fast for the mercies of the yeare.

A chh-child was admonished for sin.

At a chh-meeting July, 3: a chh-child having sent a letter to the chh manifesting her Repentance for the Evill they had admonished her for, the letter was read & accepted.

At² that meeting, a sister have given offence to another of the chh in words & actions, was sent for to come before the chh, matter of fact was made evident, & she carrying her selfe offensively the chh declared their offence at her, & that they expected she should give satisfaction by Repentance & ordered her to withdraw. A chh-child who had offended was then sent for, but he told the messengers he would not come, he had not nothing to say to us, nor would have any thing to doe with us; the chh then sent two³ other bretheren to require him to attend the chh in publick assembly the next sabbath, but he came not, soe for his not hearing the chh added to his other offences, he was by the Elder in the name of the chh (who voted it should be soe) cutt off from his relation to the chh.

The chh appointed & kept July, 30: as a day of Fasting & prayer, on the account of drought, great sicknesse, war Eastward etc.

A Brother was dealt with & admonished for disorderly walking, who formerly had bin dealt with for like evills:

The chh kept Feb: 12: a day of Fasting & prayer for a blessing on the Agents⁴ now in & going for O: E: to prevent spreading the small pox, & that God would put an end to the war with the Heathen, & that God would heale & spare the life of our aged Elder: God then restored him.

Feb: 9: the Pastour propounded that some Brother might read the Psalmes in the Elders absence, the chh voted that one of the Deacons should doe it. Deac: Morton excused him selfe because aged, upon which Deac: Faunce was desired to doe it, who did attend that service till the Elder returned.

This chh & people made a large contribution in the time of the first warrs for the relieve of those impoverished at & about Rehoboth; The like they did also in these wars & sent it to the distressed Eastward; Also divers times for particular families whose houses were burnt, & for sundry persons brought low by sicknesse & long affliction; This may truly be left on record, That upon any motion from the Elders for a contribution on such accounts, there was a great readynesse in the people to hearken thereunto & give freely & abundantly, the Lord reward it.¹

In 1690: the Lord supper was ten times, two members were admitted, & 19 children were baptized.

A brother being called before the chh for unsutable walking, the chh accepted his expressions of sorrow & forgave him.

The sister above mentioned manifested her Repentance before the chh for her irregular actings & the chh forgave her.

A child of the chh, living else where, had an Admonition sent her from the chh, as had bin to others in like case.

The brother above-mentioned, upon his Repentance was forgiven. September, 24: was kept a Fast for the Canada-expedition. [17]

In 1691: the Lords supper was ten times, seven members were admitted & 34 children were baptized.

A chh-child made his relation in private at the Pastors house before the chh & was the same sabbath in publick admitted to full communion.

The chh of Barnstable² sent to our chh for messengers to assist in Councill in their troubles, but the season permitted not some who lived more remote to attend at the time appointed, the Pastor & Deacon Morton were chosen, but on that account went not.

It pleased God to seize upon our good Elder, m^r Thomas Cushman by sicknesse & in this yeare to take him from us, He was chosen & ordained Elder of this chh, April, 6: 1649: he was neere 43 yeaeres in his office, his sicknesse lasted about 11 weekes: he had bin a rich blessing to this chh scores of yeaeres. he was grave, sober, holy & temperate very studious & sollicitous for the peace & prosperity of seven members more dyed this yeare, some of them of the best.²

December, 27: the Pastor propounded to the chh to choose meet persons to be present with him in the private examination of persons in order to chh-fellowship, the two Deacons & any other Brother whom the Pastor might see reason to call to the worke, the chh voted their acceptance of.

Feb: 10: was kept as a day of Thanksgiving for the many mercies of this yeare.

In 1692: the Lords supper was 11 times, 13 members were admitted & 31³ children were baptized.

March, 16: the Pastor propounded to the chh to endeavour the worke of reformation in ourselves & families, & that the children of the chh should be more diligently watcht over, the chh voted to call all the Adult seed before them to apply suitable counsells & rebukes as there might be occasion;

April, 3: publick notice was given hereoff that all concerned might prepare themselves accordingly.

April, 24: the Pastor called the chh between the meetings to his house & moved them to renew a covenant for Reformation on the approaching day of Humiliation, & to quicken thereunto he read to them the record of what the Church had done in that kinde, 1676: as also two other papers, the one from the Elders of this Plymouth-Colony & the other from many Elders of Boston-Colony in which were counsells, exhortations & encouragements to a thorough Examination of our hearts & wayes & Reformation of heart & life, both

The letter from the Elders of this Colony to the severall ches therein:

BRETHEREN & DEARLY BELOVED IN OUR LORD JESUS,

Wee acknowledge our selves to be under solemne & awfull bonds & obligations of Duty to God & to your selves, our Soveraigne Lord having placed us (how unworthy soever in our selves) as his watchmen, & therefore giving us in charge not to keep silence in a day of approaching danger & evill, but faithfully to admonish & give warning to all, that thereby impending wrath may be diverted, the soules of those committed to our charge may be preserved, & wee ourselves delivered from the guilt of the blood of soules; It being a duty incumbent not only upon us but upon every one to consider the words of the Lord & to regard the operation of his hands, wee cannot but minde ourselves & you, of the Lords walking towards us in the way of his Judgments, in particular, the sword of war is drawne in our land, it is now more than 3 yeares since the Heathen & Antichristian enemy hath been seeking & spilling the blood & consuming the habitations & estates of our country men in the Easterne parts of the country, which though remote from us, yet some of the bitter effects of it wee have felt & tasted, & verily the Holy God thereby saith, Except wee repent wee likewise shall perish; The Dreadfull Hand of God in blasting the designe against Canada, & the death of soe many hundreds occasioned thereby, & the great impoverishing of the country following thereupon is a very humbling stroak & not to be forgotten, Moreover those malignant feavors & burning agues (which God threatens to send upon his people for breaking his commandments) that have bin soe greivous & deadly among us, cry aloud in our eares, that God is very angry with us;

And as to our selves (not to omit the hitherto unsettled & doubtfull state of the whole country) wee in this colony are brought exceeding low as to our civill Government, many openly casting off the yoke of subiection to our civill rulers, & there being noe strong rod for a scepter to rule, whereby wee are in great danger of being given into the hands of strangers to manage us at their pleasure, & soe of loosing the liberty of those most pretious enjoyments for the sake of which our blessed fathers followed God into this wildernesse:

Upon these & many other affecting considerations that might be mentioned, wee the servants of God & of our Lord Jesus in the worke of the ministry, doe sincerely & affectionately commend¹ to all the churches

& people of God in this Colony, the serious meditation upon & laying to heart these things, And inasmuch as sinne is the procuring cause of all our troubles, our earnest desire & solemne Proposall is, that each church & congregation (as well as every particular person) would make diligent search into their owne hearts & wayes, & by the helpe & strength of God labour to the utmost for the finding out those provocations of Divine anger that are in the midst of us, & therein deale faithfully & impartially, as in the presence of the searcher of all our hearts (who hath knowne us above all the [19] families of the earth, & therefore will punish us for all our iniquities, if wee repent not) & that there be deep Humiliation for & unfeigned, pœnentiall confession of all our guilt before the Lord, with a holy resolution & engagement by divine assistance to set upon & be thorough in the worke of Reformation, that magistrates & ministers & this whole people may be turned as one man unto the Lord, which if in good earnest wee engage in, who can tell but God will returne & yet leave a Blessing behind him, & revive his worke in the midst of us, & give us to rejoice under the shadow of his wings as in the dayes of old, All which Grace the Lord grant to his poore people for his mercies sake in Jesus Christ;

Whereas the most heavy & wasting Judgments of Heaven upon our distressed land, loudly call upon us, noe longer to delay the taking of some hitherto untaken steps towards the Reformation of our provoking evills & the recovery of practicall Religion in our hearts & lives; Among expedients in order hereunto, wee cannot but Recommend it as adviseable, That the severall churches, having in an instrument proper for that purpose, made a catalogue of such things as can indisputably be found amisse among them, doe with all seriousnesse & solemnity passe their votes, That they count such things to be very offensive Evills, & that renouncing all dependance on their owne strength to avoyd such evills, they humbly aske the helpe of the Divine Grace to assist them in watching against the said evills both in themselves & in one another;

And that the Communicants doe often reflect upon these their Acknowledgments and Protestations as perpetuall monitors unto them, to prevent the miscarriages wherewith too many Professors are too easily overtaken.

These papers being read, the chh agreed that on April, 27: they would attend that duty, & that the Adult male-children of about 20 yeares old & upwards should come to the Pastors house on the morrow, & the Females on the Fast day betweene the meetings to heare what was desired & expected of them, of which the Pastor gave them publick notice in the congregation that afternoone. Accordingly, April, 25: there was a very great & generall appearance of all the male-children¹ of the chh (those very few absent being out of towne or necessarily hindred, not one refusing to owne his Covenant-relation to the chh) the Pastour spent neere 2 hours with them in prayers & solemn Exhortations, counsells & Admonitions to all sorts of them according to their particular circumstances & then read to them what they had many of them solemnly transacted before the Lord & his people, Anno, 1676: & asked them if they were now willing to acknowledge the Lord God of their Fathers, & in like manner on the approaching day of Prayer renew the Covenant for Reformation etc;

This they universally consented unto; it was observed by divers of the chh then present that many were much affected at what was spoken, neither did they spend that training-day evening as formerly too many of them used to doe.

April,² 27: the chh & congregation kept as a day of Fasting & Prayer; the morning was spent in Prayers & Preaching, between the meetings, the Female chh-children came to the Pastors house, a

August, 7, at the conclusion of the sacrament, the Pastor called upon the chh to expresse their Judgments about this motion; the vote was this. when the tunes are difficult in the Translation wee use, wee will sing the Psalms now used in our neighbor-ches in the Bay; not one brother opposed this conclusion; the sabbath following, Aug: 14: wee began to sing the Psalms in course according to the vote of the chh¹

September, 15: (some motion from some in Authority to the ministers inviting thereunto) the chh set apart & kept as a day of Fasting & prayer for the Army gone Eastward etc.

A chh-child was Admonished for intemperance, & soone after another for like offence.

Some of our chh & neighbours, living at a village in our Township, invited a Brother to carry on some worship among them on Sabbath dayes, which he did, not consulting the chh or Elder about it, Nov: 16: being sent to they were with the chh, & said they were sorry they had therein given offence to the chh, the chh then declared that they faulted not their soe meeting in short dayes & when the weather was unseasonable, but when seasons were comfortable for travelling they approved not their absenting from the publick worship with² the chh.

A chh-child, living out of towne, the chh sent an Admonition a poinentiall answer was soone returned to the chh, upon which the chh forgave the offender.

Another chh-child was Admonished for sinne.

A motion was made by the Pastor, that some other might be appointed to read the Psalmes when Deac: Faunce was sick (as he then was Sep: 11:) the answer was, that the Pastor might call any of the chh whom he had then nominated or any other of the bretheren that might be Judged meet for that service.

April, 5: the chh set apart for a day of Thanksgiving, for the Preservation of King & Queen etc for our Gospel-mercies, health, harvest, destroying caterpillars last summer, saving ours in stormes checking the enemy at wells, returning Agents, & for that the Government over us is yet in the hands of saints. [22]

The chh set apart & kept, May, 24: a Fast, wherein to humble our selves for sin, to seeke mercy for the Army & that God would restore peace & give the blessings of the yeare, mercy to O: E: successe to the King etc.

The chh met, June: 11: in the Pastors house to take the relation of a man in order to chh-fellowship & accepted him according to their former vote.

Leiftenant Ephraim Morton, the Deacon dyed, october, 7: about 70 yeares of age, He was not only serviceable to the chh in that office, but usually a Select man, & principally employed in the civill & military services of the towne for many yeares.

Two chh-children were together Admonished for sinne.

At a chh-meeting Feb: 4: the chh voted to sing the spirituall songs in scripture as translated into meeter in our new Psalm-booke the chh was then desired to warne their children & servants not to depart the assembly before the Blessing, as also to acquaint them, that the ordinance of catechizing them should shortly be revived, the chh unanimously agreed hereunto.

It was then propounded, whether Parents not in full communion might without offence hold up their children to Baptisme? some spake for it, some said it was an indifferent thing, but generally the bretheren seemed not free to admit of it, but to continue the practice in that matter as formerly.

Letters came to us from the chh of Yarmouth to desire our presence & assistance at the ordination of m^r John Cotton Junior to be their Pastor on November, 22: the chh chose to accompany their Pastor two bretheren, Thomas Clarke & Samuel Sturtevant, who then attended that service.

In 1694: the Lords supper was ten times, foure members were 1694: admitted, & 37 children were baptized.

March, 7: was a chh meeting, which the sabbath before the chh had notice of & were then desired to prepare their thoughts to nominate some bretheren to serve in the office of Elders & Deacons: The chh spake man by man & all but 2 or 3 of the bretheren nominated Deacon Faunce & Bro: Isaac Cushman for Elders; And then each brother was called upon to nominate 3 for Deacons; many of the chh being absent the compleating of the Nomination was deferred till the next sabbath, the bretheren before absent nominated those for Elders above named, & for Deacons, Nathaniel Wood was highest in Nomination, George Morton & Thomas Clarke were æquall in the votes:

The Pastor on March, 25: stayed the chh & told them, he thought it best that the bretheren nominated for Elders should henceforward be accepted by him & improved with him in all actions that relate to the rule & government of the chh in a way of probation for a time with which the chh readily manifested their concurrence by a ready lifting up of their hands; accordingly the Pastor always called those 2 bretheren to be with him in triall of persons that offered themselves to the fellowship of the chh, & in case of any offence, or to prepare any matter that was to be brought before the chh. [23] on this march, 25: the Pastor moved to know the mindes of the chh, whether they would have all the 3 that had most votes for Deacons or but 2 of them, many spake for 3 seeing 2 of them were æquall in votes, some thought 2 might suffice but would freely rest in the act of the chh whether it were for 2 or 3: the Pastor then put to vote, namely, If they did make choice of those 3 bretheren George Morton, Nathaniel Wood & Thomas Clarke to be Deacons of the chh they should manifest it by lifting up their hands, which they did very generally, & after the afternoon sermon the Pastor declared if any in the whole congregation had ought to say why the chh might not proceed to ordaine those 3 bretheren for Deacons, they had their liberty to speak, none at all objecting, the 3 bretheren were called forth to give their answer to the call of the chh, who did all modestly & humbly expresse their sense of their owne unfitnessse for the worke, their desires of our prayers etc the Pastor then called for the vote of the chh that Deac: Faunce & Bro: Isaac Cushman might Joyne with him in laying on hands in their ordination, to which the chh consented by a silentiall vote, then the Pastor prayed & He with those 2 bretheren laid on hands upon these 3 severally one after another, ordaining them to the office of a Deacon, & then the Pastor only once gave them all together their charge in the same words generally which were used in the ordination of Deac: Faunce (recorded here, pag: 14: 15:¹) then againe the Pastor prayed, & wee concluded cheerfully singing, Psal: 133: & dismisse the Assembly with a Blessing:

It may be minded in all the 30 yeares which this Narrative gives an account of, the Elders called for the votes of the chh, sometimes by lifting up of hands, sometimes by silence, sometimes calling upon every brother one after another to speak his minde, sometimes when divers had particularly spoken, asking if the rest were soe minded, they in a more generall² way assenting; any of these methods were attended as the Elders thought most expedient.

Minde also that in all chh affaires when the Elders called for the Vote of the bretheren, they never called for a negative or contrary vote as Judging it would be as the using of axe or hammer in Templeworke; only care was taken before the vote was called for in any case to gaine the consent of every brother, & in case any could not actually vote, yet they expressing, that they could rest in the act of the chh, it was satisfying, & this was a great preservative of the peace of the chh.³

A chh-child was a second time laid under Admonition for intemperan[ce.]

The chh was at that time informed that another chh-child had bin overtaken, but it was the first time & he had not that naturall capacity & understanding that other young men had but was defective therein, the chh, voted that the Pastor & the 2 bretheren nominated for Elders should admonish him in private & they would rest satisfyed therewith, this was accordingly done at the Pastors house:

Notice being given of it, on May, 13: the Pastor began againe to catechise the children of the chh in the shorter catechisme of the Assembly of Divines, in the public meeting house between the morning & evening worship, the males one sabbath & the females another successively & then preached on each head of Divinity as they lye in order in that Catechisme; this course was constantly attended for more then 3 yeares, till August, 1697: from sabbath to sabbath, only on Sacrament dayes & in the short winter dayes & very unseasonable weather, there was a necessary omission thereoff. Many of the congregation did heare the sermons preached at the catechizing; & God strengthned & encouraged in the work¹ [24]

Our Brother Jonathan Dunham sent letters to the chh desiring our advice about gathering a chh at Edgartowne upon Martha's Vineyard, where he was employed in Teaching the word, these letters were read to the chh, April, 8, & left to their consideration. Apr: 22: the Pastor having prepared an answer, read it to the chh, they approved of it, & voted it should be subscribed by those 2 bretheren with the Pastour & sent in their² name to Brother Dunham. Letters were sent to us from the bretheren of the vineyard & others who offered to joyne with them in that worke to desire us by our Pastor & messengers to be present & asist them to gather a chh & setle a Teaching officer, the chli agreed that either of the nominated Elders or of the Deacons or any other of the bretheren should accompany the Pastor in that service; the Pastor & m^r Samuel Fuller went to the vineyard, the chh was gathered, m^r Dunham was ordained Teacher, october, 11:

A chh-child fallen into sin, living else where the chh sent her a letter of Admonition, the yeare after she sent a letter testifying her Repentance which the chh accepted.

Letters from the chh of Rehoboth came to desire us to attend the ordination of m^r Thomas Greenwood to be their Pastor on october, 24: the chh chose Bro: Thomas Cushman to goe along with the Pastor, they both went at the time.

Letters from the chh at the North-river came to desire us to be with them at the ordination of m^r Deodat Lawson to be their Pastor on November, 14: the chh chose Deac: Faunce & Bro: Elkanan Cushman to goe along with the Pastor to that solemnity, who did all attend that service.

Letters came to us from the chh at Sandwich to desire us to assist them in the ordination of m^r Rowland Cotton to be their Pastor on November, 28: the church chose our bretheren, Deacon Nathaniel Wood & John Nelson¹ to accompany the Pastor thither, who did soe.

Divers of our bretheren at middlebury sent letters to us to desire our Counsell in² their gathering a chh & setling a Teaching officer with them, the chh tooke it into consideration & after some time manifested to them our consent to & approbation of their motion.

Then those bretheren & those of other ches & some others who offered to Joyne with them sent letters to desire our Pastor with other bretheren to helpe them in carrying on that worke on December, 26: the chh chose Deac: Faunce, Deac: George Morton, Bro: Eliezer Churchel & Bro: Ephraim Morton to accompany the Pastor thither on that occasion, & voted, that if God carried on the worke, that wee dismisse our members, namely, five bretheren [25] & 4 sisters to be of that chh; the Pastor & those chh-messengers went at the time appointed, the chh was gathered, & then m^r Samuel Fuller was chosen & ordained to be their Teacher.

Five of our bretheren sent a letter to our chh to desire liberty to set up another meeting within the Township for publick worship because their habitations were soe remote from our place of worship that they could not without great difficulty come themselves & could not bring their families soe far, this was read & agitated at a private chh-meeting at the Pastors house January, 21: & at that time the chh were not willing to give approbation thereunto

In 1695: the Lords supper was six times, six members were admitted & sixteen children were baptized.

A chh-child living else where, having sinned, the chh sent her a letter of Admonition, the next yeare she sent letters to us to testify her repentance & the Pastor of that chh where she lived wrote a good Testimony of her, with desires that wee would dismiss her to them, they being satisfyed as to her meetnesse for full communion, the chh dismissed her & that chh received her.

A chh-child made his Relation, March, 31: before the chh in the Pastors house of a worke of grace, the Pastor & bretheren present with him in his private examination testifyed to the chh the competency of his knowledge, with which the chh was satisfyed, & he was admitted in publick that day.

A brother was admonished for some failings at a chh-meeting in private, a while after he submitted to the chh & was forgiven.

At a chh-meeting¹ June, 16: the matter of Elders being named, & then nominated, desired to give their answer, Bro: Faunce declined a present acceptance of the call from sense of his owne unfitnesse, Bro: Isaac Cushman desired further time of consideration; In which time our bretheren engaged in promoting a new society in our westerne præcincts, gave Bro: Cushman an earnest call to teach the word of God to them & desired our chh to consent thereto, Also in this time M^r Samuel Fuller, the Teacher of the chh at Middlebury a sincere Godly man whom wee had the last yeare dismissed to that service dyed August, 24: being about 66 yeaeres old a great losse to that place: immediately upon which that chh & towne sent letters to our chh to desire our consent that Bro: Isaac Cushman might be their Teacher, upon all which accounts the chh was called to meet on September, 1: which they did, & the Pastor acquainted them with those 2 calls our Brother had; the chh manifested generally their good respect to him & desires not to part with him,² but that he should be an elder here in his blessed Fathers room, & desired him now to give his answer to that call, which accordingly he did: [26] That the³ Providence of God was mysterious, but he apprehended he should rather accept the call of this chh to be Elder here because it was first given him before the other two calls: the chh acted noe further in that matter at that time, only voted, That it would be noe offence but acceptable to them, if Bro: Cushman did improove his gifts in teaching at Midlebury or any other place where the orderly providence of God should call him; God soe disposed that He hearkned to the call of our Bretheren & neighbours of the New Society, where he now lives & constantly attends the worke of Preaching amongst them & is well accepted & acknowledged by them.

1696: In 1696: the Lords supper was administred nine times, two members were admitted & 26 children were Baptized.

June, 7: the Pastor read a letter to the chh from 7 bretheren of the new society, desiring leave of us to be a distinct chh: which he left with the chh seriously to consider of: The chh was appointed to meet, June, 18: which was a day of publick Thanksgiving appointed by authority, After the publick worship was ended the chh repaired to the Pastors house & concluded it necessary at present not to give a full answer to their motion;

At that meeting it was moved; that divers of the chh had exprest their apprehensions, that it was inconvenient to use both the Psalme-booke, & therefore it was put to the vote in these words, If the chh see meet to leave it to the Pastor to fix upon the one of them to be used constantly, their silence should be taken for consent, & if any one Brother did obiect against it, He would not soe doe; there was an universall silence, not one obiecting, therefore from that time the new translation of the Psalms was fixt upon & only sung, it being Judged most for ædification, because the former Translation had many difficult tunes that now wee could not sing.

July, 26: at the conclusion of the sacrament, the Pastor called upon the chh, desiring them after the example of Abraham, Gen: 18:19: to command their children etc to attend more upon & not neglect the ordinance of publick catechizing, wherein of late there had bin some remisnesse, upon which followed a Reformation in that respect.

It was then signified to the chh, that our bretheren of the new society were ready to attend the chh whenever they pleased to appoint a meeting for that end, the Pastor appointed the chh to meet on August, 19: at his house, which they did in the morning it being the Lecture day, before the Lecture, the Pastor & three of the bretheren spent the time in Prayer, after Lecture, there was a particular agitation of matters & the issue was satisfying & comfortable; The Bretheren of the new society professed their Judgments to be, that bretheren should have the advice & approbation of the chh whereto they belonged in setting up distinct worship by themselves & that they apprehended the chh had by some former act of theirs consented they should soe doe, the chh hereupon declared themselves satisfyed with those bretheren, as to their carrying on the worship of God by themselves, their habitations being soe remote from us & that Brother Cushman might without any offence to us continue to dispense the word to them, & that nothing heretofore passed betwixt us in word or action of any kinde should hinder our communion together in sealing ordinances as heretofore: The whole chh & our Bretheren concerned (for ought appeared) did every one of us expresse our consent hereunto by an universall lifting up [27] of our hands, & this was declared to be a finall issue of this matter & all differences that had thereby bin occasioned amongst us, & the chh voted that Deac: Faunce, D: Wood & D: Clarke should joyne with the Pastor in subscribing their hands to this conclusion written & voted, which they did &¹ a copy thereoff soe subscribed was delivered to Bro: Isaac Cushman before they departed from the Pastors house; & as a Testimony of our Reconciliation one with another & mutuall forgivnesse of all past offences, Bro: Cushman himselfe & all our members of that society, both² bretheren & sisters (that were capable) came together & sat downe with us at the Lords Table on August, 30: following: this chh-meeting Aug: 19: was concluded with prayer & Thankfullnesse to God for that issue with our bretheren.

The chh set apart, September, 16: as a day of fasting & prayer for the Army abroad & that God would spare our Indian-harvest, God gratiouly heard us in that respect & destroyed it not by frost among us as in the last yeare.

The Pastor propounding it, the chh set apart & kept, November, 18: as a day of publick Thanksgiving, for Gods gratiouous hearing our

Of the 178 members admitted in these 30 yeares, fifteen of them received Baptisme at their Admission.¹

In 1697: seven children were Baptized.

At a chh-meeting at the Pastors house, March, 31: before Lecture, Brother Isaac Cushman desired on behalfe of himselfe & the bretheren of that society, that the chh would dismisse them to gather a chh among themselves, but He not expecting or desiring a present answer at that meeting, it was left to the consideration of the chh.

April, 18: the Pastour propounded publickly to the chh to keep a day of Fasting & prayer, on account of the war, the Indians having lately killed & taken captive many at Haverhill, & that God would save from assaults of the enemy² who (wee heard) were designing against us by sea & land; & because there was much scarcity of bread in many places, that God would supply their wants, blesse the seed time & harvest of this yeare, heale sicknesse now in the towne etc & left fixing the time to their consideration till the next Sabbath Before which came an order from the Leiftenant Gouvernour & Councill to observe such a day on May, 13: therefore the chh appointed noe other time, but fixt upon & attended the service on that day:

The aspect of providence from this time was such that made way for the Pastor & chh to part one from another without reflexion upon the chh his worke seeming now to be at an end; sundry chh-meetings wee had, one day of Fasting & prayer together in publick in which the 2 next neighbour-ministers were desired to asist in carrying on that worke who did soe & the bretheren after that kept some in one house, others in another, a day of prayer; the issue of all meetings & agitations was, a councill was called the chh from the ches of Weymouth, Duxbury, Bridgwater, Taunton & Barnstable, who met & Judged it best that the Pastor should cease his worke amongst them & the³ chh dismisse him with such expressions of their love & charity as the Rule called for; He having resigned his office, the chh & towne in october invited M^r Ephraim Litle to preach to them, which he accepted & is yet with them this May, 1698: & the Lord increase his gifts & graces that He may be a rich blessing to them: there are at this time of men in full communion 42, in both societies, & of woemen 75, besides 7 or 8 removed to other townes not dismist from us.

The good Lord cover & wash away all our sins & imperfections in the blood of christ, & blesse this chh with peace & increase of grace & holinesse to all generations, Amen, Amen.

In these 30 yeares past were observed amongst us, many dayes of Humiliation & Thanksgiving ordered by Authority, which are not here particularly made mention of: And many members upon removall were dismissed to other ches.¹ [28]

It being Judged profitable to keep in minde the usuall way of proceeding in the Examination of persons by the Elders, as to the competency of their knowledge rendring them meet for full communion, hereto is therefore added an account of the Questions ordinarily propounded to persons in private, when they also made declaration of their experiences of a worke of grace upon their soules; The Elders allowed & encouraged any person to declare his confession of faith in his owne way & method, but if any persons through bashfullnesse or defect of memory chose to be asked, such questions as these were usually ² put to them.

Q: what doe you beleve concerning God? unity of Essence & Trinity of Persons & some of his Attributes were usually given in answer, as also his workes of Creation & ³ Providence in both the Parts of it, preservation & gubernation.

Q: what —— concerning man? The state in which He was created, & his Apostacy & the Tempter to it, & the sin it selfe & the Effects of it in the curse on himselfe & posterity, inward & outward, here & for ever, were here spoken to.

Q: what —— concerning mans Recovery? by whom & how? Here the two⁴ Natures of christ were asserted, & the reason, why God & why man? Also his three offices & the worke of each office.

Q: How ought chh-members to carry it one towards another? The generall answer being, In brotherly love & holy watchfulness?

Q: How ought christians to act towards each other in case of sin & offence, If private, then the Rule, Matt: 18:15:16:17: was minded & lookt for, & the duty of the chh towards repenting offenders exprest.

I know not in these 30 yeares, that any person examined in private by the Elders but they did in some degree give some satisfying answer to these things though some much more fully then others, & though some did not presently give a direct & proper answer to the Question, yet in further discourse about it, it usually appeared, they competently understood the thing. [29]

Though wee did not limit our selves precisely to the same individual words in covenanting with persons at their Admission to full communion, yet ever some of what follows was mentioned, & often all of it:

After the person was received by the vote of the chh, which in case of Admission was alwayes by Lifting up of the Hands.

The Elder, (whether Teaching or Ruling, ordinarily & most frequently it was the Ruling Elder) thus spake,

The chh hath readily received you to their Communion, if it were a child of the chh admitted, the word was, you are this day to renew that covenant with God & his people which was sealed to you in Baptisme; if it were a person that was not a chh-child, then the expression was, you are now to enter into covenant with God & his people, & thus was it often expressed.

The Covenant

Since it hath pleased God to move the hearts of the Bretheren to give you the right hand of Fellowship, you doe in the presence of God, his holy Angels & this solemne assembly, this day avouch the Lord Jehovah the only living & the true God to be your God & doe give up your selfe to Him alone, acknowledging God the Father to be your Father & Soveraigne, & giving your selfe unto the Lord Jesus as your only Priest & Attonement, as your onely Prophet & Guide, as your onely King & Lawgiver, & to the Holy Spirit of God as your Sanctifyer & comforter; And you doe give up your selfe to this church of the Lord Jesus & doe solemnly promise by the helpe of his grace to walke with God & this his chh in wayes of holy communion & due subiection to all his holy ordinances according to his will revealed in his holy word.

This you promise, the Party answering, yes, He proceeds, Then doe I promise to you in the name of this chh, That by the helpe of the same grace wee will walke towards you in brotherly love & holy watchfullnesse for our mutuall succour & ædification in the Lord Jesus.

Then followed a concluding Prayer, often thus begun,

Now the God of all Grace who keepes Covenant & mercy to a Thousand generations make us all faithfull herein to himselfe & one unto another for his Holy Names sake.

That y^e S^d maj^r Bradford, had Spoken falsly & Slandrd him In Saying That he y^e S^d Cooke had Cutt 10th worth of wood off his Land, wⁿ y^e Chh came to Consid^r y^e charge, it was not Evident to them wheth^r y^e S^d Bradford had positively charg^d him thus, or only had S^d that he beleivd he had

Cutt So much, Maj^r Bradford, made it Evident that S^d Cooke, or his man by his ord^r had Cut some Loads of wood upon his Land, but not 10^{fl} worth, it was also Evident to y^e church, (by two positive Evidences) That when y^e S^d Cooke in taking y^e 2^d Step of y^e rule, took 2 brethren wth him, to treet wth S^d Bradford about y^e matt^r of offence, y^r was then an Agreem^t made between y^m wth y^e S^d Cooke, on his part had broken & fallen from: upon y^e whole y^e church came to this Conclusion in y^e Case, that Maj^r Bradford, Should acknoledge his fault, that he had Spoken too Largly in Saying it was 10^{fl} worth & y^t he had priz^d it too high, and that Jacob Cooke should acknowledge his fault in not Standing to his S^d Agreem^t upon wth Maj^r Bradford did Comply wth y^e churches determination & acknowledge w^t was required on his part but Jacob Cooke could not be made Sensible he had broken any Agreem^t but was willing (upon y^e pastors moving of it to him) to have a Little time of Consideration w^{ch} was Granted. y^e meeting was Closed with some very serious Counsell given to y^m by y^e Eld^r — and it must be observed y^t y^e whole church (y^t were yⁿ present) unanimously agrd in y^t Opinion of y^e Case. Nemine Contradicente

Qu. What farther Steps may be taken that Councells may have their due Constitution and Efficacy in Supporting, preserving and well Ordering the Interests of y^e churches in y^e Country?

It was Proposed:

1. That y^e Ministers of y^e Country form themselves into Associations that they may meet at proper times to Consid^r Such things may proprrly by before them, Relating to y^r own faithfullness towards each Other & y^e Common interests of y^e churches. & that each of these Associations have a moderat^r for a certain time who Shall continue till anoth^r be chosen, who may call them togeth^r upon Emergencies

In these Associations it is Expected that Questions and cases of Importance eith^r propound^d by themselves or by Others presented unto them Should be upon due deliberation answered.

That Advice be taken by the Associated Pastors from Time to Time before they proceed to any Action in y^r particular chh^s w^{ch} may be likely to produce any Imbroylments.

That y^e Associated Pastors do Carefully and Lovingly treat each

It must be admitted, however, that the present situation is not without its difficulties. The new government has been unable to secure the support of the majority of the members of the House of Commons, and has therefore had to rely on the votes of the Labour party and the Liberal party to sustain it. This has led to a number of difficulties, particularly in the area of foreign policy, where the government has had to compromise with the opposition parties.

work of the Gospell Ministry by the Church and Precinct gave this Answer.

To the First or South Church of Christ and to the South Precinct in Plymouth.

GENTLEMEN

I understand by y^e Votes of your Church and Precinct baring date February 13th 1723/4 and by those Gentlemen you appointed to Inform me of them — That you have Called me to Settle with you in the work of the Gospell Ministry: which Call I have taken into Serious Consideration and have been earnest with Heaven for Direction; and Hope God hath Inclined and Disposed Me to what may tend to his Glory and your and my Spirituall and Eternall Advantage. And do now by these Inform you that I am Come to a Determination (which is This) That I do heartily and willingly Accept of y^e Call you have given Me to Settle with you in the Great work of the Gospell Ministry; And shall depend upon you for an Honourable and Comfortable Support and Maintenance while God shall Please to continue me among you

And as God shall Enable me shall lay out my-selfe to be Servicable to you in the Great work of the Gospell Ministry which by his Providence He seems to Call me to Ingage in in this Place. And Hope and Pray that my [2¹] Labours may be attended with His Blessing, and y^t He will assist me therein. And now Conclude hoping and Praying that the God of Grace and the God of Peace may Dwell amoung us, and build us up, and at last grant to us all an Inheritance among them that are Sanctified

From your Sincere and faithfull Frind and Servant

NATH^{LL} LEONARD

At a Church meeting Appointed at the Pastors House after having opened the meeting with Prayer, The Pastor moved to the Breathern of the Church to Consider Some things concerning the Subjects of Baptism, and the Chhs obligation to watch over y^e Children of y^e Chh: The Pastor Gave his Thôts in writing which were as follows

1.³ That Baptism as tis a Seal of the Cov^t of Grace, so tis a Seal of our admission into the visible Ch of our Lord Jesus †. Hence we read of being Baptised into one Body 1 Cor: 12. 13

2. That the Infants of Such as are members of this Visible Ch are to be Baptised. Hence we Read, The Promise is to you, and to your Children Acts 2. 39. Suffer little children to come unto me and forbid them not for of Such is the Kingdom of Heaven Math 19. 14 And so

3. That Persons being Baptised in their Infancy and Living to adult age (without Scandall, but Sober and Pious, not cast out of the Ch but Remaining Members of it) upon their Renewing their Cov^t with God and his pple, may Demand Baptism for their Children, and it cannot Regularly be Denied them.

4. I do not find any where in the new testament that the Apostles required (before Baptism) all or any of the Adult Persons that they Baptised with their Housholds to come Immediatly to the Lords Supper, or even so much as Informed them of that Ordinance before they Baptised them with their Households — And so

5. Since the Scriptures are Silent in that Point we ought not to make it Such a Form of Co^munion as to Deny Baptism to Sober and well Disposed Persons that Desire to Enter into Cov^t with God and his pple, and their Children — nor to the Children¹

Question Whether It will be an Offence unto y^e Church for me after an Examination of Such Persons, and after having Propounded them to y^e Ch and Congregation, the Usuall time, of those we Immediately Admit to full Comunion, and there appearing nothing Vitious or Sandalous² in them, To admit them to a Renewall of their Cov^t, or to Baptism if they have not Already been Baptised, with their Children?

7. I likewise think that all Baptised Persons as they are Members of the Visible Ch of our Lord Jesus, are under the Watch and Care of the Ch and Subject to Discipline, and that they ought to be called upon to bring forth the Fruits of Repentance after they have been Guilty of Scandall and if they obstinately refuse, after Due Patiance & Admonition to Cast them out of the Church.

I Accordingly Propose to your Consideration —

Question What methods are to be taken with those among us that have been guilty of scandall, and not Restored by Repentance?

After Some Debate upon the First Question and some of the Brethren desireing further time of Consideration, The Pastor consented to wait some time for an answer.

After some Debate upon the Second Question The Church Voted, That Elder Faunce with the Deacons should Discourse with those Persons that had been guilty of Scandall and not Restored before my ordination, and Labour to bring them to Repentance, and return an Account to the Pastor that they may Suitably be Proceeded with

The Committee Chosen to settle the Bounds of the Parsonage Lott with M^r Cole returned an account of their Doings

The Pastor Concluded the Meeting with Prayer.

1 That this Ch^h now proceed to make Choice of Two Suitable persons to the Deaconship.

2. That the Persons chosen shall have the Major part of the Votes, or Voters now Present.

3 The Brethren ¹ then brought in their Votes and the Lot fell Upon our Brother Haviland Torry, and our Brother Thomas Clarke. and there was no manifestation of any Uneasiness in the Choice.

4 The Ch^h then Proceeded to Consider Sister Lydia Cushman's Case and Voted that althô the Evidences given in respecting her behaviour (on² the Last Monday of Augst 1727) raise a Strong Presumption in us that she was then overtaken with Strong Drink; yet Since there is no Posative Proof She had been Drinking Strong Drink at that time, & She declareing that Odd behaviour to be the Effect of Bodily Infirmity and not of Strong Drink, Wee cannot say Absolutly She was then overtaken with Drink. However, we are Exceeding Fearfull that she Imputes that to Bodily Infirmity which was the Effect of Intemperate Drinking. And in the Name of Christ do advise and Exhort her to Consider that the Lord is a Jealous God, whose Eyes are as a Flaming Fire, who searcheth the Rains and the Heart and will give to every man according to his work. Whereupon she was Restored to Comunion with Some Serious Advice then given by the Pasor.

The Pastor then Concluded with Prayer.

At the close of the Forenoon Exercise the Pastor Publickly declared the Concurrence with the Chh's Choice of Brother Haviland Torry and Bro: Tho^r Clarke to the office of Deacons, and in the Name of the Chh desired them to Accept of that Office and take their places in the Deacons seat &¹

It being Commonly Reported that our Brother John Sparhawk is Exceedingly given to Intemperate Drinking and whereas it Appears that he very much frequents Publick Houses of License for Strong Liquour and has been Lately Convicted of being overtaken with Strong Liquour, Twice before Justice Cushing of Kingston and once before this Chh. And whereas Several Single Evidences Appearing who Declare that they have heard him Curse and Swear we also Exceeding fear he is guilty thereof — For all which things tis our Opinion that he be¹ Suspended from Special Ordinances till there be Some Vissible Reformation in his Life and Conversation.

The Chh also made this vote upon the case of our Sister Lydia Cushman.

Sister Lydia Cushman being again Convicted of Excessive Drinking, tis our Opinion that she be Suspended from Special Ordinances till there be Some Reformation in her Life and Conversation.

These Persons were then called in before the Chh and suspended from special ordinances 'till there be some Reformation in their Lives and Conversations and were Solemnly Counselled and Admonished by the Pastor: May God set home the Censures laid upon them and Rebuke given them and make his own Ordinance Effectual for their Recovery and Salvation. and Let them that Stand take heed lest they fall. The meeting as it began So it was Concluded with Prayer.

A 3^d vote was called in these or in Words to this Purpose² viz If this Chh knows any thing Scandalous in Mary Taylor that they think proper she should be called before the Chh to make Answer to it, Please to Manifest it by the Usual Sign. It passed in the Neg:³

The Pastor Desired the Deacons to return the Names of Such of the Children of the Chh as were under Scandal and that they had notified to Appear before the Chh at this Time and place. the Persons whose Names they Returned were Seth Barnes, Joseph Bartlet and his wife and Benjamin Ryder.

Benjamin Ryder Appeared and Confessed he was guilty of Fornication but discovered an unwillingness to give Satisfaction because he something Scrupled the Validity of his Infant Baptism; But maniaged Himself Decently and with Moderation and declared that he did not absolutely Refuse and Desired he might have an Opportunity to Discourse with the Minister on that point. which was readily granted.

Seth Barnes thô he was at Lecture yet withdrew and did not Appear before the Chh nor Sent in any reason of his so doing. the Chh therefore Voted that the Deacons Discourse with him again and endeavour to bring him to a sense of his Duty.

[I]t was also moved that the vote passed at the Last Chh meeting Respecting [M]ary Taylor might be Reconsidered, But the Chh being divided about it, this motion [w]as referred for further consideration.

Joseph Bartlet and his wife their Case was Deferred

¹ Part v (not including the title, for which see note 2, below) contains 16 leaves, or 32 pages. Some of the pages measure 8½ inches in height by 6 inches in width, but others are smaller. Some of the leaves are badly worn, especially at the corners, and the original page-numbers have in many cases partly or wholly disappeared. The pages, however, have been numbered in pencil, and this notation is followed in the present volume. As the paper of Part v differs from that of Parts i-iv, and as it has no watermark, Part v could not have been a portion of the original vellum-covered volume: cf. p. 3 note 1, above.

Part v is wholly (except as noted on pp. 249 note 2, 271 note 1, below) in the hand of the Rev. John Cotton, and evidently contains the notes (made no doubt at the times of entry) from which Mr. Cotton compiled the "further account" which forms Part ii. As Part v begins with 1682 and ends with 1693, and thus covers only twelve years of Mr. Cotton's pastorate, presumably there were once in existence other pages which have since disappeared.

² This title, written on a piece of paper (pasted to p. 1) measuring 8 inches in height by 6½ inches in width, is in a much later hand. The verso is blank.

June, 17: Samuel Dunham senior was called forth to manifest his Repentance publickly in order to his Reconciliation with the church, his speech was pénitentiall & well tending to satisfaction, but one Brother alleadged some matter of scruple upon his spirit as to the sincerity of his Repentance, intimating he had both spoken & done something inconsistent therewith, upon which it was concluded to respite the issue of the matter a fortnight longer.

June, 27: at the conference-meeting, it was propounded to the church concerning Sam: Dunham; sundry of the Bretheren spake charitably concerning him that Brother who before had spoken in publick, said he should rest in the act of the church:

At this time, it was propounded by the Pastour to the church, whether they tooke themselves bound to looke after church-children that lived else where, the bretheren roundly exprest themselves in the Affirmative; the case of Bithiah Sandy of Bristoll was mentioned who was guilty of fornication with him, whom afterward she married; the church concluded it necessary she should ¹ be Admonished by the Elders in their name for her sinne.

July, 1: Samuel Dunham senior was Reconciled to the church.

July 8: after the publick worship was ended, the Elders desired the church to stay; the Pastour read letters of Admonition for Bithiah Sandy, the church then voted, those letters should be sent by the Elders in their name to her, as their rebuke of her for her sinne. [5]

July, 15: the Elders propounded to the church to set [apart] a day for fasting & prayer, partly with reference to th[e] great drought on the southerne townes,² & our owne danger of a thin harvest if God should much longer withheld raine from us; partly for persecutions of saints abroad: it was left to consideration till the next Lords day.

It pleased God to send such plentifull raine, that on July, 22: the church agreed to set apart, the Thursday following as a day of Thanksgiving for soe seasonable a mercy, which, July, 26: was accordingly attended.

September, 2: Letters from the church of Barnstable were read, signifying their desires for messengers from our church to be present etc at the ordination of their Pastour, M^r Jonathan Russell, on Sep: 19: the church chose the Pastour & Elder, & one of the Bretheren, either secretary Morton, or Deacon Finney or Deacon Morton to goe along with the Elders as their Messenger also.

September, 16: it was signyed to the church, that neither the Elder nor any of the bretheren above nominated could goe to Barnstable, & therefore other Bretheren were propounded, namely, William Harlow, Andrew Ring, Joseph Howland, any one of these, the church by their silence consented to be their messenger.

The Pastour & Leift: Joseph Howland only attended this service, & Sep. 23: the Pastour gave an account to the church in publick of the comfortable carrying on & issue of the worke in the day of ordination with great peace & unanimity.

October, 14: the Elders propounded to the church to set apart, the Thursday following, viz, oct: 18: as a day of fasting & prayer, on the account of the troubles of Gods people in England etc as also to humble our selves under Gods Judgments on this land in blastings, meldews & in sundry places great drought, & floods that destroyed much of the fruits of the earth; the church did unanimously consent to the motion & publickly attend the duty at the time exprest

January, 6: the Elder intimated desires from the Pastors motion, that the church would come generally together to the conference; Accordingly, Jan: 9: the church met & after the conference the Pastor propounded some greivances which he desired redresse of or release from office-worke, the Elder shewed discontent, & 1 or 2 more of the Bretheren, & there was noe vote or issue put to anything propounded: Looke back to page 3¹ [6] 1684:

[T]he church met, March, 7: & after hearing some counsell from our magistrates in the meeting house, the church went to the Pastors house, & agreed & voted to send to the churches of Barnstable, Taunton, Bridgwater, Duxburrough, Marshfeild to send their messengers in way of a councill to consider & helpe us with reference to our present differences, the meeting to be March, 19: & the church to provide for their Entertainement & to defray the charge thereof; the Pastors wife was then publickly desired to see to their Entertainement, & they would satisfy for all disbursments thereabouts.

March, 9: (which was the first day of our meeting in the new Meeting-house) the Pastour preached upon John, 17: 21: 22: 23: & in the afternoone sermon, he moved the church to set apart a day for fasting & prayer, to seeke mercy from¹ God, & a gratiouſe issue of our present trouble; after which the Elder manifested his scruple thereabouts, ſoe did ſome of the Bretheren; Leift: Morton shewed great diſcontent at the Pastors preaching that day, intimating as if they had not the food of their ſoules, because he heard [ſ]oe much in publick of diſferences, & that things were blowne up more then he heard all the weeke besides, with ſundry expreſſions deeply reflecting upon the Pastours preaching that day; Will: Harlow did in ſuch a manner expreſſe himſelfe murmuring at the ſoe preaching: In Conclusion, the Pastour ſaid (After the Elder had ſaid it ſhould not offend him if any did attend ſuch ſervice) that Thursday next, March, 13: he had dedicated to that ſolemne ſervice in his owne house & all that pleased ſhould be welcome thereunto. The day was through grace comfortably kept by many of the bretheren & ſisters.

March, 30: by reason of a Fast appointed by the court, the church-fast was deferred till afterward.

April, 20: the Elders stayed the church, & propounded to set apart the friday sevennight following, viz. May, 2: for¹ Fasting & prayer with reference to what had past in the late day of temptation, in order to our more comfortable attendance to & communion at the Lords supper, which the Pastour propounded to be the Sabbath immediately succeeding the Fast day mentioned; the church readily & universally consented then to attend the Fast: the Pastour desired the Elder to conclude with prayer, & he did soe:

May, 2: the day of Fasting & Prayer was solemnly attended by the whole church in the Pastours house. The Pastour first prayed & preached, then M^r Fuller prayed: Afternoone the Elder prayed, Secretary Morton, Deacon Finney & Thomas Faunce; then Letters were read from Bithiah Sandy to the church, manifesting her² Repentance for the sin which the church sent her Admonition for the last yeare: the church well accepted her letters:

Deacon Morton spake to the church about Intemperance, & long sitting at ordinaryes etc the Elders & Bretheren that spake to it all agreed in their Testimony against those evills & their desires that God would helpe all to more care & watch fullnesse in all respects: the 122 Psalme was sung, & the Pastour minding of the Lords supper to be the next Sabbath, he then ended with prayer; Blessed be God for this comfortable day of peace etc [8] 1684:

July, 13: William Shirtliffe was called forth before the church in the open Assembly, to answer for his sin in carnall fellowship with her whom afterwards he married, his child being borne 26 weekes after marriage; William shewed little sense of sin, the church voted, & the Elder laid him under Admonition, for his sin, & for the pride & hardnesse of his heart, & soe it was left for the present.

July, 27: the church was desired to stay after the publick worship, that if any had any Just exception against admission of old Goodm[an] Bryant into the church, they might then expresse it; the Issue of the Agitation was, that nothing appeared to hinder his calling forth to declare himselfe the next Lords day.

October, 5: Letters were publickly read from the church upon the North River in Scittuate, desiring our church to send their Pastour & messengers to be present at the ordination of M^r Thomas Mighell for their Pastour, the church sent Elder Cushman & M^r Joseph Bradford, who attended that service with their Pastour, on october, 15:

[s]he pulled the lad out of the tree with her hand,¹ & then threw him over the fence; that she ought first to have told the mother of her² child's fault in getting up to the tree & not have toucht him herself; that there was violence appeared in her carriage to the child; these things she ought to confesse her evill in, to which was added by some of the Church, too much appearance of untruths in the words, in that she said, she tooke the lad gently downe from the tree & he came downe upon his feete, whereas the evidence did positively assert, the child fell flat upon the ground by her pulling him by the leg: another was, that she told Mr Arnold that Mrs Cotton had by putting a key into Josiah's mouth caused his bleeding, whereas she used noe such meanes; Mrs Clarke also in her speech before the church [18³] did say, she had heard Mrs Cotton did put a key into the child's mouth, by a credible person, but would not, though much urged by divers bretheren to it, mention her Author, but presently said, she must study who it was & would speake with them first to see if they would owne it, which gave vehement ground of suspition she therein spake untruly; for these things & her offensive carriage about the Island, it was solemnly declared to her, that the church was offended with her & she should prepare⁴ by Repentance to give them satisfaction, & was then ordered to withdraw: the church then sent Bro: Jos: Dunham & Bro: Ele. Churche to call Nathaniel Clarke to come to them, the bretheren returned with this answer from him, namely, that he would not come, he had nothing to say to us, nor would have any thing to doe with us: upon which the Pastor declaring to the church sundry of his scandalous wicked words & practises, & that now he had practically disowned his relation to the church, the church then unanimously agreed in choosing Bro: Harlow & Bro: Bonum to goe to Nath: Clarke & tell him, that the church did require him in the Name of Christ to attend them in the publick assembly the next Sabbath in the afternoone, his answer to them was, he should not come, for he could not speake, because he was under bonds: this meeting was with much peace & comfortable unity in the whole church & was concluded with Prayer.

July, 7: Nathaniel Clarke made it manifest his Rejection of the church, in that he came not to the publick worship, nor did attend on the church, wherefore after many bretheren had particularly exprest themselves as Judging him worthy to be reieected for his not hearing the church, there was then a vote called for & universally consented to, that he should be disowned; the Elder did then declare that whereas Nathanie[ll] Clarke had like Esau despised his birthright, by many words & carriag[es] contemned the church, they therefore disowned him & cutt him off fro[m] his relation to the church as an unprofitable branch; the Elder praye[d] after, & the Pastour added a word of counsell & Admonition to all church-child[ren].

July, 28: the Elders propounded to set apart a day for Fasting & prayer. 1: on account of the drought: 2: Great sicknesse: 3: the Heathen doing mischeife Eastward. 4: our present unsettlement: 5: Distresse of Ireland; the day fixed [u]pon was, Tuseday following, July, 30: & it was then attended: [19] 1689:

November, 17: the Elders appointed the church to meeet together on wednesday next after Lecture.

Nov: 20: the church stayed after the Lecture After prayer by the Pastor the Elders then declared matter of offence against Brother Samuel Dunham, partly in that he had taken the Name of God in vaine before many witnesses, in [o]ften saying those words, the curse of God is upon the head & pluck with many other unsavoury speeches; partly by intemperance in drinking which sister Jackson testyfed against him before [t]he Elders to his face, as to the next day after the sacrament in october last; others of the church then testyfed, that it was commonly reported of him, & they had divers times seene him disguised with drinke; said offender though he spake some good words yet not soe as to satisfy the church, & therefore by an universall vote of the church he was laid under Admonition & not to come to the Lords supper till he had manifested his Repentance for his inordinate walking by a reformed conversation, the Elder then concluded with prayer.

January, 26: the Pastour propounded to set apart a day for Humiliation & prayer, partly for Gods blessing on the Agents¹ now in & going for England, that there may be a good Issue of that Negotiation in our settlement on good Foundations: & 2: for prevention of the spreading of the small pox, now increasing in Boston. 3: That God would put an end to the war with the Indians, that the next spring & summer wee might not be afflicted by them: 4: for our aged Elder, that God would heale & succour him, & yet spare him to us; the motion was left to the consideration of the church, & the determination of the time, till the next Sabbath:

February, 2: the Pastour againe propounding the motion, & the time to be Feb: 12: it was by a silent vote unanimously consented to; & then attended.

February, 9: at the conclusion of the sacrament, the Pastour (having formerly propounded it in publick) then moved to the church, the necessity that some Brother should read the Psalmes in the Elders absence, & by a silentiall vote of the church, it was concluded the Deacons should one or other of them doe it; Deacon Morton excused himselfe because aged & the other younger, upon which Deacon Faunce was desired to read the Psalme then & continually whilst without an Elder, he then accepted & attended that service.

Pastor, & did soe still, & now voted that if he failed Deacon Faunce should goe, The Pastor & Deacon Faunce went at the time appointed. [27] 1692:

April, 24: the Pastor desired the church betweene the meetings to repaire to his house, they came, He propounded to them, that wee should renew our Covenant upon the approaching day of Fasting & Prayer, & read to them the Record of what the church had done in that kinde in the yeare 1676: as also two other papers, one from the Elders of this Colony, another from many Elders of Boston-Colony, in which were solemne calls, counsells, exhortations & encourgements to endeavour thorough Examination of hearts & wayes, & Reformation of heart & life in turning from all provoking evills etc.¹ The church readily accepted the motion & resolved to attend the worke on the day mentioned; & agreed, that the male-children of the covenant should by the Pastour be invited to come to his house on the morrow then & there to heare what was expected from them, viz, from about twenty yeares old & upwards, & the female-children of the church of such age to come on that account to the Pastors house on the Fast-day betweene the meetings; accordingly the Pastor gave them all publick notice:

April, 25: there was a very great & Generall appearance of all the male-children of the church & those very few absent being out of towne or necessarily hindered, not~~one~~ one refusing to owne his covenant relation to the church) the Pastour spent neere 2 hours with them in prayers & solemne Exhortations, counsells & Admonitions to all sorts of them particularly, & then read to them what they had done, Anno 1676: & asked them, if they were willing to acknowledge the Lord God of their fathers, & in like manner on the day of prayer at hand renew the conenant for Reformation etc which they universally consented to; it was observed many were much affected at what was spoken, & they did not spend that evening as many had used to doe.

April, 27: on the Fast day betweene the meetings came the Female church-children to the Pastors house a great Assembly,² the Pastor prayed & exhorted etc about an houre, & did all as he had done with the young men at the meeting above mentioned, & had the like issue.

Then after sermon in the publick congregation in the Afternoone, the Pastor stood up [and after] some [28¹] Preface grounded on Josh: 24: 15: etc he read a solemne Letter which the Generality of the ministers in this Colony had perused & approoved of as meet to be commended to all the churches & people to quicken them to Reformation; & for further Encouragement in the worke he read the conclusion of nine ministers in one of their Association-meeting[s] at Cambridge, March, 6: foregoing, & then proceeded first with the members of the Church in full Communion & desired them all both bretheren & sisters to manifest their consent in Renewall of Covenant by standing up all the time the Paper was read which contained confessions of our particular sins & ingagements of Reformation, the Paper was the same that on the like occasion had bin improoved in the yeare, 1676:² only some further addition in the matter of confession our present circumstances called for; the whole church did accordingly; then the Pastour proceeded with the³ the children of the covenant & called on them soe to stand up while a Paper sutable for them was read, the same (only with some Addition as in the other).which they had consented to Anno 1676: on a like occasion, there was universall concurrence in this manner by them also, & the whole solemnity concluded with prayer; It was observed that many of all sorts were much affected with this solemne Transaction, the Lord accept us in Christ & enable us all to performe our vowes & covenant-ingagements to him

June, 19: After the Evening worship, the Pastour stayed the church, & propounded, 1: That a sister; susanna Ransom, having falling into scandall by excessive drinking, & not appearing this day before the church⁴ to answer for it, that therefore the church would by Bro: Shaw in their name require her to attend the next Sabbath, to which the church consented by a silentiall vote. 2: That seeing many of the Psalmes in Mr Ainsworths Translation which wee now sung had such difficult tunes as none in the church could sett [] the church would consider of some way of Accomod[ation tha]t wee might sing all the Psalmes; This motion [] the consideration of the church for a time. Susanna Ransom (who formerly was Gardner) was called before the church, July, 10: to answer for her sin of Drunkenesse, she partly by word, & more by writing did manifest some Repentance for her sin; the Pastor called upon every Brother of the church by Name to declare their Judgment; every one did speake, the Generall conclusion was, she should be laid under the censure of Admonition, & the church would in that way waite upon God for¹ discovery of the truth of her Repentance; This Proposition being made to the church by the Pastor, was by a silentiall vote universally consented to, & that ordinance solemnly applyed to her, with prayer for a blessing; then was the whole congregation dismissed with the Blessing.

August, 7: at the conclusion of the sacrament, the Pastor called upon the church to expresse their Judgments as to the Proposall made about the Psalmes² June, 19: & put to vote, whether they did consent, that when the Tunes were difficult in our Translation, wee should sing the Psalmes³ now in use in the neighbour-churches in the Bay; two bretheren vocally exprest their approbation, & by a silentiall vote the whole church consented it should be soe, not one opposing: The Sabbath following, Aug, 14: wee began to sing the Psalmes in course, according to the vote of the church.

August, 21: the Pastor desired the church to be together on the Lecture day.

Aug: 24: After Lecture the Pastor stayed the church, & pro pondured to their consideration, that some of our church & church-children had last spring desired William Hoskins to come & live with them at Lakingham for carrying on the Sabbath in teaching them, which they desired & he accepted without asking any consent or counsell of the Elder or church therein, & thereby they generally in that village neglected coming to the publick worship, & in espetiall on a Fast-day, wherein the church agreed to a solemne renewall of their covenant,⁴ they stayed there & came not to attend that solemne worke; After discourse of divers bretheren declaring their dissatisfaction at their practice, & some speaking more favourably to it, it was unanimously voted by the church, that the Pastor should warne the Bretheren concerned in the matter of offence, in some convenient time to attend the church & give an account of their actings & the grounds thereof.

September, 4: the Pastor read a letter from the Gouverour to the ministers etc to set apart days of Fasting & Prayer for the Army gone Eastward etc: Sep: 11: the church agreed to set apart, Sep: 15: for that service, & on that day it was attended. [30] 1692:

September, 11: after the Sacrament the Pastor propounded to the church to consider of some meet bretheren that might read the Psalmes in the absence of Deacon Faunce (who was then sick) & left it to consideration.

October, 2: The Pastor desired the church to come together the next day:

Oct: 3: The church met, after prayer the Pastor propounded to the church, concerning John Grey & Joseph Warren, two church children, who had sinned both by Excesse in drinking, & the former by evill speaking etc inasmuch as these evils were committed before renewall of covenant (see church Records Apr: 24: & 27: 1692: pag: 3: 4: ¹) they would deale with them in private, the church consenting thereunto, Joseph Warren was then called before the church, & manifested Repentance for his sin & desired them to forgive him, the church voted he should have an Admonition, which was solemnly applyed to him by the Pastor.

In answer to the motion above, Sep: 11: divers Bretheren were nominated as sutable to read the Psalmes, viz, Jonathan Shaw, Thomas Cushman, Isaac Cushman, Elkanan Cushman, John Morton, Ephraim Morton Junior, Eliezer Churchel, william Shirtliffe, John Bradford, & ² Baruch Jordan, & it was concluded, that any of these might be called forth by the Pastor to this service, & any other of the Bretheren that might hereafter be found meet for it.

The Pastor then propounded, that the church would unite in some way for his settled yearly salary, most of them that spake, were to doe it by Rate; the meeting was then dissolved.

November, 13: the Pastor desired the church to meet on the Lecture day

Plim^o Nov^r 1771.² As it has been a Matter of Question with some, whither publick Confessions of scandalous Sins, should be recorded; as the recording of them transmits the Memory of their Sin to posterity & may be a Disadvantage some way to y^e Children of those that have fallen into Sin — & some other Reasons — I have maturely considered the Matter, & am fully of opinion that 'tis proper & best that such Confessions be recorded for the following Reasons

CHANDLER ROBBINS

1. There are sundry Accounts of y^e Falls of some Eminent Saints tha[t] are recorded in Scripture, & of their Repentance, which a[re] handed down to all posterity — & no doubt for wise & good End[s]
2. The recording publick Manifestations of Repentance may [tend] to encourage others to hope for that Mercy of God in Chris[t] which has brôt to Repentance those who have grievously fallen
 "For this Cause I obtain^d Mercy — that in me first — &c
3. The falling into Sin is just Cause of Shame — but 'tis no Shame to confess it but a lasting shame not to confess it. nor can it properly operate to the Disadvantage of posterity to have it known, that my Ancestor who fell in[to] Sin was brôt to Repentance & restored as we hope to y^e favor of God & M[en]
4. It has been the common practice of many Chh's to have suc[h] Confessions put upon Record & even of this Chh in some Instances. And
5. It seems very expedient & in some Cases quite needful they sh[ould] as we have very lately had occasion to observe — A person [was] propounded to Communion, who had many Years before f[allen] into Scandal — & had also made publick Confession — but [not] being recorded, it was not known, nor remember^d by a[ny of] y^e Chh at this Distance of Time,³ and as in her [] she made no Confession of her Sin (& it was known she had fallen) — great Uneasiness almost Universally till Satisfaction was gain[ed] personal, par-

1740/1 March. The Rev^d M^r Gilbert Tennent came hither & Preached Eight Sermons to great Acceptance which by the Blessing of God greatly awakened this People.¹ — After this Several Ministers of the County & others Visited us & Preached with us. We often Spent whole Days in Prayer Singing & Preaching & had frequently three Exercises in them. I often Preached Three times on the Lords Day my self & Sometimes three or four times in the week besides.

The Subjects chiefly Insisted on were these following the Sin & Apostacy of Mankind in Adam. the blindness of the Natural man in the things of God, the Enmity of the Carnal Mind, the evil of Sin, the Desert of it & the utter inability of the fallen Creature to Relieve it Selfe. the Sovereignty of God, his Knowledge Justice, Holiness, Truth, Power, & Eternity. & the dreadfulness of his Wrath Also his Grace & Mercy in Christ Jesus. the way of Redemption by † ; Justification thro his Imputed Righteousness, received by Faith, this Faith the Gift of God, & a living Principle that works by Love. Loyal & Evangelical Repentance: the Nature & Necessity of Regeneration and that without Holiness no man can see God. All Persons were put upon Examining themselves, warned against trusting in their own righteousness which is as filthy Raggs, & resting in the form of Godliness without the Power &c These together with pathetical Invitations to come Now & Embrace the Lord Jesus † as freely offered in the Gospel made a wonderful impression on the minds of all Sorts of pple & Men Women & Children were much awaken'd & some (we Believe) were converted.

in the Town about a Fortnight. Preaching in this & Sometimes in the other Parish. At this time I think I may say as Paul Doth 1 Thess: 1.5 — & 2 Ch: 13 — Hundreds of Souls were at one time in the Meeting House Feb. 13th Crying out in the utmost concern What they should do to be saved? & many others rejoicing in the Lord in the sweet sense of his Redeeming Grace & Love in + Jesus as they declared. This Day & at some other times conversions were so open & Public that we Seemed to see Souls Dead in trespasses & Sins Revive & Stand up monuments of divine Grace. It appeared to be a Day of Great Grace.

After this for a considerable time the Taverns were much Reformed & the Children forsake their Plays in the Streets and Persons of all Denominations Except a few gave themselves to Reading the Word of God & other Books of Devotion, to Meditation Prayer Conference & other Religious Exercises & refrained from their customary Vices & great Additions were made to the Chh of Such as we hope will be Saved.

A violent Opposition presently arose & prevailed so far that a number [7¹] of this Congregation went out from us into a Distinct Society & Nine of the Brethren asked a Dismission from us which was readily granted.

Jan^{ry} 5 Thursday 1743/4 The Rev^d M^r Nathanael Eells Preached the First Sermon in the New Meeting House to those that have separated from us.

Feb^{ry} 2^d 1743/4 The Pastor Stayed the Chh after Lecture. & the Chh Voted that Deacons Atwood & Torrey Notify Nero a Negro Man belonging to M^r John Barnes & Boston a Negro Man belonging to M^r Thomas Foster that this Chh suspend them from Communion at Present. they having been convicted of Scandalous Offenses before the Civil Magistrate.

Jan^{ry} 6 1744/5 Boston a Negro Man belonging to M^r Thomas Foster made Publick confession of his Offense & was Restored.

Chh, for want of due support &c. and they practised accordingly. — Several Instances of this Nature occur in the Chhes of New-England even from the beginning, which are the strictest of all upon this Head.

And the expediency of M^r Sprout's Removal was urged from the peculiar Circumstances of the People in this Place, as well as that of his own Flock; which (according to the accounts we had) might be better accommodated by being reunited to the old Parish of Guildford — from which they had before departed — than continuing as a distinct Society — The Cause of their offence & secession from that Church being in a great measure, removed. — &c. &c.

After Discourse, The Chh Voted to proceed immediately to the Choice of a Pastor. — And bringing in their Votes in writing, upon counting them It appeared that every Vote was for the Rev^d M^r James Sprout Viz. 44.

Next, The Church chose D^r Le Baron, Coll^l Watson, M^r Spooner, M^r Mayhew & their former Committee to present these Votes to the Precinct and also to the Rev^d M^r Sprout in Case the Precinct concur with the Choice.

Finally, the Church Voted to request M^r John Cotton to supply the Pulpit, till they hear further from the Rev^d M^r Sprout.

Att. Jⁿ^o COTTON Mod^r

The Precinct having concurred with the Chh in the Call by a general Vote, The same was preferred by the Chh & Precinct-Committee to M^r Sprout, who took the affair into Consideration & returned home to Guildford. — Sometime after He informed us by Letters, that his Church refused to dismiss him and likewise wholly declined joyning with him in Council to ask Advice & Direction in the Affair. Upon which after some months, he called a Council himself. — of which he apprised this Church — upon which the Chh Committee Oct. 9, called a Chh-Meeting to be on the next Day, to chuse some persons to represent them before said Council.

October. 10. 1757. The Chh met at the Meeting House — and chose M^r John Cotton moderator. — The Meeting was opened with Prayer. — And after Consideration the following Vote past.

Inasmuch as the Rev^d M^r James Sprout has sent for a Council [20] to meet the 3^d Tuesday of this Instant October, in order to advise him with respect to the Call this Church have given him to take the pastoral Charge over them, It was Voted by the Church (that in case the Precinct concur) To send Thomas Foster Esq^r & Dr Lazarus LeBaron to represent them before said Council and to do & act all & every Thing that they may think proper in the affair for the regular obtaining the said M^r Sprout. — And if they fail of success, then to apply to some Candidate for the ministry to come & preach among us upon Probation.

DEARLY BELOVED BRETHREN & FRIENDS!

I have frequently set down to write with an aking Heart & trembling Hands on many Occasions; but don't remember ever more than at this Time, when I am constrain'd in Point of Honour, Gratitude & Duty to write to a people for whom I have had so much Concern, who have been so peculiarly dear to me & to whom (I must confess) I had some pleasing Expectations of standing in a nearer Relation. My Heart & Affections are much with You: & if you thought my poor Labours might have been for Soul Advantage to You & your Children, & are sad at y^e Tydings which you doubtless have receiv^d before this Time, by your Dear & faithful Representatives — I may say, In all your Afflictions I am afflicted. — I firmly believe a Universal Providence — and trust I can say with some Sincerity, am inwardly pleas^d that y^e Lord God omnipotent reigneth; And acquiesce in the Disposing Will of the great Redeemer who is Head over all Things for his Church. — As to the Affair of my Removal to Plymouth, which has for Months past lain so heavy on my Mind, I feel satisfy^d that I have taken such Steps to know y^e Mind of God, as are not only approv^d by my Rev^d Fathers & Brethren, but also by my own Conscience, & therefore rest in the Council's Result as a Declaration of y^e Mind of God¹ at present. — I freely acknowledge myself unworthy of y^e Respect you have manifested for me at Plymouth — Yet since my Labours have been acceptable to You, & you have manifested such Regard for them, I as freely own, my heart is affected that I may not spend my Life among so Dear a People, in so pleasant a Place, & where I might have pleasing Prospects of extensive Usefulness. — Your dear Agents have acted here, in the most faithful, pressing genteel but yet Engaging Manner: — By their truly Christian & affecting Representation of the Circumstances of Plym^o, they gain^d² Esteem & Honor to themselves, & the most tender Love & Concern for the Church they represented; both in the Council & in the Hearts of all By-Standers. — I trust the C^{hh} at Plym^o is founded on y^e Everlasting Rock of Ages, & that the Gates of Hell shall never prevail agst it. — & Dr Brethren, Sisters & Children, my H^t is open tow^{ds} You, & let me yet tell you the Redeemer reigns, is y^e great Sheph^d of the Sheep, & has as tender Regard for them, Yea, & for the Lambs of y^e Flock as ever. — In my poor Requests at y^e Throne of Grace (before wth I trust you^{ll} often be found bowing y^e Knee in humble Supplications) Plymouth's Destitute Circumstances shall be remember^d by me till indulgent Heaven grants them one of Christ's Ascension Gifts, even a Pastor after Gods own Heart. — Let me suppose I had a few Minutes to spend³ wth You. — I w^d fill them up in Exhorting You to stand fast in y^e Faith, in the Name of y^e Lord to erect your Spiritual Banners, & watch against all false Principles & Doctrines: for the Redemeers Sake maintain the Unity of y^e Sp^t in the Bond of Peace. — On one Hand, take heed, &

It seems by y^e Providence of God my Station is fix'd for the present: & though I love my little Flock here, & hope I may do something for G^d in these Parts, yet my Heart is much with You, & I gr^{tly} rejoice that Christ hath so great an Interest in Plymouth; & hope you will have prevailing Power at y^e Throne of Grace. [22] If Providence shd give me Opportunity to visit my Friends in that Part of y^e Country, I purpose as Paul said in another Case, to Visit the Brethren at Plymouth & see how they do. — This I think I can say gives me no small Comfort, that I hope to meet many of you, in a little Time (thrō the Riches of Redeeming Love) in a better World, where there will be no sad Hearts. — May Almighty God bless you & shed abroad his Love in your Hearts by the holy Ghost, preserve you in Peace & Unity — shower down plentifully upon you converting & sanctifying Grace, & in his Own Way & Time supplie you with a Pastor after his own Heart; wth one y^t shall be constrain'd from the Love he has to y^e Great Shepherd, to feed his Sheep & tender Lambs. — I commend you all to y^e Mercy of God in Christ to y^e good Word of his Grace, w^{ch} is able to make you wise unto Etern^l Salvation thro' Faith w^{ch} is in Jesus Christ our Lord.

November. 10. 1757. The Chh met at the Meeting House — and M^r John Cotton was chosen Moderator. — After Prayers &c. The Church Voted

1. That they would hear. 4. Candidates for the ministry on Probation each for the space of 4. Sabbaths at least.

2. Voted that the Chh^o present Committee Viz Deacon Foster Deacon Bartlett & Deacon Torrey (Together with such as the Precinct shall joyn with them) should be a Committee to look out for said Candidates as speedily as may be.

Attest JOHN COTTON Mod^r

The Precinct having concurred and joyned 4. to the Church Committee, They first procured M^r Stephen Minot, who preach'd from November .20. to the middle of December. — Then M^r Livermore, who preach'd from Jany. 15. to Feby. 6. 1758. — The 3^d Candidate was M^r Stephen West, who preached his month from Feby. 26. — and continued preaching two months longer at the Request of the Precinct to May. 12.

[During which Term Viz. April. 9. The Rev^d M^r Patten of Halifax at the Request of the Chh administered the ordinance of the Lord's Supper to them — as also did the Rev^d M^r Wheelock of Lebanon some months after August. 20.]²

Lastly, M^r Locke was procured, who preach'd May. 28. June. 4. & 11. three Sabbaths — Being then obliged to leave us, because of his engagements at College. [23]

At a Meeting of the 1st Chh of Christ in Plymouth (duely warned by the Chh Committee) at the Meeting House June. 27. 1758.

1. M^r John Cotton chosen Moderator, who opened the Meeting with Prayer.

2. Voted that the Church will not at this Time proceed to the Choice of a Pastor.

3. Voted to make further Application to M^r Samuel Lock to supply the Pulpit for 4. Sabbaths as soon as he conveniently can.

4. Voted That the former Church Committee Viz. Deacon Foster, Deacon Bartlett & Deacon Torrey should lay the Votes of the Church before the Precinct for their Consideration & Concurrence.

5. Voted that M^r John Cotton should be applied to, to supply the pulpit till we hear further from M^r Lock.

Attest JOHN COTTON Mod^r.

Pursuant to this (and the Precinct's) Vote, M^r Lock was again invited — and preach'd at Plym^o Aug. 20. PM. & 27. Sept. 3. 10. & 14. on the general Thanksgiving for taking Cape-Breton.

At a Church Meeting of the first Church of Christ in Plym^o duly warned & met together in the Meeting House in the first Precinct in said Plymouth upon Friday the 15th of September 1758.

Thomas Foster Esqr was chosen Moderator. — And after Prayer to God for Direction.

1st The Question was put, whether the Chh would at this Time come to the Choice of a Pastor? It passed in the negative.

2^d Voted that application be made to M^r Lock to preach four Sabbaths more upon Probation with us.

3^d Voted that George Watson Esqr be chosen to joyn with a Com^{tee} of the Precinct to make application to M^r Lock to preach with us agreeable to said Vote.

4th Voted that this Meeting be adjourned to Monday the 25th of this month at two a'clock in the Afternoon to meet at this Place.— And said Meeting was accordingly adjourned.

THOMAS FOSTER Moderator.

M^r Lock being applied to agreeable to the Vote above, refused to preach further upon Probation with us. — And the Pulpit was chiefly supplied by M^r Cotton, till the 17th of December.

[The Candidates that preacht before M^r Leonard's Removal, from July 1756. to May 1757. were M^r Solomon Reed — M^r Joseph Jackson — M^r Smith of Casco-Bay — M^r Dana — M^r Jonas Meriam — Rev^d Josiah Cotton — M^r Thomas Brown.]¹

1758 Dec^r 17th M^r Job Whitney began to Preach amongst us and to good acceptance Till the 22^d of Jan^y 1759 upon which day the Church being duly warned met in y^e meeting house in the first Precinct Thomas Foster Esq^r was Chosen moderator & then Voted that application be made to M^r Job Whitney to Preach to us four Sabbaths more before we Come to a Choice then Voted y^t Deacon Foster Deacon Bartlett & deacon Torrey be a Com^{tee} to make application to M^r Whitney to supply y^e Pulpit agreeable to y^e Vote and then Voted that these Votes be laid before the Precinct for their Concurrence. which was accordingly done and the Precinct Concurred with y^e Church, and M^r Whitney Preached four Sabbaths Longer. Saving that upon the 21st day of Jan^y in y^e forenoon, M^r Sprout Preached and administred the Sacrament.

February 19th 1759 At a Church meeting dueley warned In order to Come to the Choice of a Pastor if the Church should Incline to it, The Church mett in the meeting house in the First Precinct. and Thomas Foster Esq^r was Chosen moderator the meeting being opened with Prayer and there being thirty four members Present

The Question was first put whether the Church were now Determined to Come to the Choice of a Pastor Voted in the affirmative and M^r Job Whitney was Chosen by a Considerable majority, and y^e Vote Draughted in The Following Form Viz after as a Church Bewailing the Frowns of Divine Providence in taking away y^e usefulness of our Dear Pastor y^e Rev^d M^r Nathaniel Leonard from us by Bodily Infirmities, For whom we have a sincere Love and shall not cease to Pray For, as Long as God shall spare his life, Lamenting also our Great Barreness and unfruitfulness under his Soul Searching ministry, who while with us Break y^e Bread of life to us & Nourished us up in the words of faith and sound Doctrine, and Doubt not but he has had many Seals of his ministry, and many that at the Great day will be his Crown & Joy, Believing this flock over which y^e holy Ghost made & Continued him So long an overseer will yet be dear to him & always be Interested in his prayers So long as God Continues him in this vale of Tears Though his Pastoral Relation to us shall be Dissolved—and after serious Consideration and earnest applications to the Great head of the Church to bestow on us a Precious [25] Ascension Gift of our ascended Lord & Divine Redeemer even a Pastor after Gods own heart; & having had Tryal of the ministerial Gifts & Pulpit Abilities of M^r Job Whitney For ten Sabbaths Past, and being in a Good measure Satisfyed with them. The Votes of y^e Church were Called for by the moderator to be brought In in writing which when sorted & Counted it appeared that M^r Job Whitney was Chosen to the Pastoral office in this Church there being 28 Votes for him one for M^r Sprout and five y^t Did not Vote

Then the Question was put whither it be the mind of this Church if the Precinct Concur their Choice that before M^r Whitney Gives his answer (in case he accept the Call) he should Give his assent & Consent to the New England Confession of faith Commonly Received in these Churches or Exhibit one to the C^{hhs} in writing to their satisfaction. It Passed in y^e Affirmative.

Then the Church Voted That Thomas Foster Joseph Bartlett and John Torrey be a Com^{tee} to Lay the Votes of the Church before the first Precinct in Plymouth at a meeting Called for that purpose, for their Concurrence

Then the Church Voted that Joseph Bartlett George Watson and Lazarus LeBaron be a Com^{tee} to Joyn with a Com^{tee} of the Precinct (if they Concur the Churches Choice) of M^r Job Whitney To the¹ Pastoral office in this Church & Congregation, To Cause the Votes of Church & Precinct in some suitable manner to be laid before M^r Whitney for his acceptance Praying that the Great head of the Church would Incline his heart to accept of y^e Call and take upon him the Charge of this Flock if it may be for y^e Glory of God & Good of this People, and that he may Come to us in the fulness of the blessing of the Gospel of Christ Jesus our Lord & prove a Rich Blessing To us and our families and to the Children that are yet to be born, that so he that Sows & they that Reap may at Last Rejoyce together Amen

TO THE FIRST CHURCH & PRECINCT IN PLYMOUTH

Dearly beloved in our Lord Jesus Christ, after Returning you my Greatfull acknowledgments, for the Civil and Christian Like Treatment you have shewn me during the time of our acquaintance, as also for your kind and generous Invitation to me to Settle with you in the work of the Gospel ministry; I would Inform you that I have taken your Invitation into Consideration, and having Seriously and maturely Considered the Same, and likewise asked advice of those whom I apprehend by their wisdom and Experience to be well Qualifyed to Give advice; as well as of him who is able to direct us in the most Difficult and Intricate¹ Cases. I beleive it to be my duty to Refuse a Compliance with your Invitation. — and Give me leave to assure you that this my Refusal does not arise from a Disregard to you or to your Interest — It is with Tender Concern I Veiw your Present unsettled Broken & Divided State. And Had I Just Grounds to beleive it was in my power by a Common Blessing of heaven to Render you a United and happy people I assure you that a will to Perform it would not be wanting, Peace & unanimity are great Blessings both in Chh & State. I would by no means willingly be accessory to the making or² Increasing Divisions and annamosities amongst any of my Christian Brethren, which I apprehend would Inevitably be the Case (without a Remarkable Interposition of Divine Providence) should I accept of your Invitation when such a number of the people are so averse to my Settling [27] That more than twenty of them have by a Letter directed to me declared that they Cannot be easy with my Settling but will do every thing that lyes in their Power (in Case their be occasion for it) to prevent it, while this is the Disposition of So Large a number of the People towards me, The Consequences of my Settling with you will in all Probability be very unhappy both for you & for me, and as these Gentlemen who are so averse to my Settling with you declare that it is not from an Dislike to my Doctrine or moral Character that they oppose my Settling, but because they have a great desire to obtain the Rev^d M^r Sprout, I apprehend it would be Intirely in Vain for me to attempt to Reconcile them to a thing to which they are So very averse, this opposition¹ maturely Considered will appear I beleive to every unprejudiced person a very sufficient Reason for my Refusing a Compliance with your Invitation

And Now my Christian freinds & Brethren, wishing that the God of all grace who brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus Christ that Great head of the Church would be Pleased to shower down upon this his Chh & people the best of Blessings Temporal & Spiritual, that he wo'd Indow you with every Christian grace & Virtue, and afford you all that wisdom from on high which is Profitable to direct you, that he would Inspire your minds with Sentiments of Love towards Each other of Brotherly kindness & Charity, and in due time bestow upon you a Pastor after his own heart,

You, I have — (I would speak it with the profoundest Sense of my Unworthiness & Insufficiency for a Work so important & arduous, & wth humble Reliance & hearty Dependance on God for his needed Spirit & Presence thrō the whole of the Work) — concluded to Accept of your Call & to settle in the Work of the Gospel-Ministry with You. — Now earnestly requesting your joint & fervent Prayers, that God would in great Mercy follow this Conclusion with his Blessing; that the future Relation, which, by the Leave of Providence, we may sustain to Each other may not be in Judgment to either of us. And that God would grant to a very weak Instrument, all that Wisdom, Grace, Knowledge, Prudence & the special Aids & assisting Influences of his holy Spirit, so absolutely necessary for the right & faithful Discharge of so important and momentous a Trust. And that my Labours among you may not be in vain in the Lord; but that we may be mutually serviceable to, & instrumental in building one another up in Holiness & Comfort thrō Faith to Salvation. and that at last, both You & I, he that sows & they that reap, may of Gods free & rich Grace thrō our Lord Jesus Christ, be admitted to rejoice together in a World of Eternal & glorious Rewards.

Lords Day PM The Pastor the Rev^d Nathanael Leonard notified the Brethren to attend in the Meeting House the next Wednesday by nine of the Clock A Chh Meeting to consider & do what shall be thought proper respecting the ordination of M^r Robbins and also the Dismission of the Pastor.

January 30. 1760. The Church met according to warning, and after the Rev^d M^r Leonard had prayed, past the following Vote

That M^r John Cotton & the 3. Deacons be a Committee to wait upon the Council now convened in this Place to desire them to proceed to the ordination and also to ask their advice respecting the Rev^d M^r Leonard's Dismission agreeable to a former Vote and also authoriz'd said Committee to sign M^r Leonard's Dismission & Recommendation in the Chh^s behalf in case the Council advise to his Dismission.

NATHANAEL LEONARD Pastor

The Deacons having sent out Letters-Missive to 21. Churches pursuant to the vote above, on the 30th of January 1760. 14. Churches convened (12. of them by their Pastors & Delegates and 2. of them by their Delegates only) Viz The 1st 3^d & 4th of Bridgwater, The first of Rochester, The first of Plimpton, The first of Middlebor^o, Abington, Hallifax, Bristol, Taunton, Raynham, Berkley, Milton, and Branford in Connecticut Colony. — They having formed into a Council, the Committee of the Chh waited on them & desired them to proceed to the ordination and also asked their advice respecting the Dismission of their former Pastor.

The Council having advised to the Dismission of the Pastor agreeable to his Request, They then proceeded to the ordination — The Rev^d M^r Wales of Raynham begun the solemnity with Prayer, M^r Robbins¹ [37] of Branford preach'd from John XXI. 15. 16. 17. and then after the Chh had renewed their Call of M^r Robbins to the work of the Gospel ministry among us, M^r Perkins of Bridgwater gave the Charge, and He & Mess^{rs} Leonard, Angier, Parker, Wales & Robbins assisted in laying on of Hands: M^r Angier gave the right Hand of Fellowship. — The Council then assisted in M^r Leonard's Dismission — And the Church voted to dismiss & recom^mend him in the Terms following.

Whereas we have for many Years enjoyed the learned, orthodox & godly Ministry of the Rev^d M^r Nathanael Leonard, and he thro' bodily Indisposition being incapacitated from further carrying on said Work, and he now desiring a Dismission from his Pastoral Relation to us, and we having the Advice of an ecclesiastical Council now convened in this Place, to grant his Request; we hereby signify our Compliance, and accordingly dismiss him from his Pastorate over us. — At the same Time acknowledging it as a great Favour of Heaven, that we have enjoyed his Labours So long. Viz. For near three & thirty Years: In this Time we have found him a diligent, zealous, faithful Minister of Jesus Christ, and have great Reason to be humbled before GOD for our own Unfruitfulness, and for GOD's correcting Rod in removing him from us. — And we do freely & heartily recommend him to the work of the Ministry, if GOD should restore his Health; and also to the Communion of the Churches, Particularly to the Coⁿunction of the first Church of Christ in Norton. — We desire still an Interest in his Prayers, wishing him & his Family all Blessings, temporal, spiritual & eternal.

[This was afterwards signed by John Cotton, Thomas Foster & John Torrey in the name & behalf of the Chh, Deacon Bartlett one of the Committee chosen for this Service being absent.]¹

The Dismission being compleated, M^r Parker of Plimpton made the concluding Prayer. — And after singing a Psalm suitable to the occasion, The Rev^d M^r Chandler Robbins (our Pastor) gave the Blessing. — Whom, we humbly hope, GOD will make a rich & lasting Blessing to us & ours.

After M^r Leonard's Decease, the following account was given of him in the public Prints. —

June .11. 1761. Dyed the Rev^d M^r Nathanael Leonard at Norton in the 62^d year of his Age, and was decently interr'd on Saturday the 13th, His Funeral being attended by a considerable Concourse of People from that & other Towns in Token of Respect & Regard. — He was settled in the work of the ministry in Plymouth July .29.1724. and continued labouring in word & Doctrine among them, till he was taken off from his work by his [38] growing Infirmities — He was Subject from his Youth to an hereditary Ptisick & Head-Ache, which many Times prevented his publick Labours — But these & other Disorders were all at last Swallowed up in a paryltic Distemper, which Seized him as he was preaching on the Sabbath November .9. 1755. — After this he desisted from his work for some months, his Flock providing him an Assistant: But in the Spring of the Year 1756 being Somewhat recruited, he preached again, and followed it constantly till the 22^d of July — But his Infirmities of Body increasing, he was again obliged to desist. — And after he had rested some months, not seeing any Prospect of recovering his Health and so of discharging his work, He tho't it best to ask a Dismission, which his Flock with Regret & Concern consented to — And then removing with his Family to Norton his native Place & where his estate lay, he remaind in a weak & declining Condition (tho' not confined to his House) to the Day of his Death; which happened very suddenly — A repeated Shock ('t is tho't) of his former Distemper carried him out of the world in a moment, after he made some little Complaints of a Pain in his Stomach and a Numbness in one of his Arms. — But we have the utmost Reason to think, that Death was no surprize to him. — He at times Seemed to long for its Approch — and no doubt was habitually ready for the awful summons. — He was a Man of considerable natural Abilities (as well as of acquired Accomplishments,) of a clear Head, Solid judgment, penetrating Tho't, Excelling in Conference and in giving Council & Advice in difficult Cases. — He had made great Improvements in Philosophy, but especially Divinity — was a clear & sound Gospel Preacher, making Christ his Alpha & Omega in his preaching — He Seemed to be carried above all his natural Infirmities in the late Time of remarkable Awakenings, and was in Labours more abundant; and GOD was pleased to bless him with considerable success. — He was of a mild pleasant affable Disposition, prudent, hospitable, generous & liberal to the Poor — A loving Husband, a tender Parent, a kind & obliging Friend, A faithful Reprover even to those that were dear to him when he apprehended there was occasion for it, And ever courageous & bold in the Cause of his Master & in promoting the Interest of vital Piety. — In Short, He excelled in the graces and Duties of the christian Life: — And now he is no more, we that survive have Reason to arise & call him blessed: — For blessed are the Dead that dye in the Lord &c. Rev.XIV.13.¹ [39]²

CHANDLER ROBBINS

June 12.1763. Lords Day — I read to the C^{hh} in Presence of the Congregation, a Letter missive from the 1st Chh in Woodstock in Connecticutt, desiring the Assistance of this Chh by their Pastor & Delegates, at the Ordination of M^r Abiel Leonard to y^e pastoral Charge & Office over them, on the ⁴ 23^d of instant June, y^e Day fix^d upon for his Separation to that Office. After I had communicated the Letter to them, I signify^d to the ⁵ C^{hh} that as I have but just come off from a long Journey to Connecticutt, I could not attend myself — however propos^d to them whither they would vote to send Delegates to attend the Council — Voted in the Negative — The Reason of which was (as the C^{hh} declar^d after) because the Pastor could not go.

1764. March 25th I this Day propounded to y^e C^{hh} the Desire of Lydia Cornish of Ponds to join in full Communⁿ wth this Ch^h — she being sick & unable to come to the public Worship.

April 1. Lords Day — Read before the Church & Congregation the Relation & Confessⁿ of Lydia Cornish — then stay^d the Church to know their minds with Regard to admitting her to full Communion, out of the ordinary Method, she being confin^d to her House by sickness & tis not probable will ever be able to go abroad again. The Church upon the whole thot it best, as it was a singular Case, to have a Ch^h Meeting on a Week Day on Purpose to consid^r further & determine upon it — Accordingly I notify^d the Brethren to meet on Monday the 9th Day of this Month at 3 o'Clock P.M in the Meeting House. The Chh voted at this Time to accept her Confession & restore her to Charity.

April 9th The Church met accordingly y^e Meeting open^d with Prayer & after long Debate & Consultation as there were but few at the Meeting & they not fully prepar^d to act upon the Affair, It was concluded to refer it to Thursday next viz, The Fast Day, & so adjourn^d with^t acting upon y^e Case.

April 12th Thursday. I Stay^d the Church after public Exercise, & desired them to consid^r & determine upon the Case above mentioned — It was urged, that, such a Method of admitting Members to full Communion, in a Private house, that were confined by Sickness, Old Age or other Infirmities, would be going out of y^e Practice this Church as well as others have always been in, & it was apprehended, wou^d be of dangerous Tendency on many Accounts — & therefore, altho they have Charity for the afores^d Person, & are dispos^d to deal in all possible Tenderness wth her, yet they could not think it best to deviate from the standing & ordinary Method of recieving Persons to full Communion, which they must do shd they grant the Request. Upon the whole therfore the Chh came to the following Vote — viz Verte [40] Church Votes & Transactions¹

Voted. — "That the Church are so far satisfyed, that they are willing to recieve the aforesumption^d Person Lydia Cornish to their Communion, in Case God shall in his Providence, restore her so that she is able to come to his House & renew her baptismal Covenant in the Presence of all the People. But that at present, they do not see Light to proceed in the Manner that has been proposed." So y^e Chh¹ was dismiss^d

July. 9th 1764. At a Meeting of the C^{hh} (duly notify^d) at y^e Request of a Number of the Brethren, to confer together on some Matters relative to Singing in public Worship, & also to consid^r the Cases of some of the C^{hh} who withdraw from our Communion without giving the Reasons of it — The Brethren met generally, & after some considerable Conference, came to y^e following Votes.

1. Voted that our Brother John May be desir^d to set the Tune in Concert in order for the better, more regular & Decent Carrying on of that heavenly part of y^e Worship of God, viz Singing in the House of God.

2. Voted that y^e Deacons Foster, Bartlett & Torrey be a Comittee of this C^{hh} to go & Enquire of the Persons refer^d to above, into the Reasons of their Withdrawning from our Comunion, & make Report to the Church. — The Meeting was open^d & concluded with Prayer, singing a Psm & y^e Blessing.

Nov^r — I stay^d the Brethren after public Worship on Lords Day, & read to them a Letter I reciev^d from our Sister Esther Jackson, desiring the Priviledge of Baptism for an Orphan Child of abt 2 Years old, under her Care. Some Talk was had upon it, & 'twas thot best to defer it for further Consideration. After some Time, of a few Weeks, Stay^d & convers^d further upon it; But as it was a New Thing in many Respects, many were not sufficiently satisfy^d to grant her Request, And upon the whole, it was determin^d not to proceed any further in the Affair for the present.

1765. Feb^r 28. After public Lecture stay^d the Brethren, & inform^d them of the Desire of John Cornish, that his Children, by his Wife Lydia Cornish, deceas^d, (whose Case is recorded in the foregoing Page) might be admitted to be baptiz^d upon her Right, & considering what she had done before her Death, & also w^t the C^{hh} had acted upon it, The Church now

Voted That they think it proper, and are therefore willing that her Children be admitted to Baptism, on y^e Right of their dec^d Mother. [41] 1767 Church Votes & Transactions

Lords Day. April 19. 1767. Read to y^e C^{hh} a Letter Missive from the C^{hh} of Christ in Hallifax desiring the Presence And Assistance of this Ch^h on the 29th Instant, with their Pastor & Delegate or Delegates, to form, with several other Chh's, into an Ecclesiastical Council for the Ordination of M^r Ephraim Briggs of Norton to y^e pastoral Office over them: Whereon the Chh Voted

1. That they would comply with the Desire of the Chh in Hallifax mentioned in their Letter to this Chh.

2. That our Brethren John Cotton Esq^r & Co^l George Watson attend with the Pastor, as Delegates from this Chh on y^e Occasion aforement^d.

April 29. The Pastor with the aforementioned Delegates attended the Ordination this Day, when, after M^r Briggs had given answer to some Questions propos^d & exhibited a full & satisfactory Confession of his Faith in writing The Council, consisting of seven Chhs proceeded to his Ordination — Rev^d Mes^s Conant made the first Prayer, Porter preached, Angier gave the Charge, Green pray^d after y^e Charge & Shaw the Right Hand of Fellowship — the whole was conducted with Decency & Order.

May he long continue, with that Chh & People, a faithful & successful Minister!

Nov^r 8th Seth Barnes, a Member of this Chh, tho' now liv^g in Nova Scotia made a public Confession of the Sin of Fornication, & the Chh voted to restore him to Charity & recieve him to their Communion, as Providence may give him Opportunity.

1768. Jan^ry 31. Read to y^e Chh & Congregation a Memorial from the Rev^d M^r Silas Brett of Freetown setting forth his needy & distress^d State with Regard to Temporals, praying for Charity &c Wherupon Feby 7th viz y^e next Lords Day was collected for him by free Contribution of y^e Ch^h & Congregatⁿ y^e Sum of £63.10. O Ten^r which was sent him by y^e hand of M^r Elkanah Watson, who bro't back a Receipt of M^r Brett for the above Sum.

July 31. 1768. Read to y^e Chh a Letter missive from y^e 2^d Chh in Rochester (of which y^e Rev^d M^r Ivory Hovey is Pastor) desireing the Presence & Assistance of this Chh by y^r Elder & Delegate or Delegates, at a mutual Council, to meet on Tuesday y^e 23^d of Augst next, to give Advice under their present broken, divided Circumstances, by Reason of some Difficulties & Contentions that have unhappily subsisted for some time among them, & between the Pastor & a Number of y^e Ch^h & Society — After which y^e Ch^h Voted

1. That they are willing to comply with their Desire — & Voted
2. That Deacon Thomas Foster & Deacⁿ John Torrey be the Delegates to ¹ attend the Pastor at y^e s^d Council, as Representatives of the Church. [42] 1768 Transactions of the Ch^h

Aug^t 23^d This Chh with 3 others viz. y^e 3^d in Bridgwater — 1st in Middleborō & the Chh in Sandwich met in y^e 2^d Parish in Rochester to hear, & consider & advise on y^e aforementioned Difficulties between y^e Rev^d M^r Hovey & his People — and after spending the Week upon it, came to a Result on ye 27th, in which y^e Council advis^d to mutual Forgiveness & Forbearance, & that y^e Complaints exhibited against M^r Hovey are not of so great weight in their Opinion as that y^e Pastoral Relation between him & his pp^l ought to be dissolved, &c Read the Result to this Chh on y^e Sabbath after viz Aug^t 28. — May the Lord be their Healer of Breaches, & restore Peace & Love to y^t unhappy Chh & Pp^l.

1769. Mar.12. Stay^d y^e Chh, being Lords Day, Evening, & acquainted them with y^e renewed Request of our Sister Esther Jackson to have the orphan Child under her Care admitted to Baptism on her Right, as ment^d in Nov^r—1764. And after a little Conference upon it, the Chh unanimously Voted to grant her Request, — & the ^{Voted} Child was accordingly baptiz^d y^e next Lords Day.

1769 Oct^r 15th Stay^d y^e Brethren of y^e Chh after ye Blessing was given, at y^e Desire of our Sister Lydia Samson (once Barns) to lay her Case before them, being many Years ago suspended from Communion for y^e Suppos^d Marrying Jonathan Samson, whose ² first Wife was her Niece — Said a few Things on it, but refer^d y^e full & further Consideration of it to Wednesday after next — viz y^e 25th of this Month — And Accordingly notify^d y^e Chh to meet at this Place on s^d Wednesday at 3 Clock P M.

October 25th This was y^e Day appointed for y^e Chh to meet & consider further the Case of our Sister Lydia Samson alias Barnes, but there were so few of the Brethren who met, that, partly on that Account, but principally because twas judged best for her sake that the Affair should be entirely drop'd, as y^e Consequence might otherwise be greatly to her Prejudice & Hurt, it appearing also that the Members of y^e Chh were, the greater Part of them, by no means satisfy^d of y^e Lawfulness of such a Marriage, but of the contrary Opinion, The Affair was accordingly drop^d without so much as the Formallity of a Chh Meeting.

Nov^r 26th Flora, a Member of this Chh, sometime since y^e Negro Servant of M^r John Bartlett, now living at Middlborough, having for many Years absented herself from the Communion, being notoriously guilty of scandalous Drunkenness, Profaness, & Disobedience, made a public Confession of these Sins, & the Chh thereupon voted to restore her to their Christian Charity & Communion.

Nov^r 30th Stay^d y^e Chh after Lecture, & propos^d to them to choose one or more Persons (since our dear Brother John May is taken from us by death who was our former Chorister) to lead in singing in the [43¹] publick Worship. & after some Conference upon it, the Chh chose four Persons, viz our Brethren William Crombie, Deacon Torrey, Amaziah Churchill & Robert Bartlett, to be mutually assisting in that Business as they shall choose & Occasion call for.

1770 Lords Day Janu^{ry} 28. Notify^d the Brethren of the C^{hh} to meet on Thursday next, immediately after the Lecture, to consider & determine the Affair of changing the Version of y^e Psalms sung in publik Worship, as we have had D^r Watts's & Tate & Brady's upon Trial for 3 Years past, once a Day — & many were desirous of coming to a Determination, it being thot the Church should take y^e Lead in such an Affair.

Feb^r 1st After Lecture the Church accordingly stay^d, but it being an extreme cold Day, it was moved that the Consideration of y^e affair of y^e Version of y^e Psalms should be postponed to a more convenient & comfortable Season. So y^e Matter rested, without adjourning to any particular Day.

Feb^r 11th Being desired, I notify^d the Brethren of y^e Chh to meet on Tuesday next at y^e Meeting house in order to conclude upon Something relative to y^e Version of y^e Psalms.

Feb^r 13th The Brethren met, in Number 23. (it being a very rainy Day) and after some considerable Discourse upon the Affair — The Question was put seperately to Each Member, whither they were² for introducing the Old Version for any other — & it appear'd that twelve of y^e Brethren were for continuing y^e Old Version & Eleven for Tate & Brady. The Pastor afterwards signify'd his Choice for Tate & Brady. So that there being a Tie, the Matter remained yet undetermin'd. It was manifest, in the Course of y^e Conversation, that several of y^e Brethren rather prefer^d D' Watts's, but as this was more particularly obnoxious to some others of y^e Brethren, they were willing to condescend to vote for Tate & Brady, that is to be understood, with the Hymns annexed to it, as we have use^d it in Time past.

After this, it appearing that a respectable Number of y^e Church were not easy with continuing y^e Old Version, It was moved, that altho' that Version be not laid aside, yet that a Vote be called whither Tate & Brady, with y^e Hymns, should be sung in publick, wholly, (with y^e Approbation of the Congregation) for Six Months to come, in order that we might be [44¹] be more thoroughly & universally acquainted with it, & the Vote being call^d, it passed in the Affirmative unanimously

The Meeting was carry^d on with a very agreeable Unity & a Condescending Spirit — & was both begun & concluded with Prayer — & then y^e Blessing given.

April 8th Read a Letter missive from the 2^d Chh in this Town, desireing the presence and Assistance of this Chh by their Pastor & Delegates to convene with 6 other Chh's on the 18th of this Month, for the Instalment of y^e Rev^d M^r Ivory Hovey over the Chh & Congregation in y^e 2^d Precinct in this Town. The Church voted a Compliance with the Request, & chose Deacon Bartlett & Doct^r Le Baron to go as Delegates on the Occasion.

April 18. The Pastor, with y^e Delegates chosen, attended with y^e other several Chhs upon y^e Instalment, & y^e Rev^d M^r Hovey was peaceably install^d over y^e 2^d Chh in this Town — whom we pray God would make a rich & Lasting Blessing to y^m & their Children.

Augst 12th Lords Day — The Chh, at the Request of M^{rs} Trenholm (Wife of M^r William Trenholm) a regular Member of the Church of England, who has lived in this Town near a twelvemonth & is a Person of sober Life & Conversation, Voted

That whereas M^{rs} Trenholm was admitted to occasional Communion with this Chh y^e last Lords Day at y^e Sacrament of y^e Lords Supper, & now desires Baptism for her Infant Child, that her Request be granted, & that she may hereafter be admitted to occasional Communion with us in special Ordinances. — Voted Unanimously.

Memo

This Vote was passed professedly with a View that it may seen by after Generations, that this Chh do not renounce, but are very willing to hold Communion with regular Members of y^e Chh of England.

Lords Day Dec^r 16. At Evening Notify^d y^e Brethren of the Church to meet in the meeting house next Wednesday little after 2 Clock P M, to consider some Matters of Import^{ee} then to be laid before them, relative, in general to Chh Discipline; I had been preaching a Number of Sermons on y^e Subject before — from 2 Tim.2.19. “Let y^m y^t name y^e name of Christ depart &c” — wherein I endeavour^d among sundry other Things more particularly to show that y^e Practice of admitt^g Persons to own y^r baptismal Covenant & so enjoy^g Baptism for y^r Children, without coming into full Communion, which this Church have been [45¹] in for about 40 Years past, (introduced by M^r Leonard) is not a Practice warranted by Scripture & therefore ought not, as I apprehend, to be persisted in.

Dec^r 19th The Church met accordingly, but it not being a very full Meeting, & several of y^e Brethren manifesting a Desire to have the several Articles read, which they were to consider of, & then to have some time to think of 'em, before we come to a Determination on them, being Matters of great Import^{ee}, the Pastor readily consented to y^e Motion — & accordingly read y^e several Articles, & then adjourn^d y^e Meet^g, to no particular Day, but y^e Day to be mention^a hereafter in public by y^e Pastor.

The Meeting was began & concluded with Pray^r & a Bless^g.

The Articles propos^d to y^e Chh for their Consideration, were y^e following

1. To consider y^e Cases of two scandalous Members, viz Patience Burgiss & Lydia Phillips — guilty of Fornication, the first being a Widow & yet having a Child of late — the other having a Child also, her Husband being a long time absent, if not dead.

2. To consid^r y^e Cases of several other Members, walking disorderly in absenting y^mselves for a long time from Communion, & some of them reported to be otherways disorderly.

3. Also y^e Case of Jane Tinkham (who is an occassional Communicant, being a Member of Middleb^o Chh — but lives in this Town), whither her Conduct be not such, from universal Report, as to deserve, that she be suspended from occassional Communion.

4. Whither y^e Chh will consider & determine any Thing relating to y^e Children of y^e Chh who have or may fall into Scandal.

5. Whither it be the Opinion of this Chh, that a Person who is the Head of a Family, living in y^e Neglect of Family Prayer, be not guilty of a Censureable Evil.

6. Whither it be the Opinion of this Chh that the half way Practice of owning or entering into Covenant, which has of late years, been adopted by this Chh, be a scriptural Method — or a practice warranted by s^d Word of God, & so to be persisted in.

7. Whither it be not y^e Opinion of this Chh, that Members of Chhs moving into this Town & becoming Inhabitants, & desireing & expect^s Communion with us in special Ordinances, should, as soon as may be, remove their special Relation from y^e Chh they came from, to this, & incorporate with us. & so of y^e Members of this, removing to other Chhs &c

8. Whither the Chh will not come to a Resolution & solemnly agree & covenant with each other, to be hereafter more particularly careful in watching over one another according to ye Rules of y^e Gospel & our own express Covenant Engagements — & this from a Sense of our Shameful & Sinful Neglect hereof in times past.

9. Settle the Version of y^e Psalms to be us^d in publick Worship, which has for sometime past been under Consideration. [46] 1771 Records of Chh Transactions.

Jan^{ry} 6th Lords Day Evening — The Pastor notify^d y^e Brethren to meet in y^e Meetinghouse next Tuesday, to consider further & determine those Things that were laid before them y^e last Chh Meeting, [see y^e preced^s Page.] ¹ to meet at 2 Clock in y^e Afternoon.

Tuesday Jan^y 8. The Church met accordingly — & after Prayer, the Pastor read over y^e several Articles again, y^t are propos^d for their Consideration And they concluded to go upon y^e 9th Article in y^e foregoing Page first. And after some little Conversation, (as it is an Affair that has before sundry times been under our Consideration), came to y^e following Votes.

1. Voted that Tate & Brady's Version of y^e Psalms, be hereafter sung in y^e public Worship, in y^e Room of y^e Old New England¹ Version, provided y^e Congregation consent to it.

2. Voted that the Hymns also that are annexed to this Version (whereof there are now a hundred & three) chiefly of D' Watt's Collection, be made use of likewise with the Psalms, promiscuously.

3. Voted, with Respect to y^e 1st Article in y^e preceeding Page, That y^e Pastor be desired to discourse with or write to Patience Burgiss & Lydia Phillips & let them know that this Chh expect they forthwith make their Peace with God & the Chh by a humble, penitent Confession of their Sin, or that y^e Chh will, otherwise, proceed to admonish them.

4. Voted that the 3 Deacons, Foster, Bartlett & Torrey, be desired to go & talk with those Members (refer^d to in y^e 2^d Article) who have absented themselves from Communion for some time, or otherwise walked disorderly, & endeav^r to bring them to a Sense both of their Sin & Duty.

5. Voted — respecting Article 3^d, that the Pastor be desired to discourse wth s^d Jane Tinkham, & inform her that her Conduct has been such, on many accounts & her Behavior so contrary to y^e Gospel, that it has caused such Grief & Offence to several of this Chh, as that they cannot comfortably set down with her at y^e holy Ordinance of y^e Lords Supper, & therefore she is desired by y^e Chh to withdraw from attend^r y^t Ordinance untill she gives Christian Satisfaction, or there appears an evident Reformation in her.

As to the 4th Article, concerning the Children of y^e Church falling into Scandal, no Vote passed at this Time relative to y^e Matter, tho' it seem^d to be y^e Opinion of y^e Chh that somthing ought to be done upon it. We all, at y^e same time acknowledge that we have been very criminally negligent & slack in the Matter of Chh Discipline. And yet alas, how strangely backward, (as a Chh) to actual & immediate reformation! The Lord give us all a heart to repent & reform in this Thing particularly, which I believe, is one awful provoking Cause of the mellancholly Withdraw of y^e Spirit & comforting presence of Christ!

As to the 5th Article — no Vote pass^d — but it seem^d clearly y^e Opinion of y^e Chh that a person, i.e. Head of a Family living in the

 [47] Records of Chh Transactions

As to the 7th Article — The Chh were not agreed as to the Expediency & Duty of immediately insisting upon Members getting proper Dismissions & Recommendations, when they remove from other Churches to this, & from this Church to others. — Thô N.B. There is such a Vote upon Record, In M' Little's Day — or y^e beginning of M' Leonards, which has never been repealed — & no Vote passed on y^e Affair at this Time

As to y^e 8th Article — Thô no Vote passed, Yet it seem^d to be generally agreed & consented to, that we will for y^e future, be more watchful over one another, & endeavour to be more careful & faithful to God & one another, particularly relating to Chh Discipline — & act more agreeable to our solemn Covenant & Engagements.

The 6th Article, being of great Importance, was left for Consideration at another Meeting — began & concluded with Prayer — Adjournd to Tuesday next.

Tuesday, Jan^{ry} 15th. The Chh met, and after Prayer to God, moved the Chh, by reason of y^e Cold, to remove into y^e School house — which being done, we entered upon y^e Consideration of y^e 6th Article in the 45th page,¹ — A long Conference was had upon it — On y^e one Side it was urged, that Children born of Visible Believers & baptiz^d in Infancy were properly & truly Members of y^e Visible Chh & therefore might claim the Priviledges of Chh members, when they arriv^d at adult Age, & so by owning the Cov^t we are not to understand their qualifying themselves hereby for y^e Priviledges of y^e Covenant — they had a right to these before — but that tis needful they should acknowledge w^t their Parents did for them — &c &c

On the other hand it was urg^d, That Baptism & the Lords Supper are both Seals of One Covenant, viz, y^e Covenant of Grace — And that consequently they that had a right to one Seal had a right also to y^e other — & y^t we had no right from y^e Word of God to make a Distinction betwⁿ y^e 2 Seals, as if one was more holy than y^e other — that it would be of dangerous Tendency to put asunder what God hath joind together.

It was also observed, that no Person can with Safety or a good Conscience say what is said in y^e form used by them y^t own y^e Cov- nant, while at the same Time he knows himself unconverted, or has at least reason to think that he does not in his Heart avouch & choose y^e Lord for his God & Christ for his Savior — That therefore the Continuing of this Practice in y^e Church, must have a manifest Tendency to encourage Persons in solemn Dissimulation with y^e Almighty — which must be a very great Sin. — On y^e other hand again it was urged that as by their Baptism they were initiated into y^e Chh & so became Members, No one had a Right to deny or refuse them y^e Priviledges of Chh Members, & so Baptism for y^r Children.

[48] 1771 Records of Chh Transactions

To this it was answer^d That Baptism in Infancy does not make Persons so Members as to entitle them to y^e Special Ordinances & Priv^s

1. of y^e Covenant of Grace — because 1. Infants are baptiz^d not on their own but their Parents Right — Therefore before they are admitted to special Priviledges for themselves, it is necessary & reasonable that something should appear to y^e Chh in them, that should be y^e Ground of their being judg^d qualifyd for y^e Sacraments. & this must be their open Profession of Faith & Repentance — For 2^{dly}

2. In order to enjoy the Priviledges of the Covenant of Grace, there must be a Compliance with the Terms or Conditions of y^e Covenant. but saving Faith alone is y^e Condition of y^e Cov^t of Grace — therefore there must be a Profession or Visibility of this Faith in persons in order to their being admitted to y^e visible Seals & priviledges of the Covenant — For that which is the Condition of any Covenant, is the Condition of all the Priviledges of y^t Coven^t.

Now if we allow Persons to own the Coven^t & have Baptism for their Children who dont so much as look upon themselves regenerate or to have true Faith, we do then either give up y^e Covenant of Grace, as to its requiring saving Grace, & say y^t a Person may comply with it, & yet remain in Unbelief — Or else, that Baptism is not a Seal of y^e Covenant of Grace, Or else that ¹ Persons may lawfully be admitted to y^e special Priviledges of Gods Covenant while they remain obstinate Enemies to God, to his Covenant, to Jesus Christ & Enemies to all Holiness, w^{ch} is y^e true Charact^r of all y^e unregenerate. All which must be absurd, unscriptural & irrational, & even shocking to admit.

On y^e whole, the Pastor express^d his Mind freely that from the most deliberate & serious Consideration, Reading & Prayer, he was fully of y^e Opinion, that the Method was no where warranted by Scripture — that not one Text in y^e whole Bible could be produced to justify it, & therefore that he could not in Conscience persist in y^e Practice of admitt^a Persons to own¹ y^e Covenant & come² to one Ordinance & not y^e other. which, as it has been practic^d here & in other Places of late years, he tho't did appear in many to be little else besides a Formality to get their Children baptiz^d — without any proper Sense of y^e awful Import of Covenanting with God.

And as it was ask^d why the Pastor had gone on till now contentedly in the Practice since his Settlement? He acknowledged y^t it had been for some time a matter of Doubt with him — but y^t of late he has endeavored [49³] more critically & carefully to examine y^e Word of God & other Books on y^e Subject, reading many Tracts wrote on both Sides, the Result of all which was a full Conviction in his own mind that the Customary practice afores^d is not grounded on Scripture Warrant.

On the other hand, tho' there were a Number of y^e Chh of y^e same Opinion with y^e Pastor, Yet the major Part continued to be of y^e Opinion that y^e Old Practice, as tis call^d was right — (Which by y^e Way was a Practice never known in this Chh till y^e Days of my immediate Venerable Predecessor; & then not till after many Years Consideration & Trial.)

Thus upon the whole, the Chh came to no Vote upon the Affair — but dismiss^d the Matter for y^e present, just in y^e Circumstances above recited. Mention was made, indeed of resuming the Consideration of it again sometime hence — but no Time specified.

Oh that y^e alwise & infinitely merciful Father of Lights, would lead & direct this Chh in y^e Way that is pleasing to him, y^e way of Truth, peace & holiness, for his dear Son's Sake!

Thus this Affair remains at this Time.

After this at y^e same Meeting, the Chh — proceeded & Voted —

1772 Jan^y 5th Lords Day Evening Read to y^e Church & Congregation a Letter Missive from the 2^d Church of Christ in Rochester, to this Church, desireing their Presence & Assistance at y^e proposed Ordination of M' Lemuel Le Baron to y^e pastoral Office over them on y^e 29th Instant — Whereupon the Church Voted 1

Vote 1. That they were willing to grant y^e Request in s^d Letter Missive,

2. That our Brethren Doct' Lazarus L. Baron & Theophilus Cotton should be Delegates from this Chh to accompany the Pastor on that Occasion, God willing.

Jan^y 29th The pastor & aforemention^d Delegates attended at the s^d Ordination this Day, in Council with 10 other Chhs, with their pastors. The Solemnity was began with prayer by y^e Rev^d M^r Roland Thacher, of Warham — Then the Pastor of this Chh preached from 2 Tim.2.4. “That he may please him who hath chosen him to be a Soldier”³ — The Rev^d M^r Hovey of this Town pray^d before y^e Charge — Rev^d M^r Bacon of ye 3^d Chh in this town gave y^e Charge — Rev^d M^r West of Rochester gave y^e Right hand of fellowship, & Rev^d M^r Robbins of Norfolk in Connecticut made y^e concluding Prayer. The whole attended with great Decency & Solemnity. May God make y^e ordained, a rich & lasting Bless^s to them & theirs, & a pastor accord^g to his own heart!

Feb^r 16th Lords Day Evening, Notify^d the Brethren of y^e Chh, (at y^e special Desire of the 2 Deacons F & T.) to meet in the Meeting-house on Tuesday next at 2 Clock in the Afternoon, in order to consider some Matters of Importance, more particularly relating to the Feb^r 17. Agreeable to a Vote of y^e Church, in Page 49.² I this Day sent a Citation to our Brethren Nath^u & Silas Morton to appear at y^e Chh Meeting to be held on y^e Morrow in the Meeting-house.

Feb^{ry} 18th The Church met according to y^e Notification, when, after Prayer to God for his presence & Direction in y^e important affair before us, there was a free Conference held relating to the Subject of Baptism, owning y^f Covenant &c as in Jan^y 1771. Great Numbers of the Congregation & others were present. Finally y^e Church (who were mostly present, ie, y^e males) came to no Conclusion, it appearing that some were for, others against y^e practice as before — So the Meeting was adjourned by Desire to y^e last Tuesday in March next, at 2 Clock P M which will be y^e 31st Day. — The Meeting was Concluded with Prayer & y^e Blessing.

March 31st Tuesday PM — The Chh met according to Adjournment — and after prayer, enter^d upon y^e Consideration of the Affair relative to y^e owning Covenant &c several Things were read 2 Tracts drawn up by our Brother John Cotton³ & one by the Pastor, on different Sides the Question in debate. & unhappily, there was more warmth in the debate at this than at y^e former meeting — but nothing finally settled. — it lasted till in y^e Evening — when some were for dissolving y^e Meeting, others for adjourning — finally, there was just a majority for adjourning — most of y^e members were withdrawn by reason of Night & Cold — Accordingly the meeting was adjourned to y^e last Tuesday in June next. The Meeting was then concluded with Prayer & y^e Blessing.

Oh y^t God of his infinite Mercy would compassionate this Chh under its present divided State, & graciously lead & direct to such Measures & Conclusions as shall be most for his Glory & y^e real Interest & Welfare of this dear Chh & People — for Jesus Christs Sake, Amen.

April 28th Tuesday — The Ordination Council of 6 Churches having met at Middleboro first Precinct, last Evening, they Embodied, & having read & heard from the Committees of y^e Chh & Precinct of Yarmouth in Nova Scotia, Matters relative to their calling M^r Jonathan Scott to the Work of y^e Ministry & Pastoral Office among them, & M^r Scott exhibiting a Confession of his Faith to the great Satisfaction of all y^e Council, & being examin'd as to his Qualifications for the Ministry, the Council Voted they were ready & willing to assist in setting him apart by Ordination to that office & work. Accordingly this Day he was solemnly, in y^e Presence of a numerous & serious assembly of People of this & neighboring towns ordained to the pastoral Charge of y^e Chh & people in Yarmouth Nova Scotia. The Rev^d M^r Reed began with Prayer. Rev^d M^r Porter preached from Acts 17.2.3.4. — Rev^d M^r Shaw pray^d & gave the Charge — The Pastor of this Church, prayed after the Charge, & Rev^d M^r Conant the Right hand of fellowship. June 30th Tuesday — PM. The Chh met according to an Adjournment, on the affair of y^e Subjects of Baptism. After Prayer, a Paper was handed to the Pastor, to be read to y^e Church — but before it was¹ read, Deacon Foster rose & spoke for a considerable time, the purport of which was, that every one should have free & full liberty to speak further on the affair &c &c After which the afores^d Paper was read, which, as it was afterwards voted, y^e whole of it, I shall here record — "Twas as follows. — Viz —

We the Subscribers Brethren of the first Chh of Christ in Plimouth, taking into our serious Consideration, the unhappy Difficulties, subsisting in said Church, relative to the Subjects of Baptism, and being of opinion, that the most effectual Method to restore Peace & Harmony to said Church, would be to drop the affair for the Present, We would therefore, hereby signify our earnest Desire, that the Chh Meeting,

When the above Paper was read, with the Names of the Brethren who signed it, (which were by far the greater Part of the Male Members then in Town) a Motion was made & seconded, that it might be put to vote — But ³ opposition was made to it by 2 or 3 of the Brethren — Mr John Cotton having drawn up something, which he intended to communicate at this Meeting — It was insisted by them that he should have Liberty to read it — &c &c On the other hand, the Brethren reply'd that he & others had had opportunities again & again, at former Meetings to speak & read abundantly, & they thôt sufficiently on the Subject — & they apprehended the Chh in general were weary of Dispute & Controversy about it, & thôt the Continuance of these Meetings & further Debates, only tended to encrease Animosities & Difficulties among us, & would in the Issue be dishonouring to God, & Religion, & hurtful to our Souls best Interest &c & therefore urged that the Vote be put.

After considerable Debate, (attended with too much warmth, for which we have cause to be humbled before God) the following Question was put, by Desire — viz — Whither the Chh incline to hear ^{questⁿ} any thing further at this time, on y^e affair under consideration, re-

The Brethren afores^d being very uneasy at the Determination of the Chh, & saying many Things upon it, of the Unreasonableness of not being allowed to say all they had to offer upon such an important Affair, &c &c It was answered, by the Brethren on the other hand, that it would only open a Door for a Reply to it — & that for another Reply — & so would be endless, & only tend to keep the Chh & Town involv^d in miserable Dissention & Division.

It was then observed by one of the Brethren, that he doubted in his mind, whither there was a majority of hands held up in the foregoing Vote — & moved that the Vote might be call^d again, & that the Brethren might divide into two Bodies, to determine with more Exactness, upon y^e Question.

Vote 2^d

Accordingly the Question was put a 2^d Time, & a Division was made agreeably to their Desire — & it pass^d again in y^e Negative.

The Brethren on the other Side being still vehemently engag^d against¹ the Vote, & insisting on M^r Cotton's Piece being read, as they said it contain^d somthing new, & that after he had read it, then they would be willing the Chh sho^d pass the above Vote, if they saw fit, — The Chh, for peace Sake & in Condescension to y^e importunity of the former 3 Brethren

Voted to Reconsider the former Vote, & gave Liberty that it should be read. — Accordingly M^r Cotton read a long Piece on the Subject aforesaid — The former Part of which attempted to prove that Infants baptized in Infancy, did retain their Membership, & not cease to be Members, when they grew up — contrary, as he said, to the Opinion of y^e Pastor; Tho' the Truth is, he misapprehended the Pastor egregiously — The Pastor never deny^d nor thôt of denying they were Members in any Sense, when grown up — but deny^d & still denies that that they are Members in the full & compleat Sense in which M^r Cotton asserts their Membership.

The latter Part of the Piece contain^d, — as the Pastor thôt, many hard & injurious Reflections upon him — & was utter^d with much Warmth & Agitation of Spirit. But in such a Day of Difficulty & Temptation, all possible, christian Allowances are to be

The Chh voted to comply with y^e Request, & chose Deacon Bartlett Deacon Torrey & M^r Mayhew to represent the Chh on y^e occasion.

Feb^r 15th Met accordingly at Plimpton with a Council of Pastors & Delegates of several Churches, & after usual Enquiries into y^e Proceedings of y^e Chh relative to M^r Samsons Call &c & after hearing a full Confession of y^e s^d Candidates Faith, & his Answers to several Questions thereon, The Council manifesting their full Approbation thereof, proceeded solemnly to ordain him — as follows, The Pastor of this Chh open^d the Solemnity with Prayer, Rev^d M^r Conant preached the Sermon, Rev^d M^r Shaw of Bridgewater gave y^e Charge, Rev^d M^r Turner of Middleboro' pray^d after y^e Charge, & Rev^d M^r Howland of Plimpton gave y^e righthand of Fellowship — y^e whole conducted with Seriousness & Decency. March 26th² Lords day — Having recievèd a 2^d Request, sign^d by five Brethren that a Chh Meeting might be call^d to consider as above, they also having in their request mention^d severall articles of their Grievance relative to D^a Foster, & also intimating that the previous first & second Steps had been taken, & to no satisfactory purpose, I notify^d the Chh to meet to consider on said affair, next Tuesday at y^e meeting h^s.

March 28th Tuesday P M. The Church met accordingly, & after Prayer, The Design of y^e Meeting being mention^d, Deacon Foster read a paper containing his objections & Reasons against the [56³] the Churche's going on to a hearing of the articles exhibited against him by the aggrieved Brethren — & requesting that the meeting be dissolved. — The Church voted Not to dissolve the meeting — & then, upon Deacon Foster's Request, agreed to adjourn the Meeting to the first Wednesday in May next. the meeting was accordingly adjourned to the 3^d of next May.

1775 May 3^d The Church met according to adjournment, but there being but few of the⁴ members present, Deacon Foster also being absent, the Meeting was further adjourn^d to the 2^d Wednesday in June next.

June 14th The Church met agreeable to adjournment, Deacon Foster sent in a paper to be read, signifying the reasons why he did not attend this Meeting, & objecting against the Chh's proceeding on the affair, & again desired the Meeting may be dissolved — One of his Reasons being this, that he thought the previous Gospel Steps had not been taken, Twas moved by y^e Chh that an Account might be given what Steps the offended Brethren had taken, that the Church might judge thereon — Which being done, A Vote was desired to be call^d to know Whither the aggrieved had taken the Steps required by Christ

Whereupon the Church thôt it, nevertheless, adviseable to use all Christian Tenderness & Forbearance with our Brother Deacon Foster, and, inasmuch as he was not present,) to adjourn this Meeting for a Week, & notify him what the Church had done. Accordingly adjourned to Wednesday next.

At the Desire of Deacon Bartlett & Deacon Torrey it was proposed to the Chh, to take into Consideration the choosing of another Deacon, especially on account of the growing Infirmities of our aged & worthy Dⁿ Bartlett, — which oblige him necessarily to be absent from public Worship great part of the Time, especially in y^e cold Season.

The Meeting was opened & concluded with Prayer.

June 21st The Church met by Adjournment. Deacon Foster appearing & desireing the articles of Grievance against him might be more particularly specify^d & he have opportunity to make his Defence, produce Evidences &c the Meeting was by Consent of y^e Chh adjourned to the 3^d Wednesday in August next. — Open^d & concluded with prayer — & Blessing [57] 1775 Church Records

Aug^t 16th The Church met according to Adjournment — Deacon Foster brôt an Evidence (viz his Wife) in order to prove the previous Steps in a more private way, as mention^d in the Gospel, had not been taken with him. The Chh heard y^e Evidence — & the Question was put Whither the Steps had been taken — 22 Members present of whom 11 Voted in y^e affirmative — which being but just half, the former Vote of y^e Church on this Question stands in force, viz that past June 14th in y^e foregoing page. — Next, it was moved & seconded that the Charges be read — which were accordingly read, both y^e General Heads, & the particulars explanatory of them, which latter had been sent to Deacon Foster previous to this meeting, agreeable to y^e vote June 21

Hereupon Deacon Foster begun to answer to s^d Charges, but had considered only those under y^e first general Head before Evening came on which made it necessary to adjourn — accordingly, by Desire, y^e Meeting was adjourned a fortnight from this Day — viz to Aug^t 30th instant. — The Church were of opinion that, of those Charges he answerd to, at this time, some of 'em were of such a Nature, that y^e Chh could not settle or determine absolutely upon them — & that the others, then spoke to, were not such as amounted to consurable Evils — or a just Ground of Withdraw.

The Meeting was open^d with prayer, & concluded also, & wth a Blessing.

Aug^t 30. The Church met according to adjournment, but it being a very stormy Day, few met, & voted therefore to adjourn a fortnight, viz to Sep^r 13th Wednesday 2 Clock P M. — Pray^d together, & parted.

Sep^r 13th Met according to adjournment, &¹ the Pastor, being confined by sickness, the church made Choice of Deacon Torrey moderator for the present meeting, & by reason of a few members being present, voted to adjourn the meeting to Wednesday y^e 27th of September instant.

Lords Day Dec^r 10th Stay^d y^e Church & after some Consultation about the Chh Meeting which is adjourn'd to next Wednesday, The Church aggred, (considering it is Court Week this week, a public Time, & Deacon Foster uneasy at the Meeting being at such a Time) to postpone the Meeting till next Wednesday Week, viz y^e 20th Dec^r

1776 Jan^y 17th Met agreeable to Adjournment, but there¹ still being so few of y^e Brethren present, by Dⁿ Foster's Desire the Meeting was further adjourn'd to the first Wednesday in March next, at 10 Clock in y^e Forenoon, Of which public Notice is to be given to y^e Church on the Sabbath preceeding y^e s^d 6th of March, & that tis y^e Design of y^e Church then, by y^e Leave of Providence, without fail to proceed to y^e Consideration of the Articles alledg^d against our Brother Deacon Foster. — As it may well seem surprizing to many, in after times, to see an Account of so many Adjournments one after another for such a long space of Time, on acc^t of y^e Brethren not attending y^e Meetings — I think it proper to say, That I know not what else to attribute it to, but to y^e public Distresses of this Land, involved in y^e Calamities of Civil War, [59²] which so much engrosses the Minds & Concern of every one that they scarce know how to attend, even upon an affair of such³ Importance as this is, However we must acknowledge, we are guilty of a sad & criminal Neglect — as no public or private Troubles ought ever to prevent attending on those Duties, in which y^e Honor of Christ, of this Church, & y^e good of the Delinquent, are so much concerned. The Lord heal & save our Land, & give peace & prosperity to this Chh!

Wednesday Mar. 6th The Chh met according to Adjournment, & would have proceeded to y^e Business of y^e Meeting, but the minds

Wedn. May 1st 1776. The Chh met by Adjournment, & after Prayer proceeded to y^e Business before them, relative to y^e Charges brôt against Dⁿ Foster. which were contain^d under these 4 General heads — viz

1. His Falseness & Prevarication, affirming at one time w^t at other times he will deny, with Affirmations and Asseverations.

2. His frequent violent Passions & Extravagant Expressions, & wicked Wishes, bordering upon Profaness, if not actual breaches of y^e 3^d Comand.

3. When desired by our Pastor, at our Request, not to attend upon y^e next Sacrament, & to abstain untill y^e Objections against him should be settled in a Christian manner to our Satisfaction, He, notwithstanding would attend, & thereby obliged a Number of us to absent ourselves, as we could not with peace of mind join with him any longer therein.

4. His Political Conduct & Practices are, we think, just matter of Offence, as therein he discovers a Willingness to have this Country enslaved — & is frequently found to be an Advocate for ye Destructive Doctrines of Passive Obedience & Non Resistance.

Now proceeded to y^e 2^d Gen^l Head & y^e particulars under it — The five first of which, being not supported by Sufficient Evidence, the Chh dismiss^d them. — The 6th particular — “ his calling John Churchills Wife a cursed, murderous Bitch — The Church, 1. Voted it proved. Upon which Deacon Foster, saying that thô he had no Remembrance of it, yet that if he did say it, he was sorry for it, & condem^d y^e Expression The Chh Voted satisfied. The seventh particular under this head, viz “ his frequently giving people y^e Lye — treating them with Roughness & in an unchrist^a manner," was thus dismiss^d — viz — That altho. several of them had met with what they thôt rough & unkind usage &c yet they could forgive him & had no objection against him at present on that head.

As to y^e 8th — viz "his saying that when Dr Watts composed his Hymns, he was under the Influence of y^e Devil. The Chh voted ^{vote} That it was sufficiently proved that he said so, with respect to his Psalms, tho not Hymns — & that tis justly offensive. — Upon which Deacon Foster saying he was sorry he used such an Expression, if he did say it — the Church Voted To forgive him.

Then went on to y^e 4th & Last gen^l Head — as in y^e last page.¹ Upon which The Brethren manifested such Uneasiness, as his Principles were so very opposite to almost y^e whole Chh, & had a Tendency, in their opinion, utterly to sap y^e Foundation of our Churches, as well as our State — that finally The Church Voted not to determine at present, in a decisive manner, upon this Article — but to adjourn for further Deliberation. — Accordingly the Meeting was adjourned to ye 2^d Wednesday in July next, 3 Clock P M.

The Meeting concluded with Prayer & y^e Blessing.

July 7th Lords Day. Stay^d the Church, at D^a Fosters Desire, to let them know, that, as he thought the Chh meeting by Adjournment was to have been last week, he was under Necessity by an engagement, to go out of town this week, & cou^d not attend y^e Meeting, & desired the Chh would adjourn the meeting to the Wednesday after next — Which the Chh consented to — & accordingly the Church is to meet on Wednesday y^e 17th instant, at 3 of Clock in y^e Afternoon.

Wednesday. July 17th The Church met according to adjournment, & proceeded to y^e consideration of the last general Article of Charge against D^a Foster — It being urged, that he looked upon the Brethren, who were opposite to him in political Sentiments, to be Rebels, & of Consequence deserving y^e Punishment of such; & he not denying or retracting his former Sentim^{ts} & declaring that he did not think it expedient to tell w^t his Thôts were on y^t head, — & not being willing to make any recantation, The Church Voted almost unanimously (20 Members present, all but 2 Voted) that they could not contentedly communicate with him at y^e Lords Table. [61]

1776 Church Records

Whereupon Deacon Foster desireing further time to think upon the affair, & that there might be an Opportunity for a fuller Meeting, the Church readily consented that the meeting be adjourn^d for further time for mutual Deliberation, without proceeding to any formal Suspension of him from Communion. Accordingly y^e meeting was adjourn^d by Agreement, to the 2^d Wednesday in October next y^e 9th day. to meet in y^e Meeting house at 2 Clock P M. The meeting was opened with Prayer, & concluded wth prayer & y^e Blessing.

N. B. The Pastor being necessarily absent, on a Journey, upon y^e said 9th of October, (to which time y^e Church Meeting was adjourn^d) the Church did not meet on said Day. Thus the Affair remains to be concluded if Providence permit, at some future Meeting, to be appointed or warn^d anew.

Dec^r 17th This Day died, greatly lamented, Deacon John Torrey, of the Smallpox Aged 59 Years. A man of Goodness, singular Integrity & Uprightness — an Ornament to the Church, a great Blessing to y^e Town, & a most able, zealous Friend to the Liberties of this distress^d & bleeding Country. May God sanctify such a sore Bereavement to this people, & especially to this Church!

1777. Jan^{ry} 5th Lords Day Evening, Notify^d the Brethren of y^e Chh to meet on Wednesday next, to consider of y^e Expediency of choosing one or more persons to the office of Deacons in this Church, — To meet in the Meeting house at 2 Clock P M.

Jan^r 8th Wednesday. The Church met according to Notification — And after Prayer — The Question was put whither the Chh will now proceed to the Choice of one or more Deacons — Whereupon

1. Voted unanimously to proceed.

2. Voted, (that by reason of y^e Death of our dear Brother Deacon Torrey, & y^e Age & Infirmities of our worthy Brother Dⁿ Bartlett) to choose two Deacons.

The Brethren were then desired to bring in their written Votes — When our Brethren Silvanus Bartlett & William Crombie were chosen by a great Majority — whereupon, the Chh made y^e Choice unanimous, by a following Vote. — The Brethren chosen, requested some time to consider of y^e Affair. The Meeting conducted wth entire Love & harmony, & conclud^d wth Pray^r

Lord's Day Jan^{ry} 19th At Noon, inform^d the Congregation of the Choice the Chh had made of y^e above persons to y^e Office of Deacons, & that our Brother Silv^s Bartlett desired to be excused from s^d Office, purely & only on Acc^t of bodily Infirmity & Loss of Voice, in a gr^t Measure. Our Brother William Crombie consenting, was then publickly desired that he would, in Token of his Acceptance, take his Place in y^e Deacon's Seat in the Afternoon, which he did. The Chh was notify^d to meet again on Tuesday next, in y^e meetinghouse for the Choice of another Deacon. [62¹] 1777 Church Records

Jan^r 21st Tuesday.² The Church met according to Notification & the question being put whither the Chh would at this time proceed, to y^e choice of a Deacon, Voted in ye Affirmative. Then the Brethren ^{Vote} brót in their written Votes, & our Brother Lemuel Bartlett was chosen by a majority of Votes. He thôt it his duty to excuse himself, on account of his Years, &c but was desired to take the matter under Consideration for a while, which he yielded to. — Then the Church voted, that as Deacon Crombie, our former Chorister, had left y^e usual Singer's Seat, on account of his being Chosen a Deacon, that our brother Jesse Churchill, & Mess^{rs} Andrew Crosswell, Sam^l Sherman & William Bartlett y^e 3^d be desired to act as Choristers in y^e publick worship, as occasion shall require.

The Meeting was adjourned to next Wednesday fortnight, viz the 5th of February ensuing, to meet in y^e meet^house, at 2 Clock P M. The Meeting was opened & concluded wth Prayer, & the Blessing.

Jan^r 23^d This day, died Deacon Thomas Foster, of the Small Pox aged 7³ & was bury^d by the Hospital, near to Deacon Torrey. A surprizing Providence,! two Deacons of this Church have dy^d within a Month, of this terrible Disease. The first, viz D^a Torrey, was inoculated, but twas thôt he had previously taken it, y^e natural way. The other catched it, but had no knowledge how or when.

May this Church be enabled wisely to improve such a mysterious Dispensation.

Feb^r 5th Wednesday. The Church met according to Adjournment for the Purpose of choosing another Deacon, our Brother Lemuel Bartlett having previously declined accepting y^e Choice, on Account of his Age & frequent Infirmities, especially a Deafness which he is often affected with. The Church therefore, after y^e meeting was opened by Prayer,

Voted¹ To proceed at this Time to y^e Choice of another Deacon. — And upon bringing in their Votes, it appeared they were much divided — & after a 2^d & 3^d Trial, no one being chosen, it was moved that y^e Meeting be adjourn^d some time, for further Consideration, in hopes, by Conferring together, y^e Brethren may be more united at y^e next meeting. Accordingly The meeting was, by Vote, adjourn^d 3 Weeks — to meet again in the meet^g house on Wednesday y^e 26th instant, at 2 Clock P M [63] 1777 &c Church Records

Vote At the same Meeting the Church chose Deacon Crombie for their Treasurer, & desired him, by Vote, to recieve the Church Vessels Account book &c &c and to provide for the Sacrament in future.

The Meeting was then concluded with Prayer & y^e Blessing. May y^e good Spirit of God give Wisdom & Unity to this Church to direct & govern them in y^e important affair now under their Consideration, & in his merciful Providence lead us to the Choice of such a person for y^e Office of a Deacon, as shall be an Ornament to the Church, & act in that Capacity to y^e Glory of God & y^e Edification of this Church!

Vote Feb^r 23^d Lord's day. Stay^d the Chh after Meeting, when it was unanimously agreed that the Chh Meeting, which was to have been next Wednesday, should be adjourned without Day, on account of the difficulty of coming to any Choice of a Deacon, at present. And it was accordingly adjourn^d without Day.²

1780 Feb^r 6th Lords Day. Stay^d y^e Chh at Night, & informed them that Complaint had been made to me of several Members of this Chh walking very disorderly in absenting themselves habitually from publick Worship, as well as from y^e Ordinance of y^e holy Supper — which has given great Occasion of Reproach & brôt a Scandal on y^e Chh — Whereupon y^e Church voted that Br^o Thomas Mayhew

& Deacon Cromby, with the Pastor be a Committee of y^e Chh to go & discourse with those Members who walk not according to gospel Rule, & endeavor to bring them to a Sense of y^r Sin¹ & Duty — & make Report to y^e Church.

March. 30th Being Lecture Day, Stay^d y^e Chh after Service, reported to them y^e Reasons which y^e several delinquent Members gave to y^e above Committee, for their absenting themselves &c all of whom, except Benjamin Churchill promised to use y^e Gospel Method for y^e Removal of y^e Difficulties y^t were in y^r Minds, & to return to their Duty. — which y^e Chh was satisfy^d with for y^e Present. — With respect to Benj^a Churchill, the Church Voted, That Our Brethren Daniel Diman & John Cobb be a Committee to go & discourse further with him, endeavouring to bring him to a Sense of his Sin & Duty; he having absented for more than a twelve Month, both from Meeting & from y^e Ordinance of y^e Supper — upon no other Reason (as he inform^d y^e other Committee) than because the people of y^e Town in general treated him with Contempt — calling him a Tory &c If this Committee sho^d be ² unsuccessful in their Endeavors with him — the Church then Voted that the Pastor be desired to send him a written Citation, or Summons to appear before y^e Church at y^r next Meeting, & answer for his Conduct.

Lords Day Noon — Apr^l 23. Stay^d y^e Chh to know y^r Minds concerning y^e Request of our Sister Mercy Foster, that her Grandchild, (whose Mother Priscilla Foster is deceased) now under her sole Care, may be baptiz^d — As it has been done before in like Cases there was no Objection, & Silence was taken for their Consent, & y^e Child to be baptiz^d accordingly this Afternoon Turn over [64] 1780 Church Records

Lords Day June 18.1780. Notify^d the Brethren to meet tomorrow 10 Clock A M to consider y^e Cases of those delinquent Members, mention^d in y^e preceed^g page & also, of y^e Expediency of choosing one or more Deacons, as Deacon Bartlett thrô bodily Indisposition rarely attends, & Dⁿ Crombie, infirm of late — The Chh met accordingly June 19th & after Consultation, Voted a Committee be chosen to go & discourse once more with y^e offending Brethren, & endeav^r to bring them to a Sense of their Sin & Duty — when The Pastor, with Lemuel Bartlett & Sam^l Battles were chosen for y^e purpose. The Choice of Deacons, with y^e Request of John Goodwins Wife, desiring Baptism for her Husbands Children, were postponed to y^e next Meet^g, which was voted to be on Tuesday the 11th of July next at 3 Clock P M so adjourn^d to y^t time. Open^d & concluded with Prayer.

Lords Day Ev^g July 9th Notify^d the Brethren of y^e Chh meet^g which was proposed to be on Tuesday next, but as the Pastor was engag^d on a Journey the beginning of this Week, he requested them to meet tomorrow, July 10th, for y^e afores^d Purposes.

Votes

July 10th The Church met, generally — & with respect to the Cases of those Members who have walk^d disorderly, the Committee chosen reported that they had discoursed with them, & some seemed to be sensible of their Error & promised to reform — But Benjamin Churchill appearing still obstinate the Church Voted, that the Pastor be desired once more to cite him to appear at the next Church Meet^g, & let him know that if he refuses, they shall proceed according to the Rules of Cx against obstinate Offenders. With regard to Nath^r Morton's Case of Difference between him & Amaziah Churchill, the Chh chose our Brethren John Cotton, Lem^l Bartlett with the Pastor, a Committee to endeavour the Healing of that Breach, by getting y^e Parties together, & such Evidences as may be procured, & so attempt to bring about a Reconciliation.

The Church did not see Light yet to come to the Choice of a Deacon — but express^d that it is their Desire, for y^e present that Deacon Diman of the 3^d Church, who constantly meets with us, would assist occasionally in that Office, as Need may require.

Adjourn^d this Meet^g without Day, to be call^d by y^e Pastor anew when it shall appear requisite, for y^e purposes afores^d Began & concluded with Prayer, & y^e Blessing.

Octob^r 8. Lords Day Ev^g, Stay^d y^e Chh & propos^d to them, a Meet^g of y^e Chh this Week on y^e Above Affairs — Br^o Cotton, being necessarily engaged desired another might be added to y^e Committee — Accord^sly chose Deacon Cromby to join wth y^e above Committee in discoursing with y^e Brethren aforementioned, & notify^d y^e Chh to meet on Thursday next.

October 12th The Chh met, very generally, & taking y^e proposed Matters into their Serious Consideration, (after Prayer to God), they came to y^e following Votes —

Vote 1. Whereas there has been an unchristian Animosity & Quarrel between our Brethren Nath^l Morton & Amaziah Churchill, & the Chh have taken Several Measures to accommodate y^o Difference, but to no purpose, Voted that unless the Parties shall make up the Breach before the [65¹] the next Chh Meeting, they be both suspended from special Ordinances untill they do.

Vote 2^d The Church also voted, that whereas our Brother Benj^a Churchill in Addition to his other Sins, of long & habitual Absenting himself from all the Ordinances of y^o Gospel, evil Carriage in divers other Respects, treating the Committees of y^o Chh who have been sent to discourse with & try to bring him to Repentance &c &c has now, twice cast Contempt upon the Authority of Christ in his house, by refusing when able, to attend upon the Chh at their Meetings, when cited regularly to appear before them, he be, herefor suspended from all special Ordinances & Communion with y^o Chh & publickly admonished.

Vote 3^d Voted that y^o Chh cannot consent to accept of a private Confession before y^o Chh only, from our Brother Silas Morton, as the Sin he stands charged with, of Drunkenness, & other bad behavior, is public — that he therefore be allowed time to consider of y^o Matter, of a public Confession till y^o next Meeting of y^o Church.

Vote 4. That the Reasons alledged by our Brother Jesse Churchill, against Brother Theoph^o Cotton, for his uneasiness with him, in the Discharge of his Military Office towards him, sometime past, are not well grounded or satisfactory to y^o Church. Therefore, upon a Motion, Voted —

Vote 5. That our Brethren Thomas Mayhew, Deacon Crombie, Eben^r Cobb, Sam^l Battles & Daniel Diman, be a Committee of y^o Chh to discourse with s^d Churchill to endeavor to convince him of y^o unjustifiableness of his absenting himself on y^o above Account. — Then adjourned the Meeting to Monday the 30th instant. 2 Clock P M. Concluded with Prayer & the² Blessing.

NB. The Pastor being necessarily absent out of Town on y^o Day to which y^o Chh Meeting was adjourned, they did not meet, as was proposed.

1781. Jan^r 7th Lords Day Evening Notify^d y^o Chh to meet at y^e Meet^s house Tuesday next at 2, Afternoon, to consider further of the Matters abovementioned.

Tuesday Jan^r 9th The Church met, but so few, on account of y^e bad Weather that they concluded not to act upon y^e Affairs before them, but postpone them to a future Meeting, which is to be notify^d by y^e Pastor.

Lords day. Jan^r 28. Notify^d y^e Brethren to meet on Wednesday next, at the Pastor's house, (by Reason of the Season) to consider of the matters lying before them.

Wednesday Jan^r 31. The Church met, generally, at the Pastors house; & after Prayer, & Consultation upon the Matters lying before them, came to the following Determinations —

Vote 1. — Voted, that inasmuch as our Brother Benjamin Churchill has to the Grief & Astonishment of all y^e Chh, added Contempt & Obstinacy to all his other Sins, not only by refusing, when cited several times, to appear before y^e Church, but of late contemptuously refusing, when warned, to attend an Admonition in public, That y^e Pastor send him a written Admonition, & make the same known to the Congregation in publick together with his Behavior, & y^e Grounds & Reasons of the Churche's Procedure against him.

Vote 2. Voted to choose a Committee to acquaint our Brother Silas Morton, that y^e Church still adhere to their last Vote respect^s him, & that they expect he will make a public Confession, or must be suspended from Comunion. Voted — That our Brethren Theô Cotton & John Cobb be said Committee.

With regard to our Brother Jesse Churchill, he being present, after much Conversation, he engages to return to his Duty & attend on all Ordinances upon which the Church were satisfyed. [66¹] 1781 Church Records

Voted 3. Also, considering the Case of Amaziah Churchill, he declaring his Adherence to what he did at a late Conference before the Churches Committee, viz, that he was willing to make up y^e Matter with Nath^l Morton, upon the Terms then agreed on, which were thôt satisfactory by y^e Committee at that Time — And Nath^l Morton alone appearing to fall from the Aggrement — The Chh voted to reconsider their Vote of y^e Octr 12th last so far as it respects

Vote. 4. Whereas our Sisters Sarah Withrell (formerly Jackson) & Fear Goodwin Wife of John Goodwin, have requested Leave to bring the Children of their Husbands, not their own, to Baptism their Husbands not being Members in full Communion — the Church having repeatedly for Months past had the same under Consideration, & Advice being had, by their Desire, of a Number of the Ministers of y^e Churches of Christ around us, occasionally, who all gave it as their Opinion, that the Persons in Question had an undoubted Right to bring these Children to Baptism, — The Church Voted, very harmoniously, that their Request be granted & that the said Children be baptiz^d on Acc^t of their s^d Mothers in Law.

The Meeting adjourned to no particular Day. — then Prayer & y^e Blessing.

Lords Day March 4th 1781. Agreeable to the Vote of y^e Chh at their last Meeting, the Pastor sent to our Brother Benj^a Churchill, “a written Admonition,” & this Day, at the Close of public Worship, (conformably to their Vote) acquainted the Congregation with his unchristian Conduct & the Grounds of the Church’s Proceeding to admonish & suspend him from special Ordinances, & read to them the Admonition that was sent him, at which there appeared great Solemnity & much Affection in the Congregation. O that it may be blessed as a Means of Good to him & Others!

Nov^r 25th Lords Day Evening. Read to the Church, a Letter Missive from the first Chh in Middleborō, desiring the Presence & Assistance of this Chh by their Pastor & Delegates, at y^e Ordination of M^r Joseph Barker on the 5th of next Month — & the Chh voted to comply — & chose Thomas Mayhew, Deacon Crombie & ^{Voted.} Ebenezer Cobb y^e first, Delegates to represent y^e Church.

Dec^r 5th The Ordination Council met at y^e Precinct House in Middleb^o first Precinct, & after Examination of y^e Candidate, y^e Council unanimously voted to proceed to y^e Ordination. Rev^d M^r Turner ¹ of Middlebor^o ² began with Prayer, the Pastor of this Chh preach^d from John 15.5. “Without me ye can do Nothing.” Rev^d M^r Shaw of Bridgw^r pray^d & gave y^e Charge, Rev^d M^r Le Baron of Rochester pray'd after y^e Charge, & Rev^d M^r Judson of Taunton gave the Right Hand of Fellowship — a great Solemnity & becoming Decency was apparent thro y^e whole Transaction. May God make their Pastor a rich & lasting Bless^g to y^m & y^r Children. [67]

1782 Church Records.

Jan^{ry} 13. Lords Day Evening, Notify'd the Brethren to meet at the Pastor's House next Wednesday, at 2 Clock P M. in order to consider & determine what further Steps are to be taken with Several Members that walk disorderly.

Wednesd. Jan^r 16th The Chh met, & after Prayer to God, entered upon y^e Consideration of Benj^a Churchills Case, who still absents himself wholly, & for Years, from all Ordinances, & treats the Church with Contempt &c as before mentioned — The Chh sent for him to attend at this Meeting, but he refused, under pretext that he had not had sufficient Notice — but engaged that if the Chh wo^d appoint another Time, he would attend — to which the Chh, (that they might manifest Long suffering towards him before they proceed to extremity) consented. — Then proceeded to Silas Mortons Case, who had been previously notify'd to appear at this Meeting, but neglected to come. And as he still persists in refusing to make a public Confession of his Sins, & has for many Months past wholly neglected to attend the public Worship of God, & been repeatedly seen intoxicated wth strong Drink, of late The Chh unanimously gave their Voice that he should be suspended from all special Ordinances & publickly admonished.

Voted. That Brother Nathⁱ Shurtleff & Deacon Crombie be a Committee to go & discourse wth our Sister Patience Burgiss, & know y^e Cause of her long absenting herself from y^e house of God, & other Conduct disorderly, which is reported of her, viz Spending her Earnings by labor, to intemperate purposes.

Voted. Also that the Pastor, with Br^o s Mayhew & Dⁿ be a Committee to endeavor the healing of the Difficulty that subsists between our Brethren Nath^u Morton & Amaziah Churchill, which is not yet made up.

The Pastor, with Brⁿ s Mayhew, Dⁿ & David Lothrop are again desired to hear & endea^r to heal the Uneasiness that also subsists between our Br^o Amaz^b & Jesse Churchill—As Jesse Ch^u still complains of hard treatment from s^d Amaziah Churchill.

Then voted to adjourn this Meeting to Tuesday ye 5th of Febr next to meet at y^e same place. — Concluded wth Prayer & the Blessing.

Feb^r 5th 1782. The Church met (in a full Chh meeting) according to Adjournment, & proceeded to consider first the Case of our Brother Benjamin Churchill who had promised the last Meeting, to attend at this, being previously notify^d to attend at this time, but did not come, nor give any sufficient reason in y^e Churches Mind, for not coming — Whereupon the Church unanimously came to the following solemn Vote, express^d, not by lifting up y^e hand, as in other Cases, but by each Member giving his Voice singulatim, “ That whereas our Brother Benjamin Churchill, has for a long time even several Years wilfully & habitually neglected y^e public Worship & all the Ordinances of Gods house, & the Church have used every Method of gentle Expostulation, Advice & Entreaty, both by private Members & Committees frequently chosen for that purpose, to endeav^r to bring him to a Sense of his Sin & to recover him to his Duty, & all to no purpose, but he has added Contempt of y^e Church & y^e authority of J Christ in his house, by constantly refusing to attend at Chh Meetings when desired, Whereupon y^e Church were constrain^d to proceed to a formal Vote to publickly admonish him & to suspend him from special Ordinances, in hopes he might hereby be brot to Repentance [68¹] but he still remains incorrigible & refuses to return, Wherefore this Church, as bound in Duty, & by the Laws of Jesus Christ, do solemnly Vote & Declare, in Manner beforemention^d, that “ Unless the s^d Benj^a Churchill shall manifest his Repentance by public Confession of his Sins, within three Months from this Time, he shall then, in y^e Name & by the Authority of Jesus Christ in his Church, be publickly Excommunicated & declared to be no longer in Visible Relation to the Church & Visible Kingdom of Christ.”

Voted — Also that Whereas our Brother Silas Morton has refused to attend in public Worship, when notify^d regularly thereto, in order to recieve public Admonition, agreeable to y^e Vote of the Chh at their last Meet^g, the Pastor be desired to send him a written Admonition.

promises to use her Endeav^{rs} to provide herself with them, & speedily to attend her Duty. That the Differences between the several Brethren mention^d were, by the Blessing of God on the Endeavors of y^e Committees, very happily accommodated, & each promised to live in brotherly Love.¹

N.B. See Page 71² for y^e reason of this Erasement.³

Vote The Church also, at this time, Voted that the Suspension be taken off from Brother Nathaniel Morton, which was Voted at a former Church Meeting, on Octob^r 12.1780. the Cause thereof happily ceasing.

Vote Lords Day April 21st 1782. At the Close of the publick Worship our Brother Benjamin Churchill appear^d & in a public Manner humbled himself before God & his people by a Confession of his Sins & his disorderly Walking (as recorded heretofore) — Whereupon The Church Voted that the Sentence of Suspension be removed & he be restored to Charity & to y^e Communion of his Brethren in all Ordinances, a Word of Exhortation was then given him to walk humbly, penitently & softly before God all his Days — then Prayer — & y^e Blessing. The Lord accept of & pardon & save him for Cx^o sake

Oct^r 6th Lords Day — Read a Letter Missive from y^e Chh in Wareham desiring y^e Assistance of this Chh by their Pastor & Delegates, at y^e Ordination of M^r Noble Everitt to y^e Pastoral Office over them, on y^e 16th of this Month. The Chh Voted to comply — & chose Deacon Crombie & Silvanus Bartlett to represent y^e Church on y^e occasion.

Oct^r 16. The Council met & ordain^d M^r Everitt. Rev^d M^r Robbins of Norfolk in Connecticut began with Prayer — M^r Knap of Winchester preach^d fr. 2. Tim. 4.6.7.8. M^r Howland of Plimton pray^d & gave y^e Charge — M^r Le Baron pray^d after y^e Charge, & y^e Pastor of this Chh gave y^e Right Hand of Fellowship.

April 4th Lords Day Evening, Stay^d y^e Church after y^e Blessing, & communicated to them a Request & Proposal, exhibited in Writing, from the Members of the 3^d Church in this Town, to re-unite & incorporate with the first Chh & left the Matter for their serious Deliberation, till next Lords Day.

April 11th Lords Day P M. This Church having consider^d of y^e Proposal of the 3^d Chh as afors^d, & no Objections being offer^d against it, The Pastor, at the Close of public Worship, notify^d the Affair to the whole Congregation — as a very affecting & remarkable Dispensation of Divine Providence — observing to them, that after 40 Years Seperation, (y^e 4th of next Month) there should be brót about a Reunion of the Chhs. The paper was then read, as follows.

Wheras, in the Course ¹ of divine Providence, is brought about a Re-union of the first & third Parishes in the Town of Plimouth, which Union has been ratify'd by the Act of the General Court of this Commonwealth at the joint Request of both Parishes, — We therefore, Members of the third Church of Christ in Plimouth afors^d, wishing to cultivate that harmony & brotherly Love which the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ inculcates, do propose an Incorporation of both the first & third Churches into One, hoping that y^e Interest of the great Head of the Church may be promoted thereby. At the same time, praying ² the God & Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, that the Union may be productive of y^e happiest Consequences — that we may join our united Endeavors to promote the Interest & Kingdom of our divine Lord & Master in general, & among ourselves in particular — that we may all of us be Ornaments to the holy Religion which we profess, & after being faithful to the Death, may be admitted into the Church triumphant in Heaven never to seperate any more.

Also —

We the subscribers members of other Churches, having usually communicated with the 3^d Chh in Plimouth, desire to communicate with y^e first Chh in s^d town in all the ordinances of the Gospel.

Union of the two Churches solemnly ratify^d by a formal Vote of y^e Church.

Attest. CH: ROBBINS.

May God smile upon, & bless this Transaction for y^e Glory of his Name & y^e Edification of this Church! — The Texts preach^d from, this Day, on the Occasion, were, In y^e Forenoon Psal.133:1. “Behold how good & how pleasant for Brethren to dwell &c.” In y^e Afternoon Gal.3.28. — “For ye are all One in Christ Jesus” [71] 1784 & 1785 Chh Records continued

May 23^d Lords Day, At the Close of divine Worship Notify^d the Brethren of the Church to meet in the Meeting house next Tuesday, the 25th instant at 2 Clock P M, for the purpose of choosing one or more Deacons.

May 25th Tuesday. The Church met very generally, & after Prayer for Direction in the Affair before us, the Church unanimously voted to proceed to choose two Persons to the Office of Deacons. And upon bringing in the Votes, it appeared that Brother Jonathan Diman, & Br^o Ephraim Spooner were chosen to that Office, by a very great Majority. Upon which, on a Motion made, the Church unanimously voted their Concurrence in the Choice — Both of whom, after some Conversation on the Subject, agreed to take the Matter under Serious Consideration, & to give an Answer in due Time.

At the same Meeting, Brother Benj^a Rider, moved to the Church, whither those Passages in these Records, which relate to a Charge formerly bro't against him, might not be wholly erased, as he apprehends they tend to give an unfavorable Idea of him, & y^e Charge being unsupported — Whereupon the Church voted to have those Passages which relate to their Transactions on this head, be erased & made illegible. The Passages are recorded in Page 49, 50, & 68, 69.¹ On which said Brother Ryder declares himself satisfy^d & will attend his Duty as before.

The Meeting was conducted with y^e greatest Love & Harmony, & concluded with Prayer & the Blessing.

1785. March 20th Lords day P M — Stay^d the Chh & read a Complaint of our Brother Jesse Churchill against Brother Samⁿ

March 21st The Chh met at the Pastors house this Evening, agreeable to Notification; & after Prayer, enter^d into Consultation with y^e Parties, heard what Brother Battles had to say to the Complaint against him by Brother Jesse Churchill, he urged that he had not exhibited before the Referees (chosen to settle y^e Matter) all y^e Evidence he could produce, in his Justificatⁿ, therefore wish^d for another hearing before them, & he doubted not their Award w^d be different from w^t they gave before. The Chh advised Br^o Churchill to consent to another hearing before y^e same Referees, he consented — & y^e Affair finally was settled between y^m by s^d Reference. [72]

1786 Records &c

As the Use of Tate & Brady's Version of the Psalms, with some Hymns annex^d, has obtain^d, in our publick Worship, for some time past, viz since January 8th 1771. at which time it was voted by the Church, to be used instead of the Old N England Version It may not be thôt improper, on a Subject of this kind, to record in this place, that by the Desire of numbers, in Church & Congregation, Doct^r Watts's Version of the Psalms, with his Book of Hymns, was proposed to be sung in public for a Season on Tryal, & then, that the Minds of the Congregation should be expressed, whither they would, in future, sing Tate & Brady's as before, or Doct^r Watts's. — After a Tryal of each, for several Months, it was agreed that the matter be determined at a public Meeting of the Inhabitants of this first Precinct, in their annual Precinct Meeting, & In consequence of proper Notice previously given, on

On March 21 1786 At a very full meeting of s^d Precinct,¹ the Vote was called, which of the two versions they will use, & Voted, that Doct^r Watts's Version of the Psalms, & Hymns united, be sung in future, in our public Worship, viz, 17 Votes for Tate & Brady, & 38 for Doct^r Watts's, to which the rest amicably agreed. May God bless the Use of said Evangelical Psalms & Hymns, for the spiritual Edification of his people, that we may be prepared to join the Song of Moses & the Lamb, in the heavenly World!

1787. Oct^r 18th At a Sacramental Lecture, the Chh were desired to tarry after the Blessing, & the Pastor communicated to them the Request of our Brother William Curtiss, (now living in Pembroke) viz, "That since, by the providence of God, he is removed from us, & not being satisfy^d with the Preaching of¹ the Minister of that Place, & becoming acquainted with a Baptist Society, among whom he thinks the Gospel is preached in Purity, & as he has no prospect of returning to this Place to live again, he requests a Dismission from this Chh, & to be recommended to the Baptist Chh, of which M^r Robinson is the minister." — The Chh took the matter into Consideration & were, finally, of Opinion, that our Brother Curtiss has been too hasty in this Affair, not having consulted either the Pastor or his Brethren on the Subject, before he had come to a fix^d conclusion, that our Chhs were wrong as to the Mode & Subjects of Baptism — & had determin^d to join them before he made Application to have any Objections answ^d, or Difficulties [73²] Difficulties solved, which he laboured under. The Chh therefore Voted Voted, That the Pastor be desired to write to our Brother Curtiss, & inform him of the Sentiments of his Brethren respecting this Matter, & his Conduct afores^d — & also voted to choose a Committee of five, beside the Pastor, to discourse with Him, & endeavor yet to answer the Objections he has against our Practice in Regard to Baptism, & to convince him of his Error, in that he would by his Conduct, in joining them & being rebaptiz^d, virtually declare this Chh, (with³ whom he declares⁴ himself to be in the fullest Charity) to be no Church — & in fact, would implicitly unchurch all the Chhs in the Land, that are not Baptists.

The Brethren chosen, to be of this Committee, in conjunction with the Pastor, were, John Cotton, Deacons Diman, Crombie & Spooner, & William Watson.

Benja Clark's

of Clark, wife of Benjamin Clark, as follows. She is sick & suppos'd far gone in a Consumption — has lately recievied great Peace & Satisfaction of Mind, respecting an Interest in the favor of God thrô Christ, thô before, has been in great distress on account of her Soul, & tho'tless life she lived, The Pastor inform'd the Chh, he had converse'd with her, & was much satisfy'd & tho't there was sufficient reason to hope she had met with a real Change of Heart. Several of y^e Brethren had done y^e same. She is earnestly desirous to give herself up to God, & his Chh, & if consistent, to join the Lord's Visible people, & our Christ before y^e World, & that her Children might be baptiz'd.

The Pastor inform'd the Brethren, that there was one Precedent, or Instance of a similar Case, before this Chh in March, 1764, of Lydia Cornish After conversing a while on the Case, it appearing that there was no Opposition to the following Vote, (similar to that in Page 40¹) it was put, &

Voted That the Chh are so far satisfied with the Account given of Clark, wife of Benj^a Clark, & of her Profession & Desire, that they are willing to recieve her to their² Fellowship & Communion, provided her health should be so far restored, as to enable her to come to the House of God, & renew her Covenant in the usual way — & also willing, in Consequence of her present Profession & Desire, that (considering her peculiar Circumstances) his Children may, on her Right, be baptiz'd. (She is a baptiz'd Person.)

1791. Lords day, Jan^r 2^d. Stay'd y^e Chh at Noon, & mention'd to them, a proposal which hath been made by some of the Chh, that Benj^a Clarks Wife, (the person mention'd in the foregoing Article) be recievied into our Communion in her own house, in Consequence of her being apprehended near her End first as it was thôt this wo'd not be inconsistent with y^e former Vote, but agreeable to the Spirit of it. Also, because it seemeth more agreeable to Propriety that the [74³] that before she partakes of the special Priviledges of the Chh, & the Seal of the Covenant, viz Baptism for her Children on her Right,

And thirdly, because it would take away any Occasion of Stumbling to others without, who, tis said have objected the Impropriety & Inconsistency of the Church's Conduct — in this Instance to baptize Children, without y^e Parents assenting to any Covenant at all — when, in other Cases a solemn Covenant must be owned, & the person received into y^e Fellowship of the Church, by a public Transaction, before the Benefit of Baptism for their Children can be enjoy'd — &

Lastly, Because we find, by credible Information, that it has been the Practice of other Churches, on such special Occasions, to admit Persons into Chh fellowship at a private House, the Church being notify'd to be present for that purpose.

After free consultation, the Brethren were satisfy'd with the proposal & accordingly were notify'd to appear at the house of Benj^r Clark this Evening at Six o Clock, for the purpose above mention'd.

Lords day Evening, Jan^r 2^d 1791. The Church met according to Notification & a Number of the Congregation also, at the house of M^r Benjamin Clark, & after some discourse with Phebe Clark his Wife, in which she manifested much of the Spirit of a Christian, & also renewed her Request to be admitted into the Fellowship & Communion of this Chh — The Pastor proceeded to tender the Covenant to her, to which she openly signify'd her Consent, & so was solemnly received & declared a Member in full Communion with this Church. and her two young Children were then baptized. Concluded the whole with Prayer — & the Chh were dismiss'd

The Grounds & reasons of this Procedure, (being out of the usual Mode in this Church) are given in the preceeding Articles of Record — in this & y^e foregoing Page.

Oct^r 23^d Lords day Evening, read a Letter Missive from the Pastor, the Church and a number of aggrieved of the Chh in y^e first Parish in Rochester, desireing the presence & assistance of this Chh, by their pastor & Delegates, to hear & advise (in concurrence with 4 other Chhs) on some uncomfortable Differences that subsist among them especially between y^e Pastor, y^e Rev^d M^r Moore & Maj^r Earl Clap, &c the council were to meet Nov^r 1st ensuing, i e, y^e Evening

Oct^r 31st Accordingly the pastor with the deacons afors^d, attended this Evening at y^e house of M^r Lot Haskell in Rochester — the other Churches sent to also came — & the Council formed this Evening — chose y^e Pastor of this Chh Moderator, & Rev^d Mr Sanger Scribe — The Council consisted of Rev^d Mess^{rs} Turner, of Middleb^o — Niles of Abbington — Sanger of South Bridgwater — Barker of Middleb^o & the pastor of this Chh, with their Delegates. — 13 in all.

Nov^r 1st The Council met, by Desire, in y^e Meetinghouse, & proceeded to a public hearing of y^e Charges, Complaints &c exhibited by y^e Parties — their Witnesses, Depositions &c &c which lasted by adjournments, from Day to day (in public) till Tuesday Nov^r 8th Then the Council adjourn'd to the house of Entertainment, M^r Lot Haskells, where they sat till Fryday P M — then, went to y^e Meeting house, (& after a pertinent & excellent sermon preached by y^e Rev^d M^r Niles,) the Mod^r read y^e Result of y^e Council, to a very numerous & anxiously expecting Assembly — which Result was left, with¹ them, & a copy of it read to this Chh, in presence of y^e Congregation, as is customary. May that God in whose hands² are the hearts of all, by this Result, promote his own Glory, the Cause of Truth & Righteousness, & the best Good of that poor, divided Chh & people, & their pastor!

1792 Lords Day Jan^y 22^d 1792. Notify^d the Brethren of y^e Chh to meet at the Pastor's house on Tuesday P M. next — to consider several Matters then to be laid before them, at the request of several of y^e Church.

Tuesday Jan^r 24th The Chh met agreeable to Notification — when, after Prayer, the Pastor mentioned the Subject for Consideration — which had also been discoursed upon about 2 Months before, by the greater part of the Chh, at a private Conference at Deacon Crombie's — 1st Whither the Chh will now agree to meet stately twice in a year for the express purpose of attending more specially to the Matter of Discipline — & to examine into the conduct of its Members — & take suitable measures for reclaim^g those who walk disorderly

With regard to the other two Articles — The Church Voted unanimously — 1st That they will meet in Chh Conference twice a year, viz, some time in the Month of April & in y^e month of October annually, for the purpose mentioned in the first article on the other Side — viz Chh Discipline &c. Also Voted unanimously that this Chh will comply with the proposal mentioned in the 2^d Article — relating to a Fund for the relief of poor Members — & that the Chh shall, accordingly, be notify^d to come prepared to contribute for this purpose, on the Sabbath next following the Chh's Conference in April & October, annually. The meet^z concluded with Prayer.

1792. April 15th Lords day Evening, Notified the Members of y^e Chh, that, agreeably to the late Vote, next Sabbath the Collection for the poor of the Chh would take place — & previously to it, the Brethren⁵ were desired to meet on Wednesday next, at the Pastors house, at 3 Clock P M — it being the semiannual Meeting on the Subj^t of Discipline — & to enquire into the Conduct of y^e Members of the Chh, who walk disorderly.

Wednesday. April 18. The Chh met according to notification, After Prayer, entered into a free Conversation on y^e Subject proposed — & came to y^e following Votes —

Voted That the three Deacons, Diman, Crombie & Spooner, be a Committee to go & discourse with y^e Members of y^e Chh who are reported to have walk^d in a disord'ly manner, particularly in absenting themselves from Ordinances. Voted [77¹] Voted, also, That the Pastor be desired, &² is chosen to receive, the Collections that may be made at the half yearly Contributions for the poor of y^e Chh, & to distribute them to those whom he shall find to be proper Objects of this Charity. The Meeting was concluded with Prayer, as usual.

Lord's day, April 22^d The collection was made accordingly, after the Evening Service was ended — in which some of the Congregation also joined. The public discourses of y^e Day were from Math. 25. 40.

Sept^r 23^d Lord's Day Ev^g. Stay^d the Chh, in order to a more easy & free Conversation with them, on the Subject of a Letter missive, rec^d from a Number of dissatisfied Brethren of the Chh at Wrentham under y^e Care of y^e Rev^d M^r Avery requesting the Assistance of this Chh, at a Council of 9 Chhs — to meet the 2^d of October. Being at a Loss about going myself, from Indisposition partly — & also from its being an Ex parte Council, I wanted a more free Communication on the Subject, with y^e Chh than I could have, (for want of bodily strength) before the whole Congregation — it being otherwise always customary to read such Letters missive, before the Congregation. — After discoursing a while, however, such Reasons were suggested, as that the Chh, on ye whole, — voted to comply with the Request — & chose Deacons Crombie, Spooner, & Br^r Daniel Diman, (in case either of y^e others sho^d fail) as Delegates.

Mem' We did not go to s^d Council, by reason of a violent Storm of Rain.

Lord's day Oct^r 14th, Notify^d the Semiannual Contribution for the Poor of the Chh, to be next Lords day, at the Close of Worship in the Afternoon, — Also the Chh Conference, to be next Thursday 2 Cl. P M, at y^e Pastor's house, both, in conformity to the Vote of this Chh passed in January last.

Thursday, Oct^r 18th The Chh met according to appointment, but it being very rainy, & but few attended, it was thought best to adjourn, & accordingly the meeting was adjourned to Nov^r 1st, on Thursday, i e a fortnight from this time. The Deacons, (a Committee) to notify & warn our Brother Benj^a Churchill, to appear at s^d meeting, & give his Reasons for absenting himself so long, from all Ordinances.

Lords day Oct^r 28th Notify^d y^e Chh to meet this week, on Fryday, at 2 Clock P M, instead of Thursday, (to which y^e Meeting was adjourned) by reason the Pastor would probably be necessarily absent on Thursday at an Association of Ministers this week.

Fryday. Nov^r 2^d 1792. The Chh met accordingly at the Pastor's house — & after Prayer, conversed on Several Subjects proper to y^e Occasion, with respect to Discipline — Particularly y^e Case of Br^o Benjamin Churchill, [78¹] whom the Committee before mentioned had notified to attend this Meeting, but he refuses, not giving any Nov^r 24 sufficient reason. Whereupon the Chh came to the following Vote — That² Whereas our Brother Benjamin Churchill has for a long time absented himself from all Ordinances of Gods house, & thô much pains has been taken by y^e Chh to convince & reclaim him, by private conversation, & by Committees of y^e Chh, he still refuses to reform, & has also refused to attend the Meeting of y^e Chh, when warned to attend & give his reasons.

Voted — That the Pastor, in the Name of the Chh, send him a written Admonition — & at y^e same time let him know that if he doth not make his Peace with the Chh, by a suitable Confession before y^e Church of his Sin & unchristian behavior before the³ Expiration of two Months, viz before y^e first Thursday in January next, the Church will then proceed according to the Rule in such cases, to suspend, & (unless he repent) to excommunicate him from this Church.

Voted. Also, that the Pastor be desired to furnish our Sister Patience Burgiss, out of the Chh's Contribution, with such articles of Clothing as she may stand in need of to enable her to attend, with Decency, the publick Worship & Ordinances — She being very poor.

The meeting was attended with great Unanimity, Solemnity & Brotherly Affection, & concluded with Prayer.

Jan^r 10th Thursday. The Chh met accordingly, at y^e pastor's house, after some Conversation, the Chh came to y^e following Votes Unanimously — viz

That our Brother Benjamin Churchill's offence is of such a public ^{Vote 1.} Nature, viz his long continued Absence from all Ordinances, & refusing to return, or to give Satisfaction to the Church thô frequently requested by one comittee after another — that it is the Opinion and is unanimously voted that he should make his Confession in public, before the Congregation, in order to his being restored to the Charity & Coīunion of the Church.

Voted that Deacon Diman & Deacon Crombie be a Comīttee to go —^{2d} & inform him of the determination of the Chh respecting him & to desire him to attend at their next Chh meeting.

This adjournment, & the Chh's forbearing to suspend our Brother Churchill from Coīunion, at this time agreeable to their Vote at their last Meeting was expressly in Condescension to his bodily Infirmity & to manifest all possible Tenderness towards him, as he declared to one of the Brethren his Indisposition of body was the only thing that prevented his coming this day to the Chh Meeting, & that it was his purpose to attend his Duty, & conform to the Rules of the Gospel, by a Christian Behavior.

Contribution, but were desirous it might be extended, in the distribution of it, to the distress^d of y^e Congregation as well as of the Chh, & twas apprehended the first Object, viz y^e Relief of the Chh's poor, would be more likely to be attained by thus altering & extending the plan of Contribution, it was now Voted, That y^e above plan sho^d be adopted, at least for y^e present

Also, It being moved, it was agreed by the Chh, that, for y^e benefit & Convenience of those of the Congregation, who wish to tarry as Spectators, at y^e Sacrament, the Wall Pews round the Meeting house, be appropriated for that purpose, the Members of Chh occupying them, moving, at Sacrament time, into other Seats.

Oct^r 6th Lords Day Even^s — Read to the Chh, in presence of y^e Congregation, a Letter Missive from a Church in Rochester, desiring the presence & Assistance of this Chh, by their Pastor & De- Delegates, at y^e Ordination of M^r Calvin Chaddock to the work of y^e Ministry on y^e 10th instant — Whereupon y^e Chh

Voted to comply with the Request of s^d Chh — & also Voted That Deacon Cromby & Deacon Spooner, be y^e Delegates.

Nov^r 9th Mem^o After the Example of my venerable & pious Predecessor, y^e Rev. M^r Leonard, I think it may be for the Glory of God, the honor of the Redeemer, the Comfort of his Children & the Benefit of Posterity, to mention here, & leave upon Record, the wonderful Displays of Gods rich & sovereign Grace towards this Place, in a remarkable Revival of Religion by the blessed Outpouring of the Spirit of God, this Year, which first began to appear the latter part of December &¹ beginning of January last. No w^m common Dispensation of Providence, no public Calamity, or any thing of that nature, had taken place, which might be assign^d as a Cause of it — It seemed apparently to be by the Still small Voice of y^e Spirit of God, and his secret but powerful Operation upon the hearts of one & another, untill it became more & more extensive — & a general Solemnity & Serious Concern seem^d to prevail thrô the Town. Besides our public Assemblies on Lords Days, we² had frequent Lectures in public & private, on Week Days — & religious Meetings for

*Act of Revival of Religion, this

Conference & social Worship in private houses, several Evenings in the week, in different parts of the Town. — Among which, it is remarkable, that the young Children, from 7 to 15 & 16 Years old, voluntarily agreed to meet once or twice a week, (under the patronage, & with the Leave of their Parents & Guardians) in which they prayed, sang & read & conversed upon the great Things of another World, & behaved with great Decency, order & Solemnity — several of these, we have reason to hope, have, in this time, met with a saving Change. — Many Scores, I may say, I believe hundreds of Persons, of different Ages in the Town have been seriously impressed with the infinitely important Concerns¹ of their Souls & Eternity — & we have reason humbly to hope, a goodly Number have been made the happy Subjects of the free, saving Grace of God, & have witnessed a good Confession, & hitherto walk agreeably to their profession. More than fifty have already been added to the Chh — & many more, are expected to join, who have express'd their Desire, & who entertain a hope of being savingly converted. [84] 1793 Chh Records continued. Of y^o Revival &c continu'd

It is also to be remarked, with Satisfaction & Gratitude, that during this wonderful Work of Gods Power & Grace here, it has been free from those Irregularities, Disorders, & corrupt mixtures, which have, in times past, been the unhappy occasion of opposition, & of great Reproach being brot upon Religion. And altho' it is not to be expected (while y^e world stands, & while y^e Chh of Christ is in its militant State), but that the Enemies of Christ & Religion will be opposed to y^e Truths & Cause of God — yet we have reason to be thankful, there hath been less visible Opposition to this work, than has² been usual. — Thanks to y^e almighty Power & restrain^s grace of God!

And it is pleasing & beautiful to see many who are quite young, engaged in religion, devoting themselves to his service in the days of their youth, & crying Hosanna to the Son of David. “Out of y^e mouths of Babes & Children God hath ordained Praise” — has been verified among us.

And, I would speak of it with thankfulness; we have found unspeakable Benefit from such private Conferences, & have reason to believe they have been remarkably own'd of God, as a means of keeping alive a sense of God & Eternal Things — even "as Iron sharpneth Iron." & we have been often constrain'd to say at such times, "Surely God is in this place" — & that "It is good to be here."

And blessed be the name of God, that we have still the Tokens of God's Presence among us, now, when it is more than 10 Months since the Awakening began — &

I have cause to remark, with humble Gratitude to God his goodness to an unworthy Creature, in strengthening & supporting him under arduous² labors, (naturally of a very feeble Constitution) for so long a time — in preaching, visiting, conversing with persons under Soul Concern — Conferences &c &c

To God be all, all the Praise & Glory, thro Jesus Christ. And may his name be magnified, & his work be still carry^d on here, & prevail thro y^e Land & World — till it is fill^d with his Glory, Amen.

This is recorded for a memorial, to the honor of y^e blessed Redeemer, & may y^e generations to come see it, & praise the name of y^e Lord.

Oct^r 27th Lords day Evening — Notify^d y^e Chh to meet at the Pastors house next Fryday, being the semiannual Meeting, according to a former Vote of y^e Chh, (See Page 76³), & also the Contribution as usual, to be the Sabbath following.

Nov^r 1st The Chh met at the Pastors house, accordingly. — And after Prayer to God — had a free & friendly Conference on Subjects proper for y^e Occasion — And came to the following Votes. — viz

Vote 1. Whereas our Sister Elizabeth Morton (wife of Elisha), has for a long time, neglected to bring her Children to Baptism, & it is also reported that she has attempted to dissuade others from bringing their Children that it is the unanimous Opinion of the Chh,

Voted 2^d That a Comītee be chosen to discourse with her on the Premises.

Vote 3^d That three be chosen for y^e Purpose aforesaid. — &

Vote 4. That y^e Pastor, Deac^{ns} Crombie & Spooner, be this Comītee.

And on Information that there was just reason to apprehend that our Sister Patience Burgiss has been guilty of Intemperance — Voted Vote 5. That the Pastor, with some or any one of the Brethren, be desired to discourse with her & enquire into the Occasion of such Report. &c & to report her Answer, at the Adjournment of this meeting.

And whereas our Br^o Amaziah Churchill represented to the Church, that he is aggrieved with our Sister Mercy Bramhall, on Account of money which he thinks is justly due to him, from her late husband's Estate, & thinks she ought, in Justice & Conscience, to repay him her third part, of the s^d debt, it being a difficulty of long standing, & intricate, the Chh, (agreeably to his offer & proposal, to have the matter left to 3 judicious, disinterested Persons, & he promising to be easy with & abide by their Determination) y^e Chh thôt it reasonable, & therefore Voted, 6th That the Pastor, Deacon Cromby & Brother James Prince, be be a Comītee, who are desired to go & converse with M^r Bramhall & inform her that the Chh think the Proposal to be reasonable & christian like, & that she ought to comply with it.

Nov^r 11th Monday.— Met at y^e Pastor's house agreeable to Adjournment — After Prayer, y^e committees above, reported to y^e Chh, on y^e Several Cases¹ before mentioned.

On y^t of our Sister Elizabeth Morton, The Chh Voted they are satisfy^d as it appears her² Neglect to offer her Children in Baptism, arose from some Conscientious Scruples she then had in her mind, about infant Baptism — & not from contempt of y^e Ordinance. —

² This word has been altered.

As to her dissuading others, she has no Remembrance of it, But if she did she acknowledges it was wrong, & asks forgiveness.

Again [86¹] Also, with Regard to our Sister Patience Burgiss — y^o Committee who discoursed with her, were, by no means satisfy^d, which they reported to y^o Chh — Whereupon the Church

Voted, That our Brethren Silvanus Bartlett, Daniel Diman & Deacon Spooner be a Committee to go & inform her that unless she shall make her peace with y^o Chh, agreeable to Gospel rule, before, or at y^e next Meeting of the Church, for her disorderly Conduct, she will be suspended from Communion. — Also Voted, That Deacon Crombie & Spooner & Br^o James Prince be a Committee to go & discourse further with our Sister Mercy Bramhall, respecting y^o Complaint of Brother Amaziah Churchill, & endeavor to persuade her to execute her proposal, & y^o Churche's Desire, of having that matter left to be decided by three impartial, judicious Men.

Concluded the Meeting with Prayer, & adjourned to this Day fortnight, viz, to y^o 25th inst^t, to meet at Dⁿ Spooner's.

Monday, Nov^r 25th Met according to Adjournment at Dⁿ Spooners — but there being very few Members, Adjourned to Thursday this week, y^o 28th inst^t, to meet at y^o Pastor's house.

Nov^r 28th Met accordingly — but a very few being there, adjourned again to Monday next Dec^r 2^d to meet at y^o Pastors house, at 2 Clock P M.

Dec^r 2^d Monday. Met accordingly — After prayer, & conversation on y^o Subjects before them, The Chh Voted — That as our ^{Voted.} Sister Burgiss has not comply^d with the Vote of y^o Chh pass^d y^o 11th ins^t that she be suspended from our Communion, agreeable to y^t Vote.

Voted That Brother William Watson & Dⁿ Spooner be a Committee to endeavor (if occasion call) by discoursing with Benjamin, y^o Son of our Sister Mercy Bramhall, to have the affair between her & our Bro. Amaziah Churchill, settled amicably & justly, without giving further trouble to M^r Bramhall — as she appears greatly agitated about it, & is far advanced in Life, & ignorant of business of y^t kind, & depends on her Children to settle all Matters relative to y^o Estate of her late Husband. Then adjourned to this day fortnight, to meet, if necessary at Deacon Diman's — to be mentioned to y^e Chh y^e Sabbath Evening before — & if not necessary, then no mention made, & ye Meeting dissolv^d.

Lord's Day Evening. Dec^r 8th Stay^d the Church, & related to them the following transaction — viz. That on Fryday last, the Pastor was called to see Priscilla Thomas, Wife of Nath^l Thomas Jun^r, who was very sick, & appeared near her End — he had often seen & discours^d with her in her Sickness before; at which times, she manifested no good hope of her being prepared to die — was in much distress of Mind in y^e View of her sin, & miserable State — But at this time gave such an Acc^t of y^e State of her mind & y^e Views she had of Christ & ye Way of Salvation, & of her hope in him, & the sweet Peace she had enjoy^d y^e night preceeding, from those Words Mat.11.28. “Come unto me all y^e y^t labor & are heavy laden, & I will give you rest” — That induced a charitable hope that she had really experienc^d a saving Change — And now signify^d to y^e pastor, that it was her earnest desire, if it might be, to give herself up to God in Covenant, & recieve Baptism, before she died — In consequence of which, the pastor knowing that there had been precedents of 2 Cases before in this Chh, of a similar Nature, for Substance, viz, that of Lydia Cornish (recorded Page 39¹) — & that of Phebe Clark — (Page 73²) — the Pastor did in her house, in the presence of a Number of this Chh, & some of y^e Congregation, propound to her the Covenant (as used in the Admission of Members) to which she solemnly gave her Consent — upon which the Pastor baptiz'd her — with Prayers &c. She dy'd soon after. — After giving this full Relation, The Chh came to y^e following Votes —

1. That, considering the peculiar Circumstances of y^e Case — this Chh consider that transaction as right, & as comprehending the Essentials of joining her self to the visible Chh of Christ, & that she thereby be View^d in that transaction as uniting with this Chh as a Member.

Vote 2. That in consequence hereof, her Children are entitled to the priviledge of Baptism, in common with all other Members in Communion with this Church. [88] 1794 Church Records continued

Thomas's Wife rec'd to Communion

Feb^r 12th Elizabeth Lanman, widow of Sam^l Lanman, late member of y^e Chh dec^d was this day received in the Communion in her own house, having been confined by bodily weakness for a great many Years — Her Case, & her Desire, were laid before y^e Chh in Dec^r last, when the Pastor gave a brief Acc^t or relation of her religious Experience as he received it from her — upon which y^e Chh Voted that they were satisfy'd to receive her, as above — Her ad- voted mission was delay'd to this time, (longer than is usual) from no other Cause than her husband's intervening Sickness & Death, after she was propounded (before y^e Chh only.) — On Occasion of her Admission The Pastor preached to a very full house, & solemn Audience from Jer. 50.5. “Come & let us join ourselves to y^e Lord in a perpetual Covenant, that shall not be forgotten.” — We trust y^e Presence of God was there!

March 30th Lords day Evening. Notify'd the Semiannual Contribution to be the next Sabbath, & the previous Conference of y^e Chh, on Thursday next both, agreeable to the Vote of this Chh — See Pages 76, & 82.¹

April 3^d Thursday — The Chh met accordingly, in the School house — Convers^d on various things, agreeably to y^e Desires of y^e Meeting

Mem^o. The Precinct, at a Meeting, having chosen a Committee of seven, (thrô the influence & desire of a Number of Men who have, of late, talk'd of a Separation & build^e another Meeting house) to confer with a Committee of this Chh & their Pastor, on certain Propositions made by a Number of dissatisfy'd Individuals, relating to the “baptizing the Children of such as have been themselves baptiz'd & not immoral, & professing a Belief of y^e Christian Religion” — with 2 or 3 other Matters, of lesser Importance, as they acknowledged — The Chh accordingly did Vote, & chose seven Members, together with the Pastor, to confer with s^d Committee then appointed by y^e Precinct — viz — The Pastor, & our Brethren Deacons Diman & Crombie, Will^m Watson, James Prince John Cobb, Doct^r Rosseter Cotton & Lemuel Drew. begun & concluded with Prayer.

Tho' Jackson Esq' another chosen, now dead — & Sam^t Jackson absent. — After a lengthy & amicable Conference, it was at length agree'd, that the two Chairmen, Viz the Pastor, & Major Thomas, be requested to draw up a form of Admission into a christian Chh, & Confession of faith, & present them at y^e next Meeting of these Committees, for them to deliberate & converse upon

The Object with the Gentlemen abovenamed, appearing to be, to have some Mode adopted by this Chh, of admitting Members, (& having their Offspring baptiz^d) different from that Covenant now in Use, which, they say, they can not clearly & conscientiously make. So adj^d y^e Conference a fortnight. [89] 1794 Chh Records continued

Oct^r 19th Lords Day Evening — Notify^d the Semiannual Contribution to be next Sabbath & the Chh Conference, as usual previous to it, to be on on Thursday next.

Oct^r 21st The Committees of the Chh & Precinct, (mention^d in the foregoing page) met, this Evening, at Deacon Diman's; had a long, & free Conference on the Subject of Admission to sealing Ordinances — & the forms mention^d before, *Page 88.*¹ For, it is proper to mention here, that none of the Gentlemen of y^e Prec^t Committee desired or wish'd to have the antient Method of owning the Coven', revived.

At this Meeting M' Thomas, the Chairman of y^e Precinct's Committee, produced a Form, (as was agreed) viz, a Confession of Faith, & a Chh Covenant — being the same, (as he informed us) that is used in the Chh in Plimpton since the Settlement of their present Pastor, Rev^d M' Samson, & drawn up by him) To this it was objected, by the Committee of y^e Chh, that the Confession, was of so very general a Nature, that any Denomination of Men call^d christian except Deists, could & would readily subscribe such a Confess" & Coven'. That it would therefore introduce great Confusion into the Chh, & lay a foundation for sad Dissention, Animosities & Dicord among Brethren of the same Communion, who, being so exceedingly different in their Ideas of what they deem fundamental Doctrines of y^e Gospel, cannot maintain that cordial, friendly fellowship, so becoming & necessary in a Christian Chh — for "How can two walk together, except they be agreed?" — Particularly, the great & glorious, scriptural Doctrine of the Divinity or true & proper Deity of our Lord Jesus Christ, was insisted on, by the Committee of this Chh, as a doctrine which this Chh, (as well as others) have, from the beginning, held as a foundation Doctrine of y^e Bible, & which we can never give up, as we view it to be the great Ground of all our hope here, & happiness hereafter — This, therefore, it was much insisted, ought expressly & unreservedly to be acknowledged, by those who wish for Admission into this Chh — to which some of the Precinct's Committee w^d not agree — together with wth Other important Doctrines, which, as it appears to us, are equally clearly held up in the Word of God, y^e only Rule of our Faith & Practice.

Agreeably to this, The Pastor also, (as was before desired) produced & read a Form of Confession of Faith, & Chh Covenant — which he had drawn up, exhibiting a general View of the great Protestant Doctrines, call'd Calvanistic, which have been held by this & the Protestant Chhes in general, ever since the Reformation from Popery

To this form, of Confessⁿ of faith, & Covenant, the Committee of this Chh, now present, manifested their hearty concurrence, & doubted not it was conformable to y^e Minds of this Chh universally. — But To the same, some Gentlemen of y^e other Committee, signified, they could not agree, — And thus, after a long & friendly Conversation, (not agreeing in any particular plan or Mode, different from that already in use in this Chh) the two Committees, in a friendly manner, broke up, & parted. Oct^r 23^d Thursday. P M, the Church met, according to Notification, (See top of last Page ¹) at the house of Doct^r Cotton, & after Prayer, there being a full Meeting, entered on y^e consideration of several Subjects, agreeable to y^e design of y^e Meeting, viz, Chh Discipline — And at this time, as was desired, A Report of y^e proceedings of the Chh's Committee, in their Conference with the Precincts Committee, (See two last Pages ²) was given to the Chh — On which, they unanimously manifested & express'd their Approbation of the Conduct of their Committee, on that Occasion — & also of the forms of Confession of faith & Covenant,³ exhibited by the Pastor at the afors^d Conference, & which were also now read to the Chh. In special, they unanimously agreed in their Opinion of the Truth & Importance of that great & fundamental Doctrine of the Divinity of our blessed Savior Jesus Christ, & also That they could not, in Conscience, admit any person into our Communion, who was of a contrary Opinion, particularly on account of the practical tendency of such an Error, in promoting Dissension, & Discord in the Chh, & preventing that cordial fellowship & Love, which ought always to subsist among Brethren of the same Church, “that there may be no Schism in the Body” of Christ.

Vote.

The Chh, likewise Voted, that inasmuch as some Members of the Congregation, have manifested a Dislike of Relations being read publickly, (when persons are propounded to the Church) before the congregation are dismiss'd, (Voted) that this Chh, not willing to retain any, contrary to their minds, on such an Occasion, are willing that such Relations be read, in future, after the Blessing is given — Notice being given to the Congregation, of this Change, that those only may stay, who incline.

Voted Also to choose a Committee to join with the Pastor, in drawing up a Confession of faith for this Chh to deliberate upon, at their next meeting, & see if it be agreeable to them to adopt it, as¹ their belief² & to³ be acknowledged by all who do now belong to, or may hereafter join themselves to, this Chh — for y^e reasons before mentiond, to promote Union & fellowship among Brethren in this Church &c [91⁴] This Committee thus chosen, consisted of our Brethren William Watson — Deacon Crombie, Deacon Spooner & John Cobb, wth y^e Pastor. The greatest Unanimity, & cordial, brotherly Affection were apparent at this meeting, which, as it was begun, so was concluded by Prayer. — May such ever be the Character & y^e Glory of this Chh!

fession of Faith for the Church's Consideration, & Adoption if they see fit, in Conformity to the Practice of almost all other Churches in the Land, did lay before the Chh, at this time, a short Summary of the principal Articles of the¹ Christian Faith, drawn from the Holy Scriptures — which, after due deliberation & free Conversation thereon, the Chh did unanimously Vote to accept and adopt the same, as expressive of their Belief of those great & fundamental doctrines of Religion, as revealed in the Holy Word of God, & that² the same be acknowledged by all who now belong to, or may hereafter join themselves to this Chh, with a View to preserve Order, Unity, Peace & christian Fellowship in this antient Chh — being the same Doctrines on which this Chh was at first founded, & which have ever been acknowledged by it, from the days of their Forefathers — as well as by Protestant Churches in general since the Reformation from Popery.

I believe in the Lord Jesus Christ, as “God manifest in y^e flesh,” who came into the world to seek & save lost Sinners, and who is the only Mediator between God & Man. \

I believe in the Holy Ghost, who by his divine Power doth renew & sanctify the Souls of his People.³

I believe the Scriptures of the Old & New Testament to be the Word of God, & the only Rule of Faith & Practice.

I believe that “God made Man upright,” but that “being in honor, he abode not,” but fell from a State of Innocency, by transgressing the Law of God — & I believe, that he, thereby lost the Image of God, consisting in Righteousness & true Holiness, & that, in Consequence hereof, the whole human race became subject to that Death which was threatened in the Law, & so, “are by Nature Children of Wrath.”

I believe, therefore, the absolute Necessity of Regeneration by the Holy Spirit, & that “Except a Man be born again, he cannot enter into the Kingdom of Heaven.”

I believe a Sinner is "justified freely by the Grace of God, thrô faith in Jesus Christ — & that the Righteousness wrought out by Christ, by his obedience unto Death, is the only Foundation of a Sinner's Hope.

I believe that a true "Faith is the Gift of God," & that it always purifieth the heart, & is productive of Good Works.

I believe the Necessity of Evangelical Repentance, & New Obedience, and that "Without Holiness, no man shall see the Lord."

I believe that "the Righteous," or true Believer, "shall hold on his way," & "shall endure to the End," and that, thrô the Promise of God & the Intercession of Christ, he shall be "kept by the Power of God," & shall never finally fall from a State of Grace but shall persevere in holiness, unto Eternal Life, & that "Christ having loved his own, he loveth them unto the End."

I believe "there will be a Resurrection of the Dead, both of the Just & the Unjust."

I believe in a Judgment to come, & that "Jesus Christ will be the Judge, both of the quick & the Dead."

I believe, that the Righteous will, at the great Day, be openly acquitted & adjudged to Everlasting Life. — And

I believe that the Wicked will, at that Day, be sentenced to "Everlasting Destruction from the presence of the Lord & the Glory of his Power." Amen.

Voted, 2^d The Church then Voted unanimously, that, at some proper Time, shortly, (when there shall be a prospect of the Members being able to attend as universally as may be) the Members of this Chh will publickly, in a solemn Manner, declare their Assent to the above Confession of Faith, as expressive of their Sense of the Holy Scriptures, relative to the articles herein mentioned. — At the same time —

Voted. 3. The Chh voted also, that, agreeably to the frequent Practice of this antient Chh, in former times, this Chh will, on the same Occasion, in a publick & solemn Manner, openly renew their Covenant with God & one another — hoping it may be a means of animating & exerting one another to walk more, as becometh Saints, & agreeably to the solemn Vows of God that lie upon us.

tions & Acts, at this Meeting — which was concluded (as it was begun) with Prayer. See *Page 186*¹
